

The Sad Decline of Fox News

There's an old adage stating that "personnel are policy." It implies that if you want to establish a specific policy, you must appoint appropriate people to implement it. Conversely, if you have the wrong people in place, they will subvert your policy. (Think of Jeff Sessions as Attorney General.)

The decline of Fox News is a sad thing to watch, but an illustration of this principle. Traitorous and leftist fools frequently call the shots at Fox News by dictating policy to its on-air hosts. I was disgusted to learn that former House Speaker Paul Ryan serves on the Board of Directors at Fox.

As Speaker, Ryan betrayed President Trump and every Republican and conservative in the land more times than Peter betrayed Jesus Christ, while accepting enormous bribes from K Street immigration lobbyists. He also rejected EVERY subpoena requested by Chairman Devin Nunes during the House Intelligence Committee's investigation of those phony "Russian collusion" allegations in 2017 and 2018.

Possibly as a consequence of Ryan's influence, Fox has hired a number of people who are dishonest leftists, and whose lies and propaganda will eventually hurt the ratings at Fox News. I was in disbelief when Fox hired Donna Brazile a couple of years ago, the nigrass who confessed to secretly passing debate questions to Hillary Clinton in advance of the 2016 Presidential Debates. That's like hiring Ted Bundy to supervise your female dormitories.

Donna Brazile is not alone: It also appears that someone must be pressuring Fox Business News to routinely interview guests who are nothing more than pathological liars, such as Richard Trumpka of the AFL-CIO or Juan Williams of Fox News. They contribute nothing except bald-faced and partisan lies, but some nefarious influence apparently insists on such guest appearances in pursuit of a policy that grants equal access to pathological liars.

In contrast, brilliant, blunt and straight-talking Joe diGenova has been banned from Fox News for commenting on the influence that Jewish billionaire and communist, George Soros apparently wields over many career foreign service officers at the State Department.

Recently, Newt Gingrich was censored by another liar at Fox News, "Democrat" operative Marie Harf. While participating in a panel discussion on Harris Faulkner's show, "Outnumbered," Gingrich uttered the accurate and easily verifiable statement that George Soros lavishly funded the campaigns of most of the leftist county district attorneys who currently refuse to bring charges against Black Liars Murder (BLM) and Antifa rioters in their torched and ravaged cities.

This is a fact that decent people in St. Louis, Minneapolis, Seattle, San Francisco, Portland, New York, Chicago and many other cities must now regret. In any event, it is a matter of public record that the misnamed Real Justice PAC and the Justice and Public Safety PAC contributed tens of millions of dollars to help elect treasonously leftist county DAs in these and other cities. Both PACs are heavily Soros-funded.

I don't know in what capacity Marie Harf was acting when she spoke over Gingrich's statement, but it should never have happened. The co-host, Harris Faulkner, sat there like the Cigar-Store Indian she is. Does anyone think that Fox News viewers don't already know about the role George Soros has played in funding the corrupt and leftist crooks who serve as county DAs in these cities? It's not a secret to anyone except so-called "Democrats," who don't seem to read anything but comic books.

If Fox News is afraid of being sued by Soros, that's even more absurd than it sounds. Soros wouldn't dare sue anyone because Soros, himself, would have to sit for endless hours of sworn depositions as a result of such a lawsuit. Those depositions might expose his communist connections and his endless conspiracies to fund the destruction of the American Constitution.

More recently, the imbeciles at Fox News who hosted election returns the night of November 3rd were far too eager to call Florida and Arizona for Joe Biden. In fact, Trump won Florida handily, and will probably win Arizona after its illegal votes are discounted. However, the quick and wrong-headed call by Fox election night hosts helped to generate the current protracted mess.

Like Rush and President Trump, I have bemoaned the decline of Fox News for a couple of years, and often find myself jumping to NewsMax or One America News because neither of the latter provide a forum for the enemies of truth to lie with abandon, as Fox News seems committed to doing.
