

A Modest Suggestion

Observing all the low-lives, idiots, and revolutionary wannabes -- who daily engage in violent protests and riots -- has inspired me with an idea that could bring communist China to its knees in a short period of time.

China annually sends almost 400,000 of its brightest students to America for what is laughingly referred to as "higher education." However, the joke's on us because Chinese students study the natural sciences and applied sciences in order to prepare themselves to work with the Chinese Communist Party to steal our intellectual property and sensitive defense technologies.

WHAT IF PRESIDENT TRUMP WERE TO ISSUE AN EXECUTIVE ORDER UNDER HIS NATIONAL SECURITY AUTHORITY TO PROHIBIT CHINESE NATIONALS FROM STUDYING EITHER THE NATURAL SCIENCES OR APPLIED SCIENCES WHILE IN THE U.S.?

What if they were only permitted to study "Black History" like thuggish morons in Black Liars Murder, or "Queer Studies" and Marxism like the fascists in Antifa? They could then immerse themselves in the same ludicrous curricula in which all those "peaceful demonstrators" were indoctrinated, namely multiculturalism, vegetarianism, transgenderism and rioting?

Alternatively, what if Chinese Nationals were only permitted to take courses of study offering something along the lines of a Great Books Series, and were then exposed to the genius of such luminaries as John Stuart Mill, Jeremy Bentham, John Locke, David Hume, Adam Smith, Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, John Adams, John Jay, Milton Friedman and Friedrich von Hayek?

Or, what if they were only permitted to study America's founding documents, consisting exclusively of original sources such as The Bible, the Magna Carta, the Declaration of Independence, the U.S. Constitution and the Federalist Papers?

I suspect that any of these scenarios would bring about the downfall of communist China faster than a Biden Presidency will damage America.
