

Democrats

(To the metre of "Green Eggs & Ham")

I do not like those Democrats
With ethics much like sewer-rats;
I do not trust them in D.C.
Or anywhere from sea to sea;

I do not like them in the House,
or Senate, where each is a louse;
They never seem do what's right
Their treachery is out of sight!

They can't run city government
Because they're all incompetent;
We dare not trust them with a state
Tax-payers quickly emigrate.

They can't be trusted with a car
Like Kennedy at The Vineyard;
Or Cuomo with a nursing home
The only place his hands don't roam;

Or Biden squeezing the Ukraine
Like Stalin seizing all its grain;
Or Swalwell's Chinese "honey-pot"
Whom he tipped off ere she was caught.

I do not trust their thirst for power
Not for a minute or one hour;
We cannot trust them on a bet,
We must resist their mounting debt;

They can't be trusted with our vote
Its theft they tried to sugar-coat;
I won't support them any time
They've proved that they are low-grade slime.

Their body count is out of sight
But never do they seem contrite;
Like Mafia without the charm
The only thing they do is harm.
