A WORD ABOUT MEMBERSHIP:

All Membership Fees, Renewals and questions regarding INFORMER subscriptions should be sent to our Potosi, Missouri P.O. Box. (Below)

If you receive a Member Renewal, but are currently paid-up for the calendar year, just ignore it. Sometimes there's a delay between the receipt of a Renewal and its inclusion in the Membership Rolls, so occasional "double-billing" can occur. PLEASE DO NOT use a Self-Addressed-Stamped-Envelope to inform us of this fact.

POSTSCRIPT ABOUT THE CITIZENS INFORMER:

Each CITIZENS INFORMER currently costs about $2.50 to print and mail. If a copy is returned to us by the Postal Service, the additional cost of each returned copy is about $1.50.

For this reason, we strongly urge Members who are equipped to do so, to receive the Electronic Edition as e-mail.

The advantage to the organization is that it costs nothing to print or mail an issue using e-mail. If everyone would do this, we could dramatically reduce the cost of Renewals, since the paper is by far our largest expense. One advantage to Members of subscribing electronically is that they will often receive their paper a week or more in advance of those delivered by the Postal Service.

A second advantage is that future Electronic Editions will often have additional articles and Letters to the Editor, since it does not have the space limitations of the Hard Copy Edition. THE BONUS SECTION BEGINS ON PDF PAGE 41

PLEASE DO NOT EVER SEND US A LETTER INDICATING YOU DO NOT WISH TO RECEIVE THE E-MAIL EDITION OF THE PAPER: We assume only those submitting the blue form wish to receive the "e-mail" edition, and all others wish to receive the "hard-copy" edition.

The Phenomenon of Donald Trump

By Earl P. Holt III

(This article first appeared in the March, 2016 issue of the CITIZENS INFORMER: It is reprinted here because I think it's the best thing I ever wrote, and because it is just as valid today as it was in early 2016.)

One of the most sophisticated scenes in film appeared in "The Bridge On the River Kwai," where Colonel Nicholson — Commanding Officer of the British P.O.W.s in the film — volunteered his men's expertise to help his Japanese enemy build a bridge to complete their Bangkok-to-Rangoon Railway during World War II.

In this scene, Nicholson and his officers are sitting down with Colonel Saito -- the brutal Japanese Commandant -- and his engineers. Midway through the technicalities, in which Nicholson asks numerous questions of his subordinate officers and they, in turn, offer opinions, Colonel Nicholson asks Colonel Saito if it would be possible to have tea served, so the meeting might continue uninterrupted.

In an imperious command-voice, Saito barks orders to the nearest subordinate officer, who in turn hollers to the nearest subordinate, on down the chain of command six or seven times. The British officers are clearly bemused by this display of inefficiency.

What Director David Lean illustrated with this scene was one of the more profound distinctions between democracies and all forms of tyranny, whether feudalism — as in the case of Imperial Japan — or any of the various forms of Marxism we have observed since the Bolshevik Revolution.

In the presence of democratic institutions, the flow of information is both up and down the chain of command, while its flow is exclusively DOWN the chain of command in their absence.

By the end of this meeting, it was evident from his demeanor and posture that Saito recognized Japan could not possibly defeat the hated West, with its superior managerial skills and infinitely more efficient methods of organization.

ENTER DONALD TRUMP

Donald Trump appeals to the powerless in this country for the simple reason that there is no longer any flow of information up the "chain-of-command" in America, from the powerless to the governing and powerful "elite" who constitute our "Political Class."

For 30 years, Middle America and those of us in "fly-over country" have had no effective means of redressing grievances, and we have had no champion since Ronald Reagan.

The powerless are middle-class Americans, primarily white, Christian and socially conservative, whose voices are rarely heeded by the Political Class, although there is no shortage of mandates imposed upon them by the Powerful. These even include perverse definitions of "marriage" and "gender," and the legal obligation to recognize them and accommodate them.

These middle-class Americans have been ignored and impugned by the Powerful, which has ridiculed their faith in the Bible, their support of the Constitution — particularly the Second Amendment -- as well as their opposition to the variety of plagues forced upon them by the Political Class of both parties.

Plagues imposed upon the powerless include the forced integration of schools, neighborhoods and workplaces, in addition to race quotas favoring incompetent blacks, and "sanctuary cities" for the tsunami of illegal alien criminals who cross our southern border with impunity.

The powerless have also had insult added to injury, because the Powerful Elite have carefully insulated and immunized themselves against the very plagues they created and then imposed upon the powerless.

"LET THEM EAT CAKE"

Adopting the latest fashionable notions of leftist faculty lounges and other echo-chambers, the Powerful – much like the Bourbons and Romanovs before them – have made the lives of decent and honest citizens frustrating and sometimes unbearable through their arrogance and incompetence.

In the name of "Equality," the Powerful have made large public school systems terrible and dangerous places through school desegregation and the dumbed-down curriculum imposed by "Education" Department grifters: Meanwhile, they send their OWN children to Exeter, Choate, Andover or Sidwell Friends.

In pursuit of the illusion of "multi-culturalism," they have turned our largest inner cities into dangerous and dysfunctional cesspools, from which the Powerful – with security details in tow -- flee on a nightly basis to their gated communities or suburban oases in Georgetown, The Hamptons or Old Greenwich.

In the name of an illusory ideal called "free trade," the Powerful Elite have exported much of our manufacturing base to the "Pacific Rim," oblivious to what those manufacturing jobs mean to middle-class Americans, but confident that their own offspring will never need such jobs.

Worst of all, in pursuit of cheap labor, nannies and gardeners, the Powerful have opened our borders to an immigration tsunami that consists of tens of millions of unskilled and often dangerous Third World immigrants, for whom democratic institutions and an American Ethos are as alien as Avogadro's Number.

OUTSIDERS AND UNKNOWN QUANTITIES

Time and again, in an effort to counter the tyranny of the Powerful, the powerless have spoken their minds through state referenda, only to see these grass-roots initiatives overturned by Federal Judges -- the life-tenured and unelected henchmen of the powerful Elite -- who brazenly overreach their enumerated Article III powers to implement their Cultural Marxism and "social engineering" schemes.

Similarly, many times these powerless middle-class Americans have attempted reform through the ballot-box, only to see many of their elected champions seduced by the Washington "swamp," and then become poachers instead of the game-keepers the electorate intended.

In a letter to James Madison, Thomas Jefferson once stated that "...a little rebellion, now and then, is a good thing."

Having been betrayed by the Powerful Elite in both political parties for decades, it's patently obvious that Trump's supporters are willing to elect almost ANY "outsider" over the "known" quantity, whose betrayals have been evident on a daily basis for at least 30 years.

Senior Editor's Column
No Good Deed Unpunished
By V. P. Hughes

Earlier this year, Dr. Anthony Fauci excitedly predicted that President Trump would soon find the United States at the mercy of a viral pandemic. Interestingly enough, it came to pass much as the good doctor predicted, albeit, there are serious questions remaining as to the virulence as well as the origin of the virus involved.

Nonetheless, with an incredibly rapid response, this country began to gird for this viral "plague." Among the places considered most at-risk were America's major cities, since these were hotbeds of the poor, the homeless, the uninsured and the health-impaired.

New York City was catapulted to the top of the list and it was soon predicted that its health care facilities would be overwhelmed when the COVID-19 virus struck in earnest. Reflexively, New York City's Mayor Bill de Blasio and

New York Governor Andrew Cuomo sent out a call for assistance from any quarter.

Immediately, Samaritan's Purse -- a Christian aid organization that selflessly serves the sick and injured around the globe -- arrived in New York and set up a medical camp in Central Park. Its mission was to assist in the rapid diagnosis and treatment of COVID-19 patients and help relieve the burden anticipated by the city's health care facilities.

On April 15th, however, their medical camp was noisily protested by an LGBTQ group for the crime of being Christians! Samaritan's Purse is a subsidiary of a group run by evangelist Franklin Graham, and is very "traditional" in its interpretations of Biblical prohibitions against the numerous immoral sex acts practiced by the LGBTQ community.

So, while Samaritan's Purse was altruistically engaged in treating possibly hundreds of COVID-19 patients, NYC Council Speaker Corey Johnson took to the airwaves and demanded that the charity leave the city because of its traditional views on homosexuality. In a tweet, this openly-gay Democrat politician stated:

"It is time for Samaritan's Purse to leave NYC. This group, led by the notoriously bigoted, hate-spewing Franklin Graham, came at a time when our city couldn't in good conscience turn away any offer of help. That time has passed. Their continued presence here is an affront to our values of inclusion and is painful for all New Yorkers who care deeply about the LGBTQ community."

Samaritan's Purse treated all who came without charge or pre-conditions: For example, they didn't ask any patient's sexual orientation. Yet, according to Johnson, the organization is no longer welcome -- and undeserving of all that "inclusion" Johnson supposedly cherishes -- because it doesn't pander to queers and other circus freaks in the LGBTQ movement, as most New York authorities do.

He went on to state that while he's aware that the COVID-19 battle is far from over -- and that New York's healthcare system will continue to require support --

"we can't continue allowing a group with their track record to remain here when we're past the point they're needed."

Further, this power-mad fruitcake insisted that "Mount Sinai (Hospital) must sever its relationship with Samaritan's Purse. Its leader calls the LGBTQ community 'detestable' and 'immoral.' He says being gay is 'an affront to God'."

In fact, BOTH Johnson and Graham are right, because the Bible says exactly that. But isn't it strange that Johnson cares more about homosexuals not being shown adequate pandering than the fact that the 68-bed field hospital administered by Samaritan's Purse treated 315 patients since it opened in April, many of whom may well have been LGBTQ? Being more familiar with that Bible-thingy, Samaritan's Purse would probably and rightly insist that we be judged by our acts.

The present "pandemic" has done a great deal to expose a virulent anti-Christian bias among the left in the United States, particularly evident in their closing of places of worship during the "lockdown." It would be one thing if Samaritan's Purse had refused to treat homosexuals or discriminated against anyone needing medical care, but none of that happened.

Instead, this altruistic, Christian and humanitarian organization is attacked by queers simply because it is a Christian organization, employing Christian workers who believe in the teachings of the Bible. That alone is their crime and the charge against them. And for that unforgiveable transgression and monstrous "evil," they are denounced and banished.

As the gay political agenda was being slowly adopted into law back in the late 20th Century, we were routinely assured by its leftist proponents that it posed no threat to social order, free speech, the Constitution, or the right to religious liberty. Try telling that lie to Samaritan's Purse.

Religion Editor's Column

Render ONLY What is Caesar's

By Dr. Ed DeVries

At one time, 93% of the country's non-Catholic churches were closed. The alleged rationale was to avoid spreading the COVID-19 virus, but the real reason is those churches lacked the courage of their convictions.

Most Christian churches, regardless of denomination, believe and preach that Christ is the head of the Church in ALL things, or as the Apostle Paul stated it in Ephesians 1:22: "And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church."

If Christ is the head of ALL things to His churches, then the government is the head of NOTHING concerning the Lord's churches! Theologically speaking, most denominations recognize this, but when it came time to actually practice what they preach, most churches acquiesced.

First Peter 2:17 commands all Christians to "Fear God. Honour the king." Unfortunately, Christians often get that backwards, and honor God only when it's convenient to do so. They attend church if they have nothing else to do, and only when there is no government prohibition in place.

Likewise, they give tithes and offerings if and when it is financially comfortable to do so. They evangelize or invite others to church only if they can do so without personal embarrassment. They end up honoring God, but it is the king that they actually "fear."

There is no other explanation why most denominations and their churches didn't collectively stand up to their elected officials and remind them that Christ, alone, is the head of the church in ALL things: And when it comes to the Lord's churches, the "executive orders" of mayors and governors simply have no authority.

Our country's Founding Fathers recognized this very thing, and made it the FIRST Amendment to the Constitution's Bill of Rights. Being primarily Christian men, our Founding Fathers also realized that the Lord's churches were assemblies.

One occasionally hears the argument that "the church is not the building, it's the people." This is close but not precisely correct: The church is not just the people, but the people ASSEMBLED. In Greek, the very word "church" is pronounced "ekklesia," which literally means "a called out assembly." That is one reason why the free exercise of religion and the right to peaceably assemble are both found in our First Amendment.

Defenders of both civil and religious liberties should be protesting the capricious prohibitions in 45 states of gatherings of more than 10 persons. In the few places where churches have been declared to be "essential," even here they are arbitrarily limited to 50 or fewer persons per gathering.

In a nation where the power of government is derived from the "consent of the governed," where in the Constitution did any government obtain the power or authority to decide whether or not religion is "essential"? Or, for that matter, which livelihoods are "essential," or which people are considered to be more "essential" to society than others?

You would think that the usual advocates for religious liberty would be worried about government edicts that have resulted in so many church closures. Moreover, many people who oppose mandatory closing of churches are still willing to do so voluntarily. A LifeWay Christian Resources survey found that by March 29, all but 7 percent of Protestant churches had stopped in-person meetings.

What is particularly disconcerting is that organizations alleged to be defenders of religious liberty -- such as Vision America, the Judeo-Christian Council for Constitutional Restoration, and the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention -- seem to be exclusively preoccupied with chastising the seven percent of churches that courageously chose to remain open and deny Caesar that which should only be rendered unto God.

2020 Battle Lines

By Earl P. Holt III

I'm irritated at otherwise sensible white people who rationalize their failure to participate in the electoral process by concluding that "there isn't a dime's worth of difference between the two major political parties." My impression is they are too lazy to bother to adequately inform themselves: They seem to read little and find it more convenient to glibly dismiss both major parties with sweeping generalizations.

This phenomenon is particularly disconcerting now, since there has never been clearer distinctions drawn between the two major political parties. Their policy differences couldn't be more pronounced, nor could battle lines be any more clearly drawn.

The so-called "Democrat" Party is really the New Communist Party of the United States, and it has been since the Rapist-in-Chief was elected in 1992. Adults like "Scoop" Jackson, Bill Proxmire and Zell Miller used to successfully balance its lunatic, queer and communist constituencies: Sadly, those statesmen are long gone, and would no longer be welcome in today's so-called "Democrat" Party.

ABORTION: Since Ronald Reagan's election in 1980, the Republican Party has remained adamantly pro-life, and successfully resisted many attempts by morally-blind RINO imbeciles to eliminate the pro-life plank in the GOP Party Platform.

In contrast, the Democrat Party Platform has remained pro-abortion for decades, and the party itself views abortion as the equivalent of a religious sacrament. Many "Democrats" are comfortable with forcing religious-affiliated hospitals and Christian doctors and nurses to perform abortions. They also appear equally comfortable with so-called "fourth trimester abortions," an obvious euphemism designed to camouflage the crime of infanticide.

IMMIGRATION: Similarly, many elitist Republican office-holders like former House Speaker Paul Ryan have been bribed by Wall Street and corporate lobbyists -- or intimidated by the corrupt leftist media -- into supporting open borders and amnesty for tens of millions of illegal aliens.

Yet, President Trump and the vast majority of rank-and-file Republicans support a border wall to end the illegal and dangerous invasion of the U.S. by the dregs and criminals of Third World. They also oppose "amnesty" for illegal aliens already here.

While recent Democrat Party Platforms give lip service to the need for "reforming" U.S. immigration laws, this is merely camouflage for their support of open borders and amnesty for illegals. At every turn, "Democrats" in the House and Senate have fought President Trump's efforts to build a border wall and to apprehend and deport criminal immigrants. They frequently use corrupt federal judges to issue injunctions to halt all efforts to address the matter.

GUN CONTROL: Among most "Democrats," gun confiscation and repeal of the 2nd Amendment is as high a priority as abortion-on-demand. Most of the 2020 Democrat Presidential Primary candidates supported some form of gun control measure, including confiscation. In most "blue" states and the large urban areas controlled by "Democrats," there are severe gun restrictions already in place.

In sharp contrast, the Republican Party has fought to preserve the 2nd Amendment, and its elected Members of Congress have consistently voted against most efforts by "Democrats" to erode the Right to Keep and Bear Arms guaranteed by the Second Amendment.

It was a Republican House, Senate and White House that repealed the Clinton-era gun limits, and also enacted federal legislation to establish legislative immunity for gun-manufacturers to protect them from absurd and frivolous lawsuits designed to bankrupt them.

CENSORSHIP: I am unaware of any serious efforts in my lifetime by Republicans to censor political opposition. Most Republicans recognize that the First Amendment's guarantees are as vital as those of the 2nd Amendment.

On the other hand, the "Democrat" Party's leftist allies feverishly work to obstruct the civil liberties of everyone with whom they disagree. Thugs like "Anti-Fa" and Black Lives Matter routinely use violent assaults to disrupt the rights of free speech and peaceable assembly of their Republican and conservative opposition.

Meanwhile, leftist allies of the "Democrat" Party in social media relentlessly "de-platform" everyone to the right of Bernie Sanders, often for merely stating facts that are a matter of public record. Kickstarter, Pay-Pal and similar "on-line crowd funding sites" routinely deny access or close accounts of their conservative or Republican enemies, no matter how benign or accurate the message.

RULE OF LAW: Democrats have repeatedly proved their contempt for the Rule of Law and continuously work to subvert it, and the 2000 General Election was a perfect example. "Democrats" insisted that the Florida vote recount be conducted only in a handful of Florida's 67 counties, all of which were heavily "blue" and would have generated a victory for Al Gore by virtue of skewed and fraudulent tallies.

The only reason a Florida recount was necessary in the first place was owing to massive black and "Democrat" voter fraud. So-called "dimpled," "pregnant" and "hanging" chads are the by-product of efforts to illegally punch through wads of ballots that are thicker than the length of the "stylus" used to "vote" them. In fact, massive voter fraud is a crucial electoral strategy for the "Democrat" Party, and has been for decades.

Another example involves the coup by "Democrats" in the "Deep State" to destroy Donald Trump as a candidate and later, as President. Here, a criminal conspiracy by Obama holdovers in the FBI, CIA, NSA and State Department used fabricated and altered evidence to initiate an investigation into every aspect of Donald Trump's life and those of his family and campaign staffers. President Trump was subjected to three years of an open-ended inquisition by "Democrat" political enemies.

When this endeavor failed, the House ignored its true responsibilities and began a fraudulent "Impeachment" investigation based on flawed "evidence" and concocted behind closed doors with no semblance of Due Process. The House Intelligence Committee's "Democrat" majority first auditioned and then cherry-picked witnesses, and then studiously hid exculpatory evidence from the public for two full years.

They also closed their secret hearings to all other House membership, and prevented Republican members from calling ANY witnesses. Finally, when House Intelligence Committee Hearings were eventually held in public, Chairman Adam Schiff interrupted crucial questioning by Republican members and ruled those questions "out of order" before admonishing witnesses not to answer.

Adam Schiff and House "Democrats" behaved very much like Andrey Vyshinski, who served as both judge and prosecutor during the infamous "Moscow Show-Trials" in the 1950s. He's the guy who declared, "Show me the man and I'll show you the crime."

Today there are truly profound differences between the two parties, above and beyond the areas of abortion, immigration, gun-control, censorship, and respect for Rule of Law. Anyone who fails to recognize these differences probably needs to be potted and watered twice a week.

A Time for Blunt Truth

By Earl P. Holt III

When black savages rioted in Harlem back in 1964, a New York Times Editorial Page Editor named Anthony Lewis offered the usual alibis and excuse-mongering routinely found among Jewish leftists. He wrote "They are rioting because they are hungry." To his eternal credit, William F. Buckley replied: "They must have been thirsty, too, because they hit the liquor stores first."

It should be obvious to anyone with a three-digit IQ that blacks have always been willing to use any pretense to steal or destroy property they happen to covet. They find hurricanes and tornadoes to be just as useful as "cop-killings" when they feel such an urge. It's what they do and it's in their genes, kind of like dunking a basketball, driving without a license, or running from the PO-lice.

Those who are quick to condemn the Minneapolis police officers in whose custody George Floyd died, should take a gander at the violent and savage nature of the rioters they see each night on TV: They will recognize that this is the cesspool sludge those police officers must deal with every day of their lives. It's a wonder they do so well.

It is likely that most of the destructive black savages who rioted and burned parts of Minneapolis had never heard of George Floyd, whose death provided the pretense for their violence and thievery. All those white communists and Antifa organizers knew about Floyd, but not the functionally-illiterate, black street-nigro rioters committing most of the violence: They weren't protesting the death of George Floyd, they were seizing an opportunity to "hit a lick," as it's so artfully put it in the hood.

Next time there is a Mayoral Election in Minneapolis or an election for Governor in Minnesota, whites should remember the impotence of the city's mayor and the state's governor, exposed for all the world to see. Contrast the many draconian executive orders during the COVID-19 epidemic -- capriciously imposed on law-abiding citizens -- with the timidity and cowardice these leaders showed by allowing the rioters and arsonists to burn, steal and riot with impunity.

Those who assume that our largest cities can be taken back from such violent, lawless and retarded black garbage -- and returned to the kind of law-abiding and efficient places they were before the 1960s -- are deluding themselves. This would be the demographic equivalent of "putting the toothpaste back in the tube."

Our large cities are hopelessly lost to this "black plague," which is as disinterested in law and order as it is in sexual abstinence. Those who think that whites can successfully reclaim the loss of our large, urban areas ought to familiarize themselves with the story of Sisyphus.

The relocation of the Holy Roman Empire to Istanbul should be the inspiration for every white American citizen to get as far away from our large, inner-cities as geography and resources permit. Leave those areas to the nigs, who will be stacked along the highways like chordwood without whites to feed, clothe, educate, house and give them "free stuff." White race-traitors who remain behind will get what they deserve, and probably end up in the pot.

Blacks will kill each other until their numbers are manageable. In the meantime, we whites can reclaim our civilization and live in a decent environment like we did until the insanity of 1960s, when so-called civil rights "reformers" turned Africanus criminalis loose upon innocent and law-abiding people to the eternal detriment of white, Christian America.

The REAL Donald Trump

By Earl P. Holt III

In September of 1986, 66 year-old Annabel Hill was faced with losing the farm that had remained in her family for five generations. Eight months before, her husband had committed suicide in a desperate ploy to salvage the farm with the proceeds of his life insurance policy.

Two consecutive years of drought in Waynesboro, Georgia had left the Hills with more than $300,000 in debts. She was facing foreclosure and the auction of her farm, since the proceeds from her late husband's life insurance policy were about half the amount needed to repay their creditors.

Atlanta businessman Frank Argenbright took an interest in Mrs. Hill's plight, and invited her to appear with him at a news conference in Atlanta to explain her predicament. Their news conference was broadcast on NBC Nightly News, and was seen by Donald Trump.

Any decent person would be saddened and genuinely sympathetic over the plight of Annabel Hill: Unlike the rest of us, Donald Trump actually DID something about it. He contacted Fred Argenbright and got the phone number for the bank holding the mortgage on the Hill's farm, and then called it to inquire how he could help.

Trump spoke to a bank vice-president, who informed him that it was too late to help because the bank intended to foreclose on the farm and that "nothing or no one is going to stop it." This poor guy hadn't reckoned with the force known as Donald Trump who, in desperation, resorted to a bluff: If the bank foreclosed, he vowed to sue the bank for wrongful death on behalf of Annabel Hill, on the basis of the bank having hounded Mrs. Hill's late husband until he committed suicide.

The bank's officers blinked, and then sold Trump and Argenbright a 30-day option to purchase the Hill's farm through the Federal Land Bank, cancelling the auction that was a mere two hours away. Friends and family who had come to the courthouse to commiserate with the Hills were brought to tears at the prospect of a legitimate rescue plan.

Trump and Argenbright immediately launched a 30-day drive to raise the $187,000 needed to satisfy the balance of the mortgage. Through their contacts they raised $109,000, including $20,000 from the fans of the late Don Imus. Donald Trump and a Dallas farmer named Tom McKamy split the remaining balance of $78,000.

Annabel Hill celebrated Christmas of 1986 at the atrium of the Trump Tower, where the news media and many generous people -- who had contributed to the fundraiser to save her farm -- gathered to watch her burn her farm's now "satisfied" mortgage documents.

Trump kept in touch with Annabel Hill long after their Christmas celebration at Trump Tower. He would call Annabel on the phone to see how she was doing long after the publicity ended. After their farm was saved, Annabel's son Jim claims the Hill Family became unofficial spokesmen for other farmers losing their land through foreclosure.

Annabel Hill died at the age of 91 in 2011. She went to her grave believing that Trump saved her farm because "...God touched his heart." She once stated that her husband's death had not been in vain only because of the generosity of Donald Trump and others who came to her rescue when she needed help.

There are dozens of similar examples of Trump's generosity: however, conspicuously absent are similar examples of charitable works by members of the Corrupt Leftist Media or those "Democrat" politicians who do their bidding. None seem to have done anything even remotely resembling Donald Trump's acts of kindness and benevolence.

If you are unaware of President Trump's philanthropic endeavors, you need to reevaluate your source of news. Your news is being filtered by the Corrupt Leftist Media, who despise President Trump because he is not a Marxist or globalist traitor as they all are. That's why you may never have heard of Annabel Hill. May she Rest in Peace.

(For other examples of Donald Trump's compassion and humanity, see "Trump Does the Unimaginable" by Liz Crokin at frontpagemag.com.)

"Projection"

By Earl P. Holt III

The Psychology and Psychiatry professions employ a term of art called "Projection," which describes the phenomenon of individuals who are quick to attribute their own character flaws to others. This is like the habitual thief who is convinced that everyone ELSE is crooked.

Nowhere is this characteristic more obvious than among deranged leftists in the "Democrat" Party, particularly in regard to their relentless accusations of wrongdoing against President Trump. Most, if not all accusations are entirely fraudulent -- while at the same time -- remain demonstrably true of Trump's lying and deranged accusers.

Weaponizing Government: In late April of 2020, President Trump authorized Attorney General William Barr to declassify any documents at the Justice Department or elsewhere demonstrating the Obama Administration's "weaponization" of federal agencies to engage in a "coup" against President Trump.

This was immediately denounced by many "Democrats" and other leftists in language similar to the following from a New York Times correspondent: "What we now have here is the full weight of law enforcement of the US government being deployed against the president's perceived enemies."

Leftists remain oblivious to the mountain of evidence exposing the role Obama played in coordinating the unconstitutional and treasonous use of his intelligence and law enforcement agencies to destroy his political opposition.

They turned a blind eye to Obama's use of the FBI, CIA, NSA, Justice and State Departments to spy on and frame Donald Trump, as well as his family, friends, business associates and campaign staff. Obama's defenders also remain disinterested in the "un-masking" of hundreds of Trump campaign and transition staff by the intel agencies and State Department, even though their only "crimes" were to support Donald Trump for President.

Dirty cops and the intelligence community used unconstitutional and illegal tactics to try to overthrow a duly-elected President, but the only outcry by the left and its corrupt leftist media allies occurred when the dirty cops, themselves, came under legitimate scrutiny by the Justice Department.

RUSSIAN "COLLUSION": It has been proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that Donald Trump did not engage in "collusion" with Russia to influence the 2016 Presidential Election. However, it's a matter of public record that his opponent, Hillary Clinton DID engage in such behavior, thus affording a perfect example of "projection."

Trump's exoneration is beyond doubt: Trump, his family, campaign staff, business dealings, attorneys, and transition team were all investigated by the FBI for a year, and then for two more years by the Special Counsel's office. After full cooperation with investigators that involved millions of documents and thousands of interviews, the charges against Trump were proved to be totally baseless. In fact, they were fabricated.

At the same time, we know with absolute certainty that Hillary Clinton and the Democrat National Committee laundered $12 Million through the Perkins-Coei Law Firm to fund Fusion GPS, an opposition research firm hired to smear President Trump. The ultimate source of their efforts was fabricated and phony "evidence" planted by Russian intelligence agencies, who desperately wanted Hillary Clinton to be elected president.

The Russians knew Clinton was vulnerable to blackmail by virtue of her "Uranium One" deal with them when she served as Secretary of State. Clinton sold Russia 20% of our precious Uranium reserves in exchange for $145 Million in laundered money from Russian oligarchs to her Clinton Family Crime Foundation. Russia desperately wanted Hillary Clinton to be president because they knew she could be bribed, and they could blackmail her over her "Uranium One" dealings.

ABUSE OF POWER: The lame and amateurish charges levelled against President Trump during the phony and partisan House Impeachment Hearings in 2019 included the charge that he engaged in an "abuse of power." This charge was based on Trump's July 25th "courtesy" phone call to newly-elected Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky. During the call, Trump asked Zelensky if he would inquire into Joe Biden's questionable dealings with Zelensky's predecessors while Biden was Vice President.

As Chief Executive, Donald Trump is the chief law enforcement officer of the United States. It would have been a dereliction of duty had he not pursued Joe Biden's obvious attempts to extort Ukrainian officials to benefit his wastrel son. Had any GOP office-holder conducted himself as Joe Biden did as Vice President, House "Democrats" would have Impeached Trump for NOT making inquiries into their conduct.

Previously, during a candid interview at the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR,) then-Vice President Biden crowed to a roomful of plutocrats how he had threatened to withhold over $1 Billion in U.S. aid to the Ukraine unless Ukrainian Prosecutor--General Victor Shokin was fired. Biden didn't randomly select Shokin's name from a Ukrainian phonebook, Shokin was investigating Burisma Holdings, a firm owned by a corrupt Ukrainian oligarch on whose Board of Directors Joe Biden's son, Hunter served for several years.

While serving on the Board of Burisma Holdings, Hunter Biden and his business partner laundered $16 Million through their firm, Rosemont Seneca Partners. Both served on the Board of this natural gas company despite having no experience in the energy industry, no knowledge of the Ukrainian or Russian languages, and despite the fact that neither could find the Ukraine on a map.

Prosecutor-General Shokin was conducting an investigation into Burisma Holdings based on its corrupt owner's role in the earlier theft of $1.8 Billion in U.S. aid to Ukraine's war-ravaged economy. Victor Shokin told John Solomon of The Hill that he had "specific plans" to investigate Burisma Holdings and "all members of the Executive Board, including Hunter Biden." Shokin's removal made it obvious to President Trump and everyone else where that U.S. aid money went.

House "Democrats" meticulously ignored ALL evidence involving the Bidens. Taking its cue from the phony and partisan allegations of a disloyal NSA whistle-blower, House Democrats then accused Donald Trump of an attempt to extort President Zelensky unless he caved to Trump's request that Zelensky pursue an investigation of Biden's conduct.

Yet, House "Democrats" never anticipated that President Trump would de-classify the Zelensky phone call and make an unredacted transcript available to the media. When he did so, it did not include even a hint of the extortion that House "Democrats" had falsely and shamelessly alleged. However, Biden's extortion is a matter of public record, and digitally preserved forever in that CFR video.

Aid & Comfort

By Earl P. Holt III

So-called "Democrats" and their leftist allies have consistently sided with our mortal enemies ever since the Bolshevik Revolution. It is clear they consider Republicans, conservatives, Christians, Libertarians and most of the American Electorate to be greater threats to their agenda than either Islamic-Marxist terrorists or the communist nations that seek to destroy us.

"Democrats" correctly recognize that ideologically, they have more in common with our enemies than with decent Americans. For example, we now know that Senator Ted Kennedy (D-Chappaquiddick,) met with the Soviet Union's leadership several times to advise them on tactics to oppose and undermine President Ronald Reagan's policies to reverse Soviet expansionism in the 1980s.

A more recent example involves the willingness of "Democrats" and their news media allies to parrot the lies of communist China and help it cover up the source of China's COVID-19 pandemic. Honest observers recognized the obvious role that China's Level IV Virology Lab in the Wuhan Province played as its origin, and discounted the ludicrous theory that Wuhan's "wet-markets" were the source of its transmission to human populations.

As is often the case with those who tell the truth about the systemic lies of communist governments, individuals who reported the truth were denounced as "conspiracy-theorists" or "paranoids." They were also denounced for pointing out communist China's obvious cover-up of the growing epidemic, that allowed the virus to spread to every continent on the globe and become a true pandemic.

SOVIET UNION: Despite relentless efforts by the Jews' Media to hide this fact, FDR's Administration became the world's largest employer of Soviet espionage agents outside of the USSR. Thanks to the Freedom of Information Act, we now have incontrovertible evidence in the form of decoded transmissions between Moscow to its agents servicing the Roosevelt Administration, termed "VENONA" by U.S. Army code-breakers.

These decrypted transmissions have allowed experts to identify these traitors by their very code-names, and expose hundreds of Soviet NKVD and GRU espionage agents employed by the federal government. These were just some of the many individuals who served Soviet Communism, often from powerful positions in the "Democrat" administrations of FDR and Truman during World War II and its aftermath.

Prominent examples within the highest echelons of FDR's Treasury Department alone include Harry Dexter White (Soviet codename "Jurist,") Solomon Adler ("Sachs,") Harold Glasser ("Ruble,") Frank Coe ("Peak,") William H. Taylor ("Acorn,") and Sonia Gold ("Zhenia,") These employees at the top of the Treasury Department constituted the infamous "Silvermaster" spy ring described by defectors Whittaker Chambers and Elizabeth Bentley in their testimony before the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC .)

FDR's Chief of Staff, a man named Lauchlin Currie (Soviet code-name "Page,") was also a Soviet spy, as was Harry Hopkins (Soviet code-name "Agent 19,") the man who negotiated and executed the "Lend-Lease" program to arm the Soviet Union before and during W.W. II. Hopkins also secretly and illegally shipped the Soviets all the Uranium he could gather, so Stalin could build a nuclear weapon based on the designs his agents stole from the Manhattan Project, also with the help of Hopkins and the many Soviet agents embedded there.

Likewise, Alger Hiss, who was given almost SINGULAR responsibility for negotiating the Yalta Treaty, was both an NKVD and a GRU agent. He was recruited independently by both Soviet spy agencies, and given the code-names "Mars" by the GRU and "Lawyer" by the NKVD. Hiss was the man who sealed the fate of post-war Eastern Europe by handing it to his Soviet masters at Yalta.

IRAN DEAL: Barack Hussein Obama and his corrupt and traitorous Administration released $150 Billion in Iranian assets frozen by the international banking system, and also gave Iran several billion dollars in U.S. currency. Worse yet, these traitors also effectively gave Iran permission to build a nuclear weapon. They gave away the store in order to give Obama an illusory foreign policy "triumph."

Sober analysis indicates Iran conceded little in return for the lifting of U.S. sanctions, and most knowledgeable experts claimed that the deal was neither beneficial to the U.S. nor verifiable. Since the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) was not authorized under the treaty to inspect military or missile facilities, the deal had no real enforcement provisions. In the opinion of most, Iran could easily develop a nuclear weapon without the IAEA knowing of it and indeed, it probably has.

With the exception of the Yalta agreement -- in which we surrendered Eastern Europe to the Soviet Union -- this may be the worst "treaty" ever entered into by the U.S. There was no legitimate justification for it, since Iran was and remains the world's leading sponsor of terrorism.

It was treasonous to help Iran fund terrorism and equally so to implicitly grant Iran our permission to build a nuclear weapon. It was also proof of Obama's sympathy and loyalty toward Islam, an anti-Western "religion" with a dark agenda that includes destroying the West and all infidels.

VENEZUELA: This once-profoundly oil-rich nation is currently in dire economic straits, and has been for many years. Venezuela is merely the most recent example of the economic catastrophe and the political chaos that always accompany the imposition of socialism.

Venezuela languishes in poverty and corruption because the Chavez Regime -- and the Maduro Regime that followed it --- were a criminal element masquerading as socialist "reformers." The revenues of its state-owned oil company (PDVSA,) should have raised the standard of living for Venezuela's citizens, but instead, that wealth was plundered by Chavez and Maduro's socialist kleptocracy.

Yet, the plundering of Venezuela's oil wealth by socialists did not deter Crazy Bernie Sanders (Socialist-Moscow) from stating on his website: "These days the American dream is more apt to be realized in South America, in such places as... Venezuela, where incomes are actually more equal..." Incomes are more "equal" in Venezuela, because socialism has equally impoverished everyone but its socialist dictators.

Bernie Sanders provided Hugo Chavez -- and his successor --with the political "cover" they needed to exploit the wealth and civil liberties of their own people, just as socialism has always done. It is no coincidence that Bernie Sanders was praised as his "revolutionary friend" by Nicolas Maduro, the equally corrupt and brutal successor to Hugo Chavez.

CHINA: Several times in the last year, "Democrat" Presidential Nominee Joe Biden has downplayed the significance of the threat that Red China poses to the U.S., both strategically and economically. In a May of 2019 reference to communist China, Biden stated "Come on, man... I mean, you know, they're not bad folks, folks. But guess what, they're not competition for us."

As Vice President, Joe Biden had been made the "bag-man" for China in the second Obama Administration. On a trip Biden and his wastrel son Hunter took to China in 2013, Hunter Biden was given $1.5 Billion of Chinese money to invest in his private equity firm, Rosemont Seneca Partners. We now know exactly what China purchased from Joe Biden in return for all that bribe money.

In return for the $1.5 Billion, it became Biden's task to minimize or dismiss communist China's perceived threat to the United States, both as a military force and as an economic competitor. Communist China recognized a strategic advantage in having a former Vice President of the U.S. disseminating disinformation that might encourage America to lower its guard and view China as an ally and trading partner, rather than as the military and economic threat it actually is and will remain.

NICARAGUA: In the late 1970s, the Soviet Union's Cuban "proxies" overthrew the governments of several Latin American nations friendly to the U.S., and then installed Cuban-styled dictatorships. One of these was Nicaragua, where the communist Sandinistas imposed a military dictatorship and martial law that quickly shut down its democratic opposition.

In an effort to reverse the gains of the Soviets and Cubans, the Reagan Administration repeatedly tried to fund the non-communist guerilla force (called "Contras,") who valiantly fought the Sandinista seizure of their nation. At every step of the way, "Democrats" in Congress worked to undermine and subvert President Reagan's efforts to send military aid to the Contras. By the late 1980s, Congressional "Democrats" even cut-off humanitarian aid in the form of medical supplies to the Contras.

TERRORISTS: In addition to narco-terrorists who hold the Mexican people and its government hostage in many of its provinces, our southern border is constantly assailed by a variety of terrorists from around the world who recognize its vulnerable and porous nature. Despite President Trump's exhaustive efforts to remedy this situation with a border wall, Congressional "Democrats" have repeatedly worked to undermine and defund these efforts at every step.

"Democrats" in the House and Senate have fought President Trump at every turn in an effort to deny funding for a border wall that would effectively exclude narco-terrorists. Nine times they have enlisted their henchmen in the federal judiciary to temporarily halt President Trump's efforts to fund the wall from other areas of the budget, such as the Corps of Engineers, the Defense Budget, or Homeland Security Budget.

Likewise, the "Democrats" who run "sanctuary states" like California routinely release violent felons from county jails without notifying Immigration Control and Enforcement (ICE) officials. And, in what is a potentially devastating blow to our electoral system, the "Democrats" in many "blue" states have allowed these same illegal invaders to vote and thus, undermine our electoral system.

Whether communist adversaries, Islamic terrorist enemies, or narco-terrorists, the so-called "Democrat" Party can always be counted on to side with America's mortal enemies. They recognize who their ideological allies are, and so should we.

The Beams in Their Eyes

By Earl P. Holt III

And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?
(KJV, Matthew 7:3)

For a week, the Jews' Media, race-hustlers and other communists have obsessed over the wrongful death of George Floyd. Floyd was a felon convicted of armed robbery in 2007, who was engaged in passing a counterfeit $20 bill when arrested by police, in whose custody he was inexcusably murdered in Minneapolis.

Meanwhile, their selective indignation allowed them to studiously ignore a number of recent black murders of INNOCENT whites, each an incident that didn't fit their preferred narrative.

The Jews' Media's standard narrative is one in which innocent black victims are constantly under assault by violent white assailants. Sadly, interracial violent crime only serves their purposes when the victim is black and the perpetrator is white.

To advance their phony narrative, any white-on-black violent crime committed in the U.S. instantly becomes the "lead" story for days on end and sometimes weeks: Meanwhile, black-on-white violent crimes are routinely "spiked" by the Jews' Media, and receive only local coverage.

Below is a small sampling of several recent incidents of black-on-white murders that the Jews' Media intentionally ignored, in contrast to the endless coverage given the murder of George Floyd, a repeat felon who died in police custody.

Elderly Couple: An elderly white couple in their 80s were hunted down and assassinated by a 29 year-old nigro with a scoped rifle in May of 2020. Their murderer was named Sheldon Francis, and the incident occurred in Delaware. The elderly couple was from Maryland and were innocently visiting their son's grave at a veteran's cemetery at the time of their murder.

Joseph Bullock was a 42 year-old white man and 19-year veteran of the Florida Highway Patrol who was murdered by a nigro motorist in Palm City, Florida in February of 2020. Officer Bullock was trying to assist this cretin with his disabled vehicle on I-95 when the witless black ape shot and killed him. The moron was apparently incensed at having his car towed involuntarily from the "shoulder" of I-95.

Rosalie Cook: Was a white, 80 year-old Houston widow who was murdered in May of 2020 by a 38 year-old black career criminal, who was out on bond when he stabbed her to death in the course of an attempt to steal her purse and vehicle.

Fortunately, a police officer quickly responded to the scene and killed the black bastard with two shots as he emerged from the victim's car with his knife and attempted to stab the officer, as well. This psychotic ape had been previously arrested 67 times.

Katie Thyne was a 24 year-old white, female police officer in Newport News, Virginia who was questioning a negro driver about his possible drug possession in January of 2020 when he attempted to flee in his vehicle, crushing her to death when the car crashed. She leaves behind her fiancé and a two year-old daughter. Of course, the negro was out on bond from an earlier felony.

Kristopher Dacus was a 33 year-old white man who was an employee of a cemetery in North Little Rock, Arkansas. In February of 2020, he insisted that four black male trespassers leave the cemetery. One of the four, a teenager, refused to comply and after a brief scuffle, pulled out a gun and shot the victim multiple times.

Melissa Hamilton was a 50 year-old white woman who worked as an addiction counselor in Nashville, Tennessee, who was murdered by a black bastard in December of 2019. Her negro murderer stabbed her 73 times and raped her, as well. She is survived by her husband.

The simple truth is that blacks are practically synonymous with violent crime, and murder in particular. It is a glaringly dishonest strategy of the left to feign outrage over the very rare cases of blacks murdered by white cops, while conveniently turning a blind eye to the tens of thousands of murders committed by blacks each year in the U.S.

Religious Freedom and the “Lockdown”

By V. P. Hughes

All across the United States, governmental authorities at every level are busily restricting the movement of people, including when they can leave their homes and in what activities they can engage when they do. These restrictions seriously interfere with our religious practices and worship, a direct violation of the First Amendment's "free exercise" of religion clause.

Government restrictions currently impacting religious practices around the country include the following: Restrictions on "nonessential" activities that directly impact places of worship; Restrictions on the ability of clergy to travel, as part of the general restrictions on movement; And there are restrictions on meetings and gatherings of people above a certain arbitrary number that varies between 10 and 50.

The federal government has not set policies explicitly restricting worship services, although it encourages observance of state and local restrictions. The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has issued guidelines for "essential workers," and these include "clergy for essential support." According to DHS, clergy are critical to the current crisis and must remain able to operate.

But at the state level, many governors have implemented much broader restrictions and it is these policies that have impacted the ability of churches to function and religious believers to gather. Equally important, they conflict with the First Amendment's Free Exercise of Religion clause, and its Right to Peaceably Assemble.

Over 40 states have instituted orders restricting religious gatherings. Most states will only allow people to leave their homes for "essential" purposes, such as to obtain food or medical supplies. They have also restricted how many people can gather in one place at a time, usually 10. But other states treat religious gatherings differently: Some have allowed them to continue to function in some fashion, while others -- mostly "blue" states -- have considered them distinctly "nonessential."

* Twelve states have designated places of worship as "essential," allowing them to remain open under certain conditions: Alabama, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Indiana, Mississippi, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas.

* Five states have deemed travel to church essential but do not allow services of more than 10 people: Louisiana, Missouri, New Jersey, North Carolina and West Virginia.

* Three states have declared clergy and religious employees as essential: Massachusetts, Minnesota and New Hampshire.

* Three states have not designated churches as essential, but have allowed them to remain open: Michigan, New York and Pennsylvania.

The Governor of Kansas originally exempted churches, but subsequently reversed himself. However, the Kansas Attorney General found this violates the Kansas Constitution and state statutes, and strongly discouraged law enforcement from attempting to enforce it.

Twenty-nine states have no policy recognizing religious services or employees as essential, or otherwise provide restrictions on religious services and employees as part of what we are told are their efforts to combat coronavirus.

Certain local governments have also set their own policies. Some, like Louisville, Kentucky went so far as to restrict Easter services, including "drive-in" services that allow people to worship in their cars.

A federal district court judge issued a temporary restraining order against the enforcement of that restriction. Judge Justin Walker held that the Mayor and police force violated the First Amendment and that the city appeared to be targeting religious practices and likely violated the Constitution and state law.

In some jurisdictions such as Louisville and Greenville Kentucky, mayors have prohibited churches from hosting "drive-in" services. In his temporary restraining order against Greenville, District Judge Walker wrote, "An American mayor criminalized the communal celebration of Easter...The Mayor's decision is stunning...and it is, beyond all reason, unconstitutional."

That "Authoritarian Impulse"

By Earl P. Holt III

That sleaze-ball Rahm Emanuel is famous for having advised Barack Obama never to let a crisis go unexploited. Yet, a crisis can be valuable by affording an opportunity for the electorate to get a glimpse at how elected officials feel about the exercise of power.

In the case of the coronavirus, it has exposed the authoritarian instincts of so-called "Democrats," a characteristic that should already be clear to anyone with an IQ above that of a potted plant.

By now, most readers probably know that Nancy Pelosi and House "Democrats" attempted to hold hostage the Trump Administration's financial relief efforts for small businesses. She and her ilk demanded billions for pet projects like Planned Parenthood, a "Universal Basic Income" program, ObamaCare and the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer is another good example. Her response to the coronavirus was to lockdown the state, while making exceptions for liquor stores, lottery sales, marijuana shops and abortion mills. She imposed all kinds of petty and trifling restrictions that make even less sense, such as permitting fishing only from kayaks but not from motorized craft.

When thousands of protesters showed up in Lansing to demonstrate against her arbitrary and capricious restrictions, she called the protest a "political rally," and threatened to extend Michigan's involuntary quarantine and "stay-at-home orders" well into the summer as a punitive measure.

Similarly, in an interview on Fox News, New Jersey's "Democrat" Governor Phil Murphy was asked about the constitutionality of his Executive Order mandating "social distancing" in that state. He glibly replied that when he imposed the order, "he wasn't thinking about the Bill of Rights" because "That's above my pay-grade."

At least he was honest about his heavy-handed and blind exercise of power, although he did swear to "support the Constitution of the United States" when he was inaugurated in 2018. That was two years before he trampled on the First Amendment and outlawed all religious services in New Jersey.

California's Governor Gavin Newsom announced on April 14th that he plans to transfer $125 million in state funds to 150,000 illegal aliens residing in his state. Millions of Californians are out of work, but it is California's ILLEGAL ALIENS that are his greatest concern.

Finally, the nigro and "Democrat" mayor of Jackson, Mississippi used the coronavirus epidemic to issue an executive order, in defiance of a state statute, that suspends the right to openly carry firearms within city limits.

What can one say about "Democrats" who close gun shops while releasing felons from prison; who prohibit religious services while leaving liquor and dope stores open; who outlaw the purchase of materials for home improvements, but leave state abortion clinics open; and who transfer state funds to illegals while unemployment is at crisis levels?

According to the principle of "Occam's Razor," the obvious answer is usually the correct one: In this case, it's pretty clear these "Democrats" DON'T believe in Rule of Law at all, but it takes a crisis to expose their Marxist instincts.

Poetic Justice (Part II)

By Earl P. Holt III

Although credit is often mistakenly attributed to Shakespeare, it was the 17th Century literary critic Thomas Rymer who coined the term "poetic justice." Poetic justice occurs when some particularly vile or menacing individual receives a fitting and appropriate end, and usually replete with irony.

The following are examples of poetic justice, and many are so perfectly appropriate that at times, they even hint at the possibility of Divine Intervention:

Joshua White: Joshua White was a 23-year-old child of leftist, counter-culture parents who grew up in San Francisco. He was a devoted, but naïve liberal, who became a child care worker for ghetto children and worked as a teacher's aide for retarded black pupils at Martin Luther King Middle School. In March of 1997, he was gunned-down for no reason by a black baboon, who approached him with a gun, bellowing "You want to f*ck with me?"

Joshua White's parents were stoic to the end. Despite their grief, they did what leftists always do, they blamed society and not the killer. The father stated, "The violence and despair that is growing among young people just reached right into our home and took our son. The guy who killed my son might have grown up with more respect for other people if he'd had decent schools and programs and playgrounds."

Of course, the truth is far uglier: Had Joshua White's parents done a proper job of rearing him, he might still be alive. A proper rearing would have involved repeated warnings about the violent, savage, witless and predatory nature of Africanus criminalis, the Great American Nigro.

A proper raising would also have included stern warnings to avoid blacks whenever possible, in which case Joshua might have done as most intelligent whites usually do, and gotten as far away from these black bastards as geography and income permitted.

Tyler Wingate: A naïve 24-year-old white male named Tyler Wingate was savagely beaten to death on Detroit's west side in 2019 following a minor fender-bender. The murder victim was described by friends and family as someone who moved to Detroit because he "loved diversity," and wanted to help return the City of Detroit to its former glory.

Surveillance video from a nearby gas station showed the nigro driver of the other vehicle approached Wingate after the incident and dropped him with an unanticipated "sucker-punch." As black savages will do, the assailant continued to furiously hit and kick Wingate until he no longer resisted. The nigro murderer and his nigro accomplices then left the victim for dead.

Michael Rockefeller: A book called Thy Will Be Done blames Nelson Rockefeller for exploiting the so-called "Third World," and explains how Rockefeller's son, Michael, was killed and eaten by Third-World savages when he went off to save them from the ravages of civilization.

In 1961, while Nelson Rockefeller was governor of New York, Michael was in New Guinea protecting its native inhabitants from the evils of Western materialism and modernity. During an expedition to collect tribal art, Michael Rockefeller had a boating accident and was forced to swim ashore.

As he emerged from the water, one of the local tribesmen drove a spear into his chest. To quote from the book: "He was still alive when taken up the river, killed with an ax, and in the religious manner of cannibals seeking the strength of their victims, cooked with sago palm and eaten."

Timothy Treadwell: Once upon a time there was a self-anointed "eco-warrior" named Timothy Treadwell. Now Timothy had a very active imagination, and considered himself a "supernatural alien" on "a mission of peace" amongst his friends, the Alaskan brown bears (Ursus arctos). He engaged in this mission yearly, from June until October on the Alaskan Peninsula.

Timothy even named some of his favorites, christening them with such nicknames as "Boobles," "Chocolate," and "Freckles." He claimed to be protecting his friends from poachers and licensed hunters, but this was a lie, just like the autobiographical info he volunteered to interested parties.

Timothy kept what he considered to be "meticulous" diaries of his excursions into the wild with his new friends, which he later sent to his financial sponsor, a Colorado rancher. Timothy would wax lyrical about his "transformation" as "a fully accepted wild animal" and "brother" to Freckles, Boobles and Chocolate. He described how he ran "free amongst them – with absolute love and respect for all the animals."

In addition to mischaracterizing himself as a guardian of his brown friends -- he pitched his tent in a national park where hunting was illegal and poaching was rare -- Timothy also lied about his surname, his country of origin, his adult criminal record, and his extensive history of drug and alcohol abuse.

Despite this, Timothy was regularly invited to indoctrinate grade school children with his romanticized view of the relationship between man and carnivorous wild beasts.

In a moment of unusual hubris, Timothy once remarked that he would be honored "to end up in bear scat." In October of 2003, Timothy got his wish and, moreover, at least two of his bear friends got a sample of that rare but treasured delicacy, Liberalis deliciosos.

Of course, as is always the case with any leftist endeavor, those he claimed to be protecting ended up as victims, themselves: At least two of his bear friends had to be destroyed by Alaska Game Officials after they killed and ate Timothy and his very unfortunate girlfriend.

Poetic Justice in Philly: Just when there hadn't been any good news for a while, a 24 year-old rioter -- attempting to steal cash from an ATM -- blew himself to bits during the "George Floyd Riots" in Philadelphia in early June of 2020.

Police indicate that there had been a "coordinated" effort by Antifa, Black Lives Matter and other communists throughout Philadelphia to steal cash from ATMs to fund their criminal endeavors. As many as 30 ATMs had been destroyed with explosive devices over the previous two nights.

This wanna-be "revolutionary" was thrown to the ground with massive trauma to his chest and abdomen. Like his comrades, the only thing "revolutionary" about him was the depth of his depravity, sociopathy and destructiveness.

In addition to destroying the property of people who actually work for a living -- instead of parasitically residing in their parents' basements -- these violent dilettantes destroyed a famous sculpture by James West titled "The Bond," which portrayed George Washington and Benjamin Franklin.

Room Service

By Earl P. Holt III

San Francisco is a microcosm of what the U.S. would be like if it were run by the same variety of communist trash who run that once-great city. It is also a glimpse into that alternative universe experienced by Alice in "Wonderland."

The city has established a new policy for handling homeless vagrants, who must now be called "the un-housed." San Francisco is currently procuring booze, pot, cigarettes and hotel rooms for them. The city's health authorities are also procuring heroin for those who "decide they are going to continue to use," according to Dr. Grant Colfax, who -- it should come as no surprise -- was Obama's former National AIDS Policy Director.

Real economists have demonstrated endless examples of the principle that when you increase the costs of something, you get less of it: but when you SUBSIDIZE something, you get more of it.

Yet, according to the San Francisco Chronicle -- one source of great confusion in the Bay Area -- "It is a mystery why the homeless are coming to San Francisco." The city's clueless mayor appears to be equally dumb-founded by the phenomenon, decrying how "People are showing up in San Francisco from other places and asking where their hotel room is." Who'd have guessed it?

The city is averaging $200 per night warehousing filthy loons and addicts in the city's hotels, where they are supplied cigarettes, drugs, alcohol and room-service three times per day. That's correct: The same city Health Department that is aggressively fighting smoking will also be supplying cigarettes to the un-housed along with their booze and pot. It's costing taxpayers $100 Million, but is alleged to be preventing the spread of the COVID-19 virus.

The city is beginning to discover some of the problems that the rest of us learned 50 years ago, particularly the fact that the un-housed lack a certain spirit of cooperation and are about as interested in following directions as they are in hygiene. Authorities aren't even successful at convincing them to wear protective masks. San Francisco's brilliant Mayor Breed calls it an "incredible logistical nightmare."

Less "progressive" cities discovered long ago that the big problem in dealing with the homeless is finding a way to keep them in shelters. Even when shelters are provided and are nice and clean and safe, the un-housed tend to wander off in search of illegal substances, legal intoxicants and other sources of mischief that are prohibited in the shelters.

San Francisco is also experiencing a phenomenon that Adam Smith warned us about 244 years ago: In the absence of markets, scarce resources must inevitably be rationed by political authorities. This phenomenon is an inevitable consequence of socialist schemes, so it's hardly surprising that it must be employed in San Francisco.

To cope with the influx of homeless vagrants looking for free booze, drugs and cigarettes, the city has been forced to give priority to those who have "seniority" among the un-housed. That is, priority is given to homeless loons who have been in the city for extended periods, who are then favored over new arrivals.

The city has been compelled to focus its scarce resources on "people who have been here on our streets for a long time," one of the city's paramedics told the Chronicle. Those new-arrivals must wait their turn for a hotel room at the Adam's Mark. Their wait may be longer than anticipated, because rooms will have to be fumigated following each check-out.

Fearful of reprisals by the city's commissars, spokesmen for the hotels do not appear to be particularly bothered by the new policy. They seem to be comfortable with the prospect of filthy psychotics urinating and defecating in the dark corners and halls of their luxury establishments, and befouling their rooms with the sour stench of people having an aversion to indoor plumbing.

Freak Show at SCOTUS

One of Phyllis Schlafly's many insightful warnings against the so-called "Equal Rights Amendment" (ERA) was the additional opportunity its ratification would offer "activist" federal judges to engage in unconstitutional mischief.

She recognized it was just a matter of time before some unscrupulous and enterprising Democrat-appointed federal judge took it upon them-selves to expand the term "sex," so as to include any of a variety of disgusting manifestations of "gender," such as "transgenders" or bath-house sodomites.

The same circus freaks who sued Christian-owned bakeries to force them to bake wedding cakes for homosexual "marriages" -- and who sued in Canada to force aestheticians to "Brazilian Wax" their male genitals -- reached the Supreme Court with three lawsuits that were recently decided. These are the Zarda, Bostock and R.G. Funeral Homes cases.)

Plaintiffs insist that employer discrimination based on sex -- which is prohibited under Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act -- should be expanded to include "sexual preference" and "gender identification," just as Phyllis Schlafly earlier warned us with regard to the ERA.

On May 15th, 2020, the three Jews, our epileptic Chief Justice and the Mexican on the Supreme Court arbitrarily decided that "sex" does NOT mean BIOLOGICAL SEX, but rather, the more subjective and murky self-definitions involving "GENDER IDENTIFICATION" concocted by mentally disturbed perverts and circus freaks.

These three cases will force employers to hire transgenders, an exercise that will come to resemble "RuPaul's Drag Race." This is a sad and tawdry collection of ugly and disgusting queers and perverts, who prance and nancy around on cable television in a spectacle that proves there's a whole lot more wrong with them than just their abhorrent sexual practices.

Needless to say, all three Jews, that deranged coward Roberts and their ugly Mexican ally on the Supreme Court were "champing at the bit" for an opportunity to further subvert the Constitution by creating dubious and laughable new rights, and then extending them to endless varieties of queer trash.

The bizarre antics of these circus freaks are not appropriate in any employment situation, with two exceptions being the "Democrat" Caucus in the House of Representatives or any queer bath-house.

Hood's Texas Brigade

There's something unique about Texans, a fact that was strikingly evident at the Alamo. Native Texans are a tough breed, and many of those with real "roots" in Texas are the offspring of survivors who fought invading Mexicans, Yankees, and bloodthirsty Indians.

Among the many famous anecdotes that illustrate both their courage and their fortitude is one from none other than General Robert E. Lee, in a quote attributed to him by Joseph Benjamin Polley, author of Hood's Texas Brigade, published in 1910.

In 1861, a highly-regarded British Colonel -- later Field Marshall and 1st Viscount -- named Garnet Wolseley was dispatched to North America by the British War Office following an incident in which Yankees boarded a British ship and seized two Confederate diplomats. Colonel Wolseley's mission was to evaluate Canada's defenses in case Britain went to war with the Yankee Government over that incident.

After visiting Canada, Wolseley traveled to the South where he made the acquaintance of General Robert E. Lee and General Thomas "Stone-wall" Jackson. He wrote of his experiences in an article entitled "A Month's Visit to the Confederate Headquarters," which was published in Britain's BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE in 1863.

One day, at General Lee's invitation, Colonel Wolseley joined him in reviewing the Army of Northern Virginia as it marched from Sharpsburg, Maryland to the Rapidan River in Virginia. Colonel Wolseley indicated in his article that he was particularly impressed by Lee's ability to identify each of his many commands by their home states.

As Hood's First Texas Brigade passed by, the look on Wolseley's face went from admiration to astonishment because the backs of their uniforms were badly tattered from months in the field. This condition was particularly true of the seats of their trousers, which were worn to such an extent that they left little to the imagination.

As he usually did, General Lee aptly summarized the situation with this now famous quote that put it all in proper perspective:

"Never mind their raggedness, Colonel: The enemy never sees the backs of my Texans."

Life Imitating Art

In 1981, American novelist Dean Koontz wrote a thriller entitled The Eyes of Darkness. On page 312, the author wrote: "In around 2020 a severe pneumonia-like illness will spread throughout the globe, attacking the lungs and bronchial tubes and resisting all known treatments."

Koontz' fictional virus is the product of Chinese experiments in germ warfare, and later in the book he continues: "They call the stuff 'Wuhan-400' because it was developed at their RDNA labs outside of the city of Wuhan, and it was the four-hundredth viable strain of man-made microorganism created at that research center. 'Wuhan-400' is a perfect weapon."

Of course, the Coronavirus we are battling today is not Mr. Koontz' weaponized creation and is probably just another garden variety virus that appears annually, often in the spring. Yet it is fascinating that there are authors out there who manage a rather good job of anticipating real life crises with earlier, fictional accounts.

But the real question is why does any of this matter? The answer is rather simple: it matters because what is fiction today can be fact tomorrow, or conversely, what is fiction today can be used as fact to stampede an ignorant and gullible public. This phenomenon has been painfully evident during our current "CORONA-19" panic that has produced dramatic declines in the stock market and precipitated a type of madness that hasn't been seen in this country in a long time!

Of course, the reason the public is being panicked now -- but was spared the same hysteria during the "Swine Flu" epidemic under Obama -- is that this current epidemic offered the news media and its leftist allies an opportunity to politically damage Donald Trump. Its coverage by the news media is merely part of the left's on-going "soft coup" to dislodge Trump from the presidency, an effort that began the day he was elected.

And so we have observed the gullible, indeed rather stupid American public stampeded into obedience when their government at virtually every level demanded that we "obey!" Imagine the consequences if we didn't have a President in office whose trust rests primarily in the American People rather than its government!

Muslim Medicine

Multiculturalists and other deep thinkers frequently denounce the West for being too arrogant and parochial to appreciate the benefits of many Third World cultural practices. They claim we have much to learn from the Third World, and drinking camel urine to treat the COVID-19 virus may be an example.

On April 19th, an Iranian named Mehdi Sabili -- who describes himself as an "Islamic medicine specialist" -- prescribed just such a therapy for the faithful. This Iranian answer to Jonas Salk recommends dromedary camel urine drunk three times per day for three days, preferably "fresh and warm." His Instagram account demonstrates he practices what he preaches.

Apparently, the drinking of urine for health benefits is traceable back to the Prophet Muhammed, himself, who is alleged to have engaged in the identical practice. Since the tradition originated with Muhammed, it is therefore sacred and inviolable under Sharia Law and cannot be questioned by the faithful, no matter what judgements Western science may render.

It is also alleged that some of Muhammed's followers also believed in generalized health benefits from drinking Muhammed's urine. It was alleged to ward off evil forces that might cause one to be condemned to hell.

We arrogant infidels are just too parochial to appreciate the benefits of camel urine in treating the COVID-19 pandemic. Who are we to second-guess "Islamic Medicine," anyway?

Fair & Impartial Jurors?

In his House Impeachment proceedings, President Trump was accused of an "Abuse of Power" by House Managers for making enquiries into Joe Biden's suspicious business dealings in the Ukraine while Biden was Vice President.

Since Biden was a potential opponent of President Trump in the 2020 General Election, Democrats claimed it was an impeachable offense for Trump to initiate such an inquiry of the Ukrainian President, and they Impeached Mr. Trump for doing so.

Of the 47 Democrats participating in President Trump's subsequent Senate Trial, not one voted to acquit Donald Trump on either of the two charges made against him.

Yet, four Senate Democrats who voted to Remove President Trump from office were active participants in the Democrat Party's 2020 Primary Campaign to oppose Mr. Trump in November.

These four were potential opponents of President Trump as surely as Joe Biden was. However, they were not required to recuse themselves and were permitted to cast their votes to remove the inevitable opponent of at least one of them in November.

Why weren't these four equally guilty of the charge of an "Abuse of Power" by participating in the Senate Trial?

Or, is this just one more example of a "double standard" of justice?

Too Smart by Half

"Democrats" are frequently condescending toward Republicans, and have convinced each other they are smarter and more sophisticated. It's curious how a political party that "owns" the black vote could think itself so superior, since the average black IQ is about equal to that of a potted plant.

This was illustrated with a vengeance when some "Democrat" in Arizona killed her husband by poisoning him with a fish tank algacide she mistook for a coronavirus treatment. As idiots and children often do, she then blamed President Trump for her own stupidity, telling the Nigro Broadcasting Company (NBC,) not to "...believe anything that the President says."

This imbecile and her late husband contributed significant amounts to supposedly "pro-science" organizations whose real purposes are to exploit public issues for political gain by fellow leftists, such as the coronavirus pandemic or "global warming." Yet, it never occurred to her that oral doses of a fish tank algacide just might be harmful.

Despite being so much smarter than all those "science-denying" Republicans, she somehow confused hydroxy-chloroquine sulfate with "chloroquine PHOSPHATE," an algacide used to clean fish tanks.

The reason she blamed President Trump was because he had touted the potential benefits of hydroxychloroquine sulfate as a treatment for the COVID-19 virus. In a March 19 press briefing, he reported success in clinical applications of hydroxychloroquine to treat the coronavirus, and called it a "game-changer."

Despite the usual vilification from the Jews' Media and other lying Marxists, the evidence has begun to prove President Trump correct in his assessment of the value of chloroquine and hydroxychloroquine as COVID-19 treatments. In fact, the Food and Drug Administration recently approved their use in the treatment of the Coronavirus.

And, as we go to press, the State of Arizona is currently scrutinizing the actions of that woman who killed her husband with an algaecide. It seems they are looking into the possibility that she may have murdered him...

More importantly, he saved a lot of lives promoting chloroquine and hydroxychloroquine sulfate as a treatment for the COVID-19 virus. He may have saved more lives than the "quarantine."

Since the Nobel Prizes have become ludicrous, anyway -- after Paul Krugman's Economics Prize, Obama's Peace Prize and Nelson Mandela's Peace Prize -- why maintain the fiction any longer that they aren't just a device for the left to reward loyalty to its ideology?

Of course, Trump would decline the nomination, but it would be hilarious to see the reaction of the Corrupt Leftist Media and the "Democrat" Party's so-called "leaders"...

Timeless Wisdom

There is a God and He is the Creator of the Universe. There is no other reasonable explanation for the creation of matter, original energy, the "Big Bang Theory" or life, itself. Saint Thomas Aquinas made this quite clear.

Communists may hate capitalism, but they LOVE money. Their Marxist ideology is based entirely upon envy and avarice, two motivations they each possess in abundance.

There is more wrong with queers than merely a preference for the same sex. So-called "transsexuals" are even more mentally disturbed.

Those African tribal chiefs did not sell their STATESMEN to Arab slavers, they sold their murderers, rapists, psychotics and bone-lazy deadbeats in order to rid their tribe of undesirables. Crime statistics and welfare rolls prove this fact beyond any doubt.

In the 21st Century, the cry of "racism" is the last refuge of communists and pathological liars.

Women are not men, most do not think like men, and none can be men, no matter what "feminists" -- the Lady's Auxiliary of Marxism -- may claim to the contrary.

Leftist Jews have been expelled from approximately 80 nations because the Talmud compels them to engage in behaviors and activities that are destructive of their host. They seem unable to create a thriving society because they are too preoccupied with establishing their "culture of critique," and "deconstructing" every society they envy.

A Civics Lesson from John Ford

The message of John Ford's timeless western, The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance, is much simpler and more straightforward than its complex plot: Rule of Law may be the cornerstone of Western Civilization, but it's the Right to Keep and Bear Arms that safeguards all other rights and allows them to flourish.

When a society is besieged by lawlessness, a return to Law and Order first requires courageous men to take up arms to confront and defeat it, and only then can a safe and just society emerge. Freedom of the Press, Freedom of Speech, private property, commerce, elections and every other liberty protected by the Constitution are all dependent upon the Second Amendment's guarantees.

It was the rough and fearless John Wayne character (Tom Doniphon), not Jimmy Stewart's character -- a fussy and idealistic lawyer named Ransom Stoddard -- who actually ended the vicious and tyrannical reign of Liberty Valance. This was brought home with a vengeance when Doniphon faced down Liberty Valance in the town's restaurant, just as Valance was about to murder Rans Stoddard for the pure, sadistic pleasure of it.

As Doniphon and the town's newspaperman bluntly and sarcastically pointed out -- and Stoddard grudgingly acknowledged -- it was not Stoddard's law books that saved his life, it was Tom Doniphon's gun that saved Rans Stoddard.

Immediately after this incident, Ransom Stoddard angrily remarked to Doniphon, "No one fights my battles for me." Eventually, he came to recognize that Tom Doniphon and men like him are born to fight the battles of everyone who -- for whatever reason --are unable to stand up to evil, themselves.

Later, although "Rans" Stoddard unwittingly got the recognition for doing so, it was actually Tom Doniphon who delivered the fatal bullet that killed Liberty Valance. This paved the way for Ransom Stoddard to become a legend -- eventually becoming Governor and Senator -- and reap the acclaim that should rightly have gone to Tom Doniphon, had Doniphon ever sought any such thing.

Once freed from the terror of a ruthless and sadistic psychopath, this permitted the town of Shinbone to become a safe, law-abiding and prosperous place to live for the first time since Liberty Valance arrived.

Many years later, when Senator Ransom Stoddard and his wife returned to Shinbone to bury and pay tribute to Tom Doniphon, Sen. Stoddard asked why Doniphon's gun was not being buried with him. They were told by the former Sheriff that "He didn't carry no handgun, Rans, he didn't for years." Doniphon's sidearm was no longer needed because he had earlier restored Law and Order by dispatching the town's primary source of lawlessness.

Another purpose of John Ford's masterpiece is to pay tribute to the courageous men who were willing to use deadly force to confront and defeat evil, and thereby carve out an environment in which Rule of Law and other cherished principles could take root and flourish. Most received very little recognition for their efforts or the risks they incurred, while many, like Tom Doniphon, never sought any.

These are the true, but often anonymous and unheralded heroes who actually deserve the credit for taming the "Wild West," and making it a viable place for decent people to settle and raise families during the "Westward Expansion." It could never have happened without the Second Amendment and the Right to Keep and Bear arms.

And, it would never have happened without men like Tom Doniphon.

Two Systems of Justice

In 2017, Joe Biden's niece Caroline engaged in grand larceny by stealing over $100,000 with a credit card scam in New York City. A conspiracy of Democrats allowed her to cut a deal in which she served no jail time or probation, despite it being her second arrest.

According to NEW YORK POST reporter Rebecca Rosenberg, Caroline Biden borrowed a credit card to make what she promised would be a "one-time purchase": Instead, she set up an unauthorized account at a Greenwich Village pharmacy.

Over the next year, she compiled a bill for $111,000 in unauthorized purchases. (Rebecca Rosenberg. "Joe Biden's Niece Dodges Jail after $100K Credit Card Scam," NEW YORK POST, June 9, 2017.)

Before New York Judge Kevin McGrath, Caroline Biden was permitted to plead guilty to one count of grand larceny and one count of petit larceny and agreed to make restitution of the full amount. The credit card owner was not identified.

Caroline Biden's earlier arrest stemmed from a 2013 fight with her roommate over unpaid rent. After police arrived, she was charged with resisting arrest, obstruction of justice and harassment, after allegedly throwing a punch at a female officer.

In the earlier case, Caroline Biden was given a similar "sweetheart" deal: She was told that the charges would be dropped if she didn't misbehave for the next six months. Like her earlier offense, in both cases the charges were eventually dismissed and both cases were sealed.

Ms. Biden wasn't even required to appear in court for her sweetheart deal: She was in a posh Florida rehab center, undergoing a second attempt at overcoming her addiction to pills and alcohol.

I'll leave it up to readers to decide for themselves if the same courtesies would have been accorded the wayward children of any Republican, especially one of President Trump's offspring or grandchildren.

Media Crusades for "Diversity"

It's always disheartening to see the news media embark on one of its periodic crusades for "greater minority participation." There seems to be no context in which greater minority participation isn't heralded as profoundly beneficial or even "utopian."

In contrast, exclusively White environments are automatically assumed to be harmful, backwards and even malignant. They are routinely disparaged by the media and other communists.

Maybe I've missed something, but I have yet to observe the benefits of "greater minority participation" in Detroit, East St. Louis, Los Angeles, Newark, Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore, Chicago, St. Louis or Memphis, to name but a few.

In fact, those cities are best characterized as violent and dangerous, and their city governments are an odious mix of kleptocracy and gross incompetence, accompanied by embezzlement, malfeasance and neglect. In fact, it would seem that LESS "diversity" would dramatically improve these urban cesspools, where tax revenues and Rule of Law go to die.

In fact, it's no exaggeration to state that the few remaining White enclaves and White-run governmental entities -- that have been allowed to exist -- are often exemplary in their efficiency and professionalism, precisely BECAUSE of all those White residents. They are nearly devoid of violent crime, as well.

The Psychology profession employs a term of art called "projection" which describes the phenomenon of individuals who are quick to attribute their own failings to others. I ignore the corrupt leftist media as much as possible, but on those rare occasions when I have no choice, I fail to see much of that "diversity" they clamor about so ardently, except Don Lemon, the dumbest queer on TV.

In fact, the news media in general is clearly dominated by White political hacks who have jumped from positions in the Obama and Clinton Administrations, only to become PR flacks for the Democrat Party on various channels. There sure isn't much "diversity" there.

Say WHAT?

Allegations of Russian attempts to influence the 2016 Elections are bad and unacceptable, but massive voter fraud by illegal aliens from the Third World is okay.

White physicians, scientists and engineers wishing to immigrate to the U.S. must be carefully vetted, but illiterate and tattooed Latino gang-bangers -- who jumped the border fence -- are welcomed with open arms and given sanctuary and welfare in many "blue" states.

We can't afford $5 Billion for a border security fence, but $1.5 trillion for "free" health care for illegal aliens IS affordable.

If you cheat to get into college you go to prison, but if you cheat to get into the U.S., you get to go to college for free.

"Democrats" who parrot the mantra that President Trump "is not above the law" routinely put fellow-Democrats above the law when they run afoul of it. They also put illegal aliens above the law at every opportunity, even after they commit violent crimes such as murder, rape and armed robbery.

Our Saudi Allies

The Saudis are pumping oil at such a rate, a barrel of crude is now cheaper in constant dollars than it was prior to the Arab Oil Embargo of 1973.

Their purpose is to damage the capacity of our domestic oil industry, because America has finally achieved energy independence from OPEC oil and has become a net-exporter of energy. The Saudis can do this because they produce oil so cheaply they can "flood" and destabilize world oil markets at their whim.

Their timing couldn't be worse, because the damage to our domestic oil industry from plummeting prices comes at a time when we are also under attack by the coronavirus. The hostile behavior of the Saudis is hardly that of an ally.

I just hope politicians in Washington remember this act of sabotage against oil market stability the next time one of Saudi Arabia's neighbors poses a threat to invade and seize their oil fields, and the Saudis turn to Washington to solicit our assistance in their defense.

Allowing one of its many hostile neighbors to invade and seize Saudi oil fields sounds like poetic justice to me, and preferable to squandering American blood and treasure defending a nation that rarely behaves as an ally to the U.S.

Pirates & Morons

In April of 2009, a motley collection of Somali pirates hijacked a large Belgian ship named the MV Pompei north of the Seychelles. For two months they brutalized 10 crew members, whom they held hostage until a ransom was eventually paid.

The leader of this pack of black savages was a piece of trash named Mohammad Abdi Hassan, who has been nicknamed the Somali Pirate "King." In 2013, a U.N. report identified Abdi Hassan as "one of the most notorious and influential leaders" of the many Somali pirates in the area, known for their brutality and the hijacking of ships for ransom.

This "Pirate King" was a particularly egotistical and narcissistic fellow, but very reclusive and remained out of reach for Belgian authorities to arrest. Like all of Black Africa, Somalia was and remains a cesspool of corruption and incompetence that refused to honor any arrest warrants or extradition requests.

Some clever Belgian police officers -- who really knew their Africans -- devised a "sting operation" to lure the Pirate King to Brussels. Posing as film producers in 2013, they offered the Pirate King an important role in a documentary about piracy they claimed to be producing.

When he arrived in Belgium, expecting to become a film star, he was immediately arrested and began serving a 20 year sentence for piracy handed down by the Bruges Criminal Court in absentia. He was also convicted of torture, and ordered to pay 20,000 Euros to the ship's Captain.

in "blue" cities with large non-white populations and run by so-called "Democrats."

This fact may have led many people to conclude that these blue cities are governed by weak and incompetent individuals, who are unwilling to adopt the measures necessary to restore law and order in their own cities.

Unfortunately, the truth is a great deal more nuanced and unpleasant. The failure to end the looting and restore law and order in blue cities is a tactic INTENTIONALLY EMPLOYED by "Democrats" to harm the economy, and thus harm President Trump's chances for re-election.

The inaction of these mayors doesn't expose their incompetence, it exposes their TREASON. By failing to use the force necessary to end the rioting, looting and arson by these violent black and communist criminals, those in authority have enabled and encouraged continued rioting.

There is no excuse for mayors to order municipal police to confront violent and dangerous rioters, but then "handcuff" them by refusing to authorize the use of the deadly force necessary to cut-down its leaders and disperse other rioters. This describes the devious policies of Jacob Frey in Minneapolis, Eric Garcetti in Los Angeles, Bill de Blasio in New York, and whichever black idiot currently runs Chicago.

Clearly, by allowing rioters to continue their activities with impunity, rioters were encouraged by these mayors to continue their "shopping sprees" and phony protests. The police were deployed as punching bags, upon whom these terrorists could take out their aggressions.

Just as these mayors have slow-rolled the "reopening" of their cities to normality after the COVID-19 epidemic, they are now subverting law and order as a political strategy to harm President Trump.

from the LA police budget next year. Similar virtue-signaling was proposed by communists and pandering cowards on the Minneapolis City Council, and in New York City, as well.

Here's my suggestion to police: If municipal authorities succeed in drastically cutting the police budget in your city, plan for the entire police force to GO ON STRIKE for three weeks. Have a plan in place to do so, and at a given signal, unhesitatingly execute your plan. Give them a glimpse of the future. By all means, make certain the mayor and city council arrange their OWN security once you return.

The nigras will kill a lot of people, but they do that anyway. This might teach valuable lessons even to morons and cretins. Soon, brighter ones will recognize that Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood Hills and other wealthy and leftist enclaves offer attractive targets for "hitting a lick," and their leftist residents will finally get "*a good dose of n*ggers*." With no cops, it will be like shooting fish in a barrel.

The mayhem will eventually force each "blue" state's governor to call up the National Guard. The latter will need to be issued live ammo and the authority to use deadly force just to make a dent in the problem. They will blame President Trump, of course, but even the inhabitants of Bora-Bora will know where the blame really belongs, even if CNN and MS-NBC viewers do not.

Meanwhile, if you are a cop in LA, Minneapolis or New York City, get your resume` in order and your applications out to small and medium-sized towns and cities, where the living is infinitely more civilized, the cost of living is lower, and where communists do not hold elective office. You might even want to run for Sherriff...

Endless Lies

A Jew "economist" -- who has been wrong on nearly every prediction he has ever made -- claims the Labor Department's encouraging May Unemployment Report may have been unduly influenced by the malign mastery of Donald Trump.

Paul Krugman of the New York Times alleges that the excellent labor report in early June by the Bureau of Labor Statistics may have been compromised by Trump. A disappointed Krugman stated, "This being the Trump era, you can't completely discount the possibility that they've gotten to the Bureau of Labor Statistics."

Krugman was the great "genius" who, the day after the 2016 election, predicted that the Presidency of Donald Trump would usher in a "global recession." Instead, U.S. unemployment fell to unprecedented levels for nearly every category of American citizen, and the Dow Jones Industrial Average doubled until the ChinaVirus pandemic spread to the U.S.

The Jews' Media were giddy over the prospect of large increases in May unemployment: Many in the fake news industry anticipated increasing unemployment, and had already published phony data to embarrass President Trump. Instead, it was professional liars like Krugman who were humiliated when 2.51 million Americans actually REJOINED the labor force in May, and abandoned the ranks of the unemployed.

The unemployment rate in May actually fell from 14.4% to 13.3%, a sign of encouragement to all but "Democrats" and other communists, who excitedly awaited discouraging numbers that would politically benefit their party and ideology.

Krugman is a professional liar, whose loyalty to the "Democrat" Party and the socialism it promotes was rewarded with the Nobel Prize in Economics in 2008. Krugman's receipt of a Nobel Prize will dramatically tarnish the award for years to come, since he is demonstrably more of a "politician" than an economist.

This foolish utterance by a foolish man is just one more reason why sophisticated individuals do not trust the so-called "experts." In this day and age, far too many "experts" like Krugman are blinded by their ideology and oblivious to the fact that it fatally taints their objectivity.

Satan's Screeds

By Earl P. Holt III

Recently, I was researching an article about American Jews who spied for the USSR during World War II. One of the decoded (or "de-crypted") VENONA transcripts sent by their Soviet masters recommended that if any American spying for the USSR was exposed by investigators, the appropriate response would be to attack the investigators from every conceivable angle, and with as many resources as possible.

I was reminded of this tactic as new evidence continued to surface surrounding the conspiracy to destroy Donald Trump by treasonous Obama holdovers: It's hard to ignore the fact that the identical tactic was used by the Jews' Media to discredit Donald Trump and assist in the cabal against him. Like their espionage activities during World War II, this "media smear strategy" was conducted almost exclusively by leftist Jews.

In each instance Jewish slanderers and their Jews' Media organs parroted outrageous and unverified allegations that have since been proven to be entirely fabricated by Russian intelligence agencies, or a product of Hillary Clinton or Debbie Wasserman-Schultz at the Democrat National Committee.

The role of the Jews' Media was to create the illusion of "confirming" the contents of the fraudulent "Steele Dossier" by repeating its lies, and making such "validations" appear to have originated from third person sources. Its most salacious content -- that President Trump paid Russian prostitutes to urinate on a bed in which the Obamas had slept -- turns out to have its origins in an off-color joke told over drinks at a bar.

Dubious origins like that did not deter these Jewish traitors and professional liars from publishing their vile and libelous falsehoods. Who are these pathological liars and masters of smear and deceit?

Jeffery Goldberg filed a particularly vile and dishonest article in The Atlantic on July 21, 2016 peddling the fraudulent theory that Russia preferred Donald Trump to Hillary Clinton as president. Goldberg's piece was titled, "It's Official: Hillary Clinton Running Against Vladimir Putin." His effort was disinformation and defied reason.

We now have evidence that Hillary was much preferred by the Russians, to whom she had earlier shown great favor by selling them 20% of our precious Uranium reserves. This she did in return for hundreds of millions of dollars in contributions to the Clinton Family Crime Foundation while serving as Secretary of State. This "Uranium One" deal demonstrated to Russia she was not only bribable, but also vulnerable to their extortion by virtue of her spurious business dealings with them.

Michael Issikoff of Yahoo! News was the first to advance the "Trump Collusion" narrative on September 23, 2016, using false accusations of a "Russian connection" made against Trump advisor Carter Page in the fraudulent "Steele Dossier." His source was Jonathán Winer, a State Department bagman of Hillary Clinton, and his resulting article was an obvious "October Surprise" intended to influence the Presidential Election six weeks off.

Issikoff has since scrambled to repudiate his earlier false narrative in a desperate effort to save what remains of his professional reputation. The fake news story he received from Winer came courtesy of Steele, a widely discredited Trump-hater, who aggressively tried to shop his false narrative about Donald Trump to anyone in Washington who would listen.

David Corn of Mother Jones was the first so-called "journalist" to acknowledge the existence of the Steele Dossier on October 31, 2016. Rather than being legitimately "sourced" with third-party verification, the Steele Dossier was leaked to Corn by Christopher Steele, just as it had been to Michael Issikoff.

Corn disseminated "fake news" by reporting that the Steele Dossier was originally financed by an unnamed Republican. This was an outright lie: The Steele Dossier was funded by Hillary Clinton and the Democrat National Committee with approximately $12 Million laundered through the Perkins-Coei Law Firm in Washington, and paid to a "Democrat" opposition research firm named Fusion GPS.

It took two scheming Jews at BuzzFeed to thoroughly libel President Trump on January 10, 2017: They were Miriam Eld☆r and Mark Sch☆ofs. The two used the contrived briefing President Trump received from FBI Director James Comey -- about the dossier's salacious contents -- to provide the "hook" or excuse they needed to publish the complete Steele Dossier in their far-left publication.

While Elder and Schoofs had the decency to acknowledge the dossier was not verified, it allowed for the possibility that verification might be forthcoming and created a rationale for the rest of the Jews' Media to run with the allegations and disseminate them to the maximum extent possible. This is one reason why a significant majority of the low-grade morons who call themselves "Democrats" still believe President Trump conspired with Russia to steal the 2016 Election.

David Ign☆tius of the Washington Post was the first reporter to publish the fact that General Michael T. Flynn -- Trump's incoming Director of National Intelligence -- made a phone call on December 22nd, 2016 to the Russian Ambassador, Sergey Kysliak. Ignatius somehow managed to treat it as a great scandal when it was published on January 12, 2017.

Ignatius did much better reporting at the Wall Street Journal, before he was infected by "Trump Derangement Syndrome" through his tenure at the Washington Post, where all truths go to die.

Conveniently ignored by the author and the outright liars who staff his paper was the fact that this "courtesy call" by General Flynn was routine, and one of the professional obligations of any NSA Director. We now know that this contrived story provided a phony "predicate" for dirty cops at the FBI to frame General Flynn in order to target and spy on President Trump through Flynn, his incoming National Security Advisor.

Many other Jewish purveyors of "fake news" joined in the cabal, and through it all, the Jews' Media were willing accomplices to those who participated in this treasonous coup against Donald Trump. The echo chamber their "fake news" helped create was designed to cultivate the illusion of "validating" or "confirming" the allegations of the Steele Dossier. Their participation consisted of repetitions of the same lies found in the Steele Dossier, but reported as if they originated from different sourcing.

Many of their efforts were later cited by dirty cops at the FBI and Justice Department to obtain Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA) Warrants to spy on everyone associated with President Trump. They were also used to damage the reputations of Donald Trump and all those associated with him during the late stages of the 2016 Presidential Campaign.

The result was a Constitutional crisis and three-year nightmare of false charges against an innocent president, as the Jews' Media -- the focus of Marxism in the West -- and their political operatives in the Democrat Party attempted to carry out a coup against Donald Trump, the duly elected President of the United States.

Every one of them must pay dearly for their treason and libel, both criminally and civilly.

Two Systems of Justice

By Earl P. Holt III

Clearly, in America there are two systems of justice, one for prominent Democrats and another for everyone else. Illustrating this phenomenon are two noteworthy criminal investigations of recent vintage.

The first is the criminal investigation of Hillary Clinton's private e-mail server by the FBI and Justice Department. The second is the criminal investigation of General Michael T. Flynn for the alleged violation of lying to the FBI. Both investigations were run by Agent Peter Strzok, the FBI's head of Counter-Intelligence.

When the scandal involving Clinton's private e-mail server was reported by the Jews' Media, her Server was subpoenaed by the FBI pursuant to an investigation. Yet, rather than secure a warrant and immediately seize it, she was given a "grace period" of a full year to sift through its contents, allowing her the opportunity to delete 33,000 incriminating e-mails.

She also confessed to destroying that server, her smartphone and the smartphones of her staff, in an obvious attempt to destroy all other incriminating evidence. Her smartphone would have provided evidence of Hillary's crime of mishandling Classified Documents on an unsecured system. It would also have exposed the sale of her office in return for hundreds of millions of dollars in donations to the Clinton Family Crime Foundation while serving as Secretary of State.

When was the last time the FBI allowed a suspect in a criminal case to sift through the evidence of their guilt and then -- with impunity -- destroy whatever incriminating evidence they could find? Anyone else would be facing multiple counts of federal charges of destruction of evidence and obstruction of justice, but this kind of thing was routine during the Obama Administration.

Likewise, Jim Comey -- the dirty cop serving as Obama's FBI Director at the time of Hillary's e-mail investigation -- drafted the document that exonerated Hillary Clinton of her many crimes TWO MONTHS BEFORE SHE WAS EVER INTERVIEWED BY THE FBI. The "fix" was clearly "in," before the investigation even began.

In addition, when Hillary was first interviewed by the FBI, she was not placed under oath. Moreover, half a dozen of her staff were shown the courtesy of being allowed to sit in on her interview and observe it -- instead of being "sequestered" -- so each of them could get their stories "straight."

The investigation ended when FBI Director Jim Comey granted Hillary Clinton an "exoneration" at a press conference on July 5, 2016. The FBI is an investigatory agency and not a prosecutorial agency, so Comey did not have the authority to exonerate Clinton.

Moreover, he ignored massive evidence of her guilt that had surfaced during the course of the investigation -- including the recovery of those missing e-mails -- and the FBI then destroyed such evidence of her guilt in their custody. Peter Strzok then jumped to the Mueller Special Counsel's team.

In contrast to the way Hillary Clinton was treated by the FBI and Justice Department, look at the manner in which General Michael T. Flynn was treated during his THREE YEAR legal inquisition by the identical people who "handled" Hillary Clinton's investigation.

On January 24 of 2017, Peter Strzok and another FBI agent met with General Michael Flynn but intentionally neglected to inform him that he was under investigation. Since Flynn was President Trump's incoming National Security Advisor (NSA) the meeting was made to appear as if it were a routine "courtesy call" to Flynn by Counter-Intelligence agents at the FBI.

The FBI concentrated on a phone conversation Flynn had made to the Russian Ambassador, Sergey Kysliak on December 22 of 2019. As Trump's incoming NSA Director, by all accounts such a call by General Flynn was routine and considered one of the obligations of his office.

FBI agents questioned General Flynn about his call to Kysliak, while already knowing its contents after having "intercepted" it: They then set a trap in order to charge Flynn with perjury for any statements he might make in his interview that happened to differ from the transcripts of the Kysliak call.

Among other things, the FBI hid from General Flynn the fact that he was the target of a criminal investigation, a clear violation of the Supreme Court's decision in Miranda versus Arizona. Even murderers and rapists get their Miranda Rights read to them.

The FBI also declined to show General Flynn the courtesy of handing him a transcript of his call to Kysliak, that would have allowed him to refresh his memory during the interview. Suspects are often provided a copy of relevant documents and given the opportunity to reconcile any differences with later statements.

FBI agents did not believe Flynn had lied to them in their January 24, 2016 interview based on their later written statements and their sworn testimony. Nevertheless, Flynn was charged with a violation of 18 USC 1001 and vigorously prosecuted by attorneys from Robert Mueller's Office of the Special Counsel.

It took two years to emerge, but Deputy FBI Director Andrew McCabe testified in an Executive (closed) Session of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence that "the two people who interviewed [Flynn] didn't think he was lying," a conclusion stated in the original FBI 302 Report that was submitted after the interview, but which is now conveniently missing.

After being bankrupted by $5 Million in legal fees for supposedly lying to the FBI about the Kysliak call, General Flynn was then coerced into pleading guilty to misrepresenting his conversation with Kysliak. Flynn pled guilty only because the FBI had threatened to target his son with the same bogus perjury charges Flynn had fought for a year without success.

Yet, according to the Supreme Court, any violation of USC 18, Section 1001 must involve a "material" fact that would tend to "influence decision-making by the decision-making body to which it is addressed." Whatever misstatements General Flynn may have made to FBI agents - even outright lies -- THEY NEVER COULD HAVE UNDULY INFLUENCED THE FBI, SINCE THE FBI ALREADY HAD THE ACTUAL TRANSCRIPTS OF THE CALL !

It is probable that General Flynn -- not knowing that the FBI interview was anything more than a courtesy call -- may have lied to the FBI about the contents of the Kysliak call. After all, the FBI was being run by operatives of the "deep state," whom Flynn had vowed to clean out. More importantly, the FBI does not have the authority to "vett" President Trump's National Security policy, and Flynn had no obligation to accurately divulge new Trump Administration policies to the FBI.

Flynn's heroic new attorney, Sidney Powell put it more bluntly: "There is no world in which Flynn's statements to the agents in the scenario of this rank setup were material to any 'investigation'."

Enormous volumes of exculpatory evidence were withheld from Flynn and his attorney by the FBI and Justice Department. As those materials were slowly and reluctantly released over the past two years, the FBI's and DOJ's prosecutorial misconduct became as obvious as General Flynn's innocence.

Flynn's innocence has become evident to everyone except the NIGRO judge on the case, a Clinton appointee. In May of 2020, the Justice Department finally had the integrity to withdraw from the case, but the judge has vowed to continue the case -- despite having no authority to do so -- because he is corrupt, dishonest and a tyrant.

At one point, the FBI was so determined to destroy Flynn, they actually considered charging Flynn under an entirely new criminal statute, the Logan Act, a law that has never had a successful prosecution in its 221 year history because it is almost certainly unconstitutional.

Clearly, anyone with the intellect of a potted plant can recognize that there is a great deal of difference between our two systems of justice when applied to persons under investigation.

MOVIE REVIEW: Shakespeare in Love

By Earl P. Holt III

(I don't often review films, but the coronavirus "quarantine" afforded an opportunity to see this film for the first time, which inspired the following.)

If you admire Shakespeare, you should really enjoy the 1999 film Shakespeare in Love. It is a delightfully entertaining work that is simultaneously a tragedy, a comedy, a love story, and a historical docudrama. It is also a "play-within-a-film," a device that would have intrigued Shakespeare, much as his "play-within-a-play" device entertained Elizabethan audiences.

Its tragic elements consist of the star-crossed love affair between William Shakespeare (played by Josef Fiennes,) and his muse in the person of Viola De Lesseps (Gwyneth Paltrow,) who portrays Juliet in their stage production of Romeo and Juliet. The ill-fated love affair between

Shakespeare and Viola in the film parallels the two star-crossed protagonists in the famous play.

Its comedic elements are quirky and sometimes hilarious. Major and minor characters routinely blurt out lines that are destined to become immortal in Shakespeare's greatest works, teasing the audience with the suggestion that many of Shakespeare's most memorable lines originated with others.

This may be a salute to those of us who believe that more than one playwright wrote under the name of "William Shakespeare." In fact, the opening scene of the film depicts Shakespeare seated at his desk and practicing his signature -- of which approximately a dozen variations can be seen -- just as a dozen or so variations of Shakespeare's alleged "signature" have been discovered affixed to original manuscripts, and with a variety of spellings.

We are constantly amused by individuals from different social classes who fancy themselves playwrights and authors. One such individual is an oarsman who rows Shakespeare across the Thames to secretly visit Viola at her parents' estate in Greenwich: When the oarsman learns that Shakespeare is the aspiring playwright, he volunteers that "I'm a bit of a writer, meself," and offers Shakespeare a copy of his work. He then adds: "You don't have to read it: I just thought you might know some publishers..."

Similarly, just before he is killed in a tavern brawl, the celebrated poet Christopher Marlowe suggests the classic plot for Romeo and Juliet to Shakespeare in yet, another tavern. Later, it is the celebrated actor Ned Allyn who suggests the play's ultimate title, allowing Shakespeare to discard his original but ludicrous "Romeo and Ethyl, the Pirate's Daughter." Like most of the film's comedic elements, these anecdotes are entirely ahistorical.

Finally, Shakespeare's character in the film is portrayed as suffering the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune that are presumed to be the curse of playwrights, including "writer's block," temperamental actors, and impotence. He also endures a sea of troubles from juggling the authorship of several plays at once, commissioned by different but equally-demanding sponsors, and each with impossible deadlines.

As the film's title suggests, it is the love story between Shakespeare and Viola De Lesseps that is the very essence and focus of the film. Several scenes that appear in the stage production of Romeo and Juliet neatly mirror those between Fiennes and Paltrow in the film, with their juxtaposition admirably and often very creatively adapted.

Among these are the famous "Balcony Scene," the "Bedroom Scene," and the Swordfight Scene." The latter takes place between actors from The Rose Theater and those from The Curtain Theater, whose owners and players are rivals for patrons, plays and women, as surely as the Montagues and Capulets clash over their ancient vendetta in the play.

Familial duties and loyalties ultimately result in love denied for both star-crossed couples. When Viola must sail from England to Virginia with her new husband, Lord Wessex, Shakespeare tearfully vows to immortalize her in his next play, "Twelfth Night." ("You will never age for me, nor fade or die," to which she replies "Write me well.")

The historical elements of the film are several and enlightening: One is the Elizabethan legal prohibition against women appearing on-stage as actors. Another is the rivalry between Phillip Henslowe's Rose Theater and Richard Burbage's Curtain Theater, a matter of historic record.

The Medieval practice of loveless "arranged marriages" is depicted as well, with dowries transferred from parents to grooms. The De Lesseps have promised Viola to Lord Wessex, who receives 5,000 pounds to wed her without her approval or even being consulted.

Immediately prior to her wedding, Viola enters her father's study and happens upon the transfer of her dowry to Lord Wessex, whereupon she sarcastically remarks to Wessex: "My Lord, I see you are open for business. Let's to church."

There are too many memorable scenes in the film to describe them all, but one in particular was magical: The camera pans The Rose theater during rehearsals for the play, where participants not involved in the scene are captured spell-bound, admiring what we recognize four centuries later as the beauty and genius of Shakespeare.

The film was never intended to be historically accurate, and a great deal of poetic license was expended in its production. And, despite the many awards received by this film from the trash and imbeciles in Hollywood, nevertheless, this was a magnificent work that would have intrigued and entertained all those who may have written under the name of William Shakespeare...

2020 Woman of the Year

The Board of the Council of Conservative Citizens is honored to name Attorney Sidney Powell its Woman of the Year for 2020. She is recognized because of her courageous defense of President Trump's first National Security Advisor, General Michael T. Flynn.

A man of great character and ability, General Flynn was immediately targeted by the corrupt and scandalous Obama White House and Justice Department after being nominated by President Trump. Like Donald Trump, General Flynn was set up by a treasonous cabal of "deep state" operatives who wrongly weaponized law enforcement and counter-intelligence to attempt to destroy their political and ideological opposition.

By the time Sidney Powell came to the defense of General Flynn, he had been illegally entrapped by the FBI into lying to them, coerced by the FBI into a guilty plea, bankrupted by corrupt and unscrupulous attorneys, and faced sentencing by an unprincipled Clinton-appointed judge. General Flynn's guilty plea was coerced because the FBI threatened to target his son in the same manner it had wrongly entrapped General Flynn. He found himself abandoned by nearly everyone but his family.

It was at this point, when General Flynn already had one foot in federal prison, that Sidney Powell took his case. Unable to expect much in the way of compensation for her efforts because of Flynn's bankruptcy, Sidney Powell relentlessly engaged in discovery motions to obtain exculpatory evidence withheld by the FBI, Justice Department and Flynn's former attorneys at Covington and Burling.

Covington and Burling bled General Flynn of his life's savings of $5 Million, only to ultimately convince him to plead guilty: He could have represented himself ("pro se") and pled guilty from the very beginning, without any legal fees and thereby, avoided bankruptcy and the sale of his family home.

Meanwhile, Covington and Burling were grossly ineffective as counsel and may very well have withheld exculpatory evidence they were legally obligated to turn over to Sidney Powell. It shouldn't surprise anyone to learn that Obama's corrupt former Attorney General, Eric Holder, is a partner at Covington and Burling.

Immediately upon taking the case, Sidney Powell irritated the black, Clinton-appointed judge on the case by making a motion to withdraw Flynn's coerced guilty plea. Thanks to her efforts and those of Judicial Watch, new documents exposing the conspiracy against General Flynn continued to surface, eventually persuading Attorney General William Barr to withdraw the Justice Department from the case and ending prosecution of Flynn.

Compounding the wrongs committed against Flynn, the corrupt Clinton judge vowed to continue the unconstitutional charade of sentencing a demonstrably innocent man. Sidney Powell's motion to have the Clinton judge removed for bias should ultimately be upheld by the D.C. Court of Appeals. It will finally give General Flynn freedom from his ordeal for the first time in more than three years.

It is hoped that General Flynn's inevitable lawsuits against all who criminally conspired against him will make both Flynn and Sidney Powell very wealthy. They deserve to be compensated, just as the many conspirators against him deserve to be brought to justice, both civilly and criminally.

A more dramatic reversal of fortune is difficult to imagine. Sidney Powell's defense of General Flynn should be an inspiration to all of us who seek truth and justice, no matter how great the odds against them.

WHORes for Red China

By Earl P. Holt III

President Trump has decided to withhold funds from the World Health Organization (WHO,) which has lately been nothing more than a disinformation agency for communist China. As with most UN agencies, the U.S. traditionally funds about 25% of the WHO budget.

Referring to the WHO at the April 7th White House briefing of the Coronavirus Task Force, he described it as "China-centric" and observed that its new leadership always seems to err on the side of China's interests.

The president was referring to the fact that the WHO appeared willing to rely on China for information about its coronavirus epidemic much longer than seemed prudent. It parroted China's claim that so-called "wet-markets" were the origins of the recent coronavirus outbreak -- rather than the Wuhan Level IV Bio Lab -- and then acquiesced when China's initially denied what has proved to be the highly contagious human-to-human transmission of the virus.

The focus of President Trump's irritation with the WHO is its Director General -- a man named Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus -- who is just as unprincipled as his name is unpronounceable. He has been a whore for communist China's political leadership, having previously served as Minister of Health for Ethiopia's Marxist dictator, during which time he hid three separate epidemics of cholera from the rest of the world.

By late December of 2019, Chinese authorities were busily engaged in suppressing warnings by Chinese physicians of a new outbreak of a viral illness with acute respiratory symptoms. Yet, under the "leadership" of Tedros, the WHO ignored those warnings. In a statement issued on January 9th of this year, a WHO spokesman repeated China's lie that the virus "does not readily transmit between people."

By mid-January of 2020, the heroic Chinese physicians who were battling the epidemic were convinced of the virulent human-to-human transmission of the coronavirus. Yet, the WHO continued to parrot communist China's party-line denying evidence of human-to-human transmission.

For example, on January 14th of 2020, the WHO tweeted, "Preliminary investigations conducted by the Chinese authorities have found no clear evidence of human-to-human transmission of the novel coronavirus." Then, on January 16th of 2020, the WHO declared, "Not enough is known to draw definitive conclusions about how it is transmitted, the clinical features of the disease, the extent to which it has spread, or its source, which remains unknown."

With regard to the coronavirus pandemic, communist China displayed the same reckless and disingenuous behavior that it exhibited during the SARS epidemic in 2003, and several other viral pandemics with their origins in China: It failed to warn the world of what it knew, nor did it cooperate with legitimate public health experts from other nations.

After his January 28th meeting with Chinese dictator Xi Jinping, Tedros even praised China for the "transparency" demonstrated by its public health authorities during the recent coronavirus outbreak.

These are a small sample of the disinformation engaged in by the WHO, whose leadership failed to pursue the origin or extent of its spread, and neglected to undertake any on-site or independent investigation by its own health professionals when the coronavirus pandemic might have been contained. Instead, the WHO continued to rely exclusively on false reports by the Chinese government.

The WHO also failed to declare an international public health emergency until January 30th of 2020, delaying its warning for an entire month after initial cases of the coronavirus were reported. Tedros even declared that no travel or trade restrictions were necessary after his meeting with Chinese officials on January 30.

President Trump was wise to ignore the advice of Tedros and the WHO, and imposed a strict travel ban from China the very next day, January 31st. Naturally, Tedros denounced Trump's travel ban on flights from China to the US for "increasing fear and stigma, with little public health benefit."

Tedros is both the first African and the first non-physician to serve as the WHO's Director-General, and his nomination and appointment were both aggressively promoted by communist China. That should have been a "red flag" to every member-nation.

President Trump was also wise to propose de-funding the WHO until Tedros is removed and replaced by someone knowledgeable about public health. The new Director-General shouldn't be a whore for China, either.

What IS "The Government"?

By V. P. Hughes

In these days of mandatory quarantines imposed on nearly all law-abiding Americans, the term "The Government" is frequently bandied about. Yet, if you were to ask most Americans what they mean by "the Government," they might be hard pressed to explain themselves very well or suggest a person or agency they consider to be representative of "the government."

If pressed, most people consider the Executive and Legislative branches to represent "the government." Few include the Judicial branch of our tripartite system because it usually functions in response to actions taken by the Executive or Legislative branches, which usually do their dirty work pretty much out in the open.

Thus, when speaking of "the Government" most people actually mean Congress, the House of Representatives and Senate. The President is important, especially as a symbol of government, but most of the actions taken by what is identified as "the government" involve Congress, with or without the President's participation.

Sadly, far too many Americans are ignorant of the workings of their own government. They blame the President for particular laws when they should know that a President cannot initiate legislation. Only Congress can do that, though the president may sign or veto the Bill in question once it reaches his desk.

However, many Presidents, especially in the last thirty years or so, have tried to bypass recalcitrant Congresses by issuing "Executive Orders," but even these may be overridden by that body. However, if a President is popular and has good poll numbers — as both Clinton and Obama did — most members of the legislative branch choose discretion over valor when attempting to override an Executive Order, no matter how much they or their constituents may dislike it.

So where does the real power lie in "government?" Does it lie in the Executive or Legislative Branch? Actually, enormous discretionary power over policy lies with the Executive Branch, but ironically, it does not lie with the President or his Administration. A great deal of Governmental power lies in the bureaucratic structure existing within the Executive Branch!

Such agencies as the Departments of Justice, Defense, Treasury and State actually hold enormous power when all is said and done. For instance, it is in the DOJ that one finds such "services" as the FBI and the many and varied other paramilitary groups -- like the Bureau of Alcohol, Firearms and Tobacco (BATF) -- that did so much damage at Waco under Attorney General Janet Reno.

Of course, the all-powerful "intelligence agencies" are not located in the Department of Defense as might be expected, but directly under the President. And although the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) has no admitted military capacity, it and the National Security Agency (NSA), have virtually unlimited powers to influence policy based on the notion that the nation's security is in their hands.

Another virtually "independent" and "unsupervised" agency is the all-powerful Internal Revenue Service (IRS) within the Department of the Treasury. This "government agency" has actually driven Americans to suicide in the prosecution of its "duties" while congressional oversight has been unable to make any inroads whatsoever into its power despite demonstrable charges of corruption and malfeasance. So much for who wields the real power in D.C.!

Indeed, so powerful are the various agencies under the Executive Branch that political appointees of the President -- such as the Attorney General, Secretary of State and Treasury -- are frequently referred to within "the swamp" as "SUMMER HELP," because agency staffs will remain in their positions long after presidential appointees have returned to private life.

As a result, few politicians willingly confront these agencies, and in both the Obama and early Trump administrations, the IRS, CIA and FBI were virtually without oversight. This was the case whether they were doing the unlawful bidding of a President like Obama, or were engaged in unlawful attempts to remove one, as in the case of Donald Trump.

When most Americans use the term "government" they are not thinking of these agencies. They have no idea that someone as powerful as the President of the United States — arguably the most powerful man in the world — can be persecuted on fraudulent charges and potentially driven from office by functionaries supposedly under his command and answerable to the Constitution.

However, perceptions are changing and Americans are starting to see the true nature and structure of what we call "The Government," a monstrous bureaucracy more accurately referred to as the "Deep State." Indeed, Americans are beginning to recognize that reforming such a potentially menacing system cannot simply be reformed in one election expressing "the will of the people."

Such a realization discourages both optimism and confidence in any return to good "government," and makes this nation's and the world's future a matter of grave concern for all good people.

What Environmentalists Hath Wrought

By Dr. Adrian Krieg

Many years ago, I was a member of the American Nuclear Association, as well as the Nuclear Suppliers Association, and I produced three patents for nuclear related technology. At that time, most of my customers came from the electric generating industry because we had patents on a number of machine tools and specialty power equipment used by utilities. I participated in many electricity-related projects for the US Navy and Electric Boat in Groton CT.

In time, I became knowledgeable about the industry as well as its relentless opponent, the environmental movement. For some unexplained reason these people -- who are totally dependent on electricity -- are bound and determined to destroy those who provide electricity to them. This has not changed in 40-years, but today they have a new plan: they advocate the so-called "Green New Deal" that would eliminate all fossil fuels and nuclear fuels in ten years.

As a certified manufacturing engineer, to put it plainly: this is an impossible and delusional proposal. Environmentalists propose replacing fossil fuels and nuclear energy with so-called "renewable" energy sources. It is a delusion to imagine that we could replace our dependence on fossil fuels with current technologies available for so-called "soft" energy sources. The numbers speak for themselves:

The world currently consumes 4.2 Trillion Kilo-Watts of electricity per year. Fossil fuels provide 63.5% of that amount, nuclear energy provides 19.3%, hydro-electric provides 7%, wind contributes 6.6%, solar contributes 1.6%, biomass contributes 1.5%, and other technologies contribute less than 1 %.

Solar and wind turbines are the most expensive means of generating electric but are not continuously reliable sources of power. Obviously, solar equipment does not work at night, nor do wind turbines work when there is no wind. (Also, these "bird-swatters" have killed hundreds of bald eagles.) Maintenance on both solar and wind is far more excessive than any other generating system, a fact that its defenders routinely ignore.

Despite the authority with which they pontificate, no one in the entire environmental movement knows anything about producing electricity. That's because many of their defenders who support "soft" energy – like Alexandra Ocasio-Cortez – literally know less than nothing, because everything they have been led to believe is wrong!

Let's look realistically at the "Green New Deal" and how it would affect the 4.2 Trillion Kilo-Watt Hours we currently consume worldwide. With regard to solar energy, it would be necessary to cover an area the size of Illinois and Ohio with solar panels to meet current energy requirements. Then, we would need to construct a system of batteries about the size of New Hampshire to store the energy generated by these hundreds of thousands of square miles of solar panels.

Wind turbines are the least reliable means of producing electricity. I have observed huge wind farms in northwest England which run at about 80% capacity in most cases. (By the way, wind turbines have eliminated most large birds in northwest England.)

There is an interesting caveat to this story: in the 1980s, there was a huge movement against nuclear energy, the source from which we get about 20% of our electricity in the U.S. Unfortunately, In 1979 there was a partial meltdown of reactor #2 at the Three Mile Island power station near Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

As they always do, the leftist news media engaged in a feeding frenzy consisting of truly inflammatory and irresponsible rhetoric that terrified the residents of Harrisburg. Most of this came from "reporters" whose closest exposure to "science" is reading their horoscope each day. These imbeciles produced a national catastrophe out of an event that did little damage outside its containment vessel.

Their misreporting of the incident was epitomized by the bumper-sticker declaring "Burn Wood Not Atoms." This is especially ironic, since it is carbon emissions against which the environmental movement now protests. The entire debacle also demonstrates how so-called "environmentalists" will never really be satisfied with ANY energy source, because it is the industrial might of the West that remains their true target. Their association with Soviet intelligence agencies explains this ugly fact.

The Clamshell Alliance -- secretly funded by the Soviet KGB -- staged violent protests at New Hampshire's Seabrook Nuclear Power plant. After these domestic terrorists were thwarted by law enforcement, the FBI found maps, guard schedules and instructions on how to destroy the station by damaging its diesel backup power, all of which had been provided by the KGB. Their activities were part of the Soviet Union's planned destruction of the West, although this fact was studiously ignored by the leftist news media.

Other environmentalists blocked the opening of Nevada's Yucca Mountain Nuclear Waste Repository, although none would know a proton from a protein. I have never understood their opposition, because no legitimate scientific case for opposing it has ever been made.

The Repository is located in an unpopulated region about 80-miles northwest of Las Vegas. It is a geologically stable, underground salt "dome," buried deep beneath a mountain range. All the waste is sealed in ceramic containers.

The opposition of "environmentalists" has created a true environmental disaster, because nuclear waste must now be stored "on-site" at each reactor facility, in either fuel storage pools or outside storage containers. Unfortunately, there are almost 100 locally situated, nuclear fuel and waste dumps that pose an environmental problem that needn't exist.

To understand this industry you must become familiar with some history of the US Department of Energy. In the 1980s, the Department of Energy (DOE,) began to be infiltrated by many environmentalists whose primary agenda was to shut down every American operating reactor. At the time my company was a supplier to many nuclear plants so we were very well informed about what was taking place.

DOE and the Atomic Energy Department (AED,) are responsible for approving reactor designs. What the environmentalists did was to originally approve construction, but then wait until it was partially finished to change the design requirements, forcing contractors to tear down what they had built and then start over.

Shoreham Nuclear Power station in East Shoreham, NY is a good example. We were suppliers of machinery used in construction of the reactor, which began in 1973 by Long Island Lighting Company. It was commissioned in 1986, but then decommissioned in 1989. Public opposition was considerable, but based on massive amounts of misinformation, Three Mile Island and then Chernobyl were wrongly dragged into the debate.

The major point of opposition to the plant played on public fears that Long Island's location made any effort to evacuate the Island's large population impossible. So, once the "misinformation" could not be "undone," the very real problem of evacuation sealed the plant's fate.

The U.S. does not build graphite core reactors without containment vessels, but that was Chernobyl's design, and only the Soviets adopted such a technology. Thanks to the news media, the public's understanding of this is minimal, leaving them to equate generator reactors with nuclear weapons. The general public think all reactors are the same type of construction and do not understand about nuclear waste disposal.

The media is primarily interested in selling a fake news narrative, so it was tickled to stoke the fires of fear about nuclear energy when mishaps occurred. No one in the West builds nuclear reactors without a large containment structure, and no-one builds reactors in zones subject to Earthquakes and tsunamis except Japan and California.

At Three Mile Island the reactor containment vessel prevented any radioactive breach, but Chernobyl had no containment structure as a cost-saving strategy. That is a very real indictment of socialist government and demonstrates the decision-makers were more concerned with cost than with public safety.

As with many other public issues, the problem is a matter of inadequate education. If a nation fails to produce a truly educated population, then problems will result. If a nation imposes "affirmative-action" to give preference to groups with lesser abilities, we will fail as a society. This is exactly what is taking place now, and why there remains majority opposition to nuclear power. People lack the technical knowledge to understand its processes, and if you can't understand something, there is a tendency to resist it.

America's environmentalists and their allies in academia are systematically destroying our nation's future and are preventing America from realizing its destiny. Instead of aiming for the heavens -- as President Kennedy inspired us to do -- we have turned our gaze inward, with endless social programs and a regulatory environment that is bankrupting us morally, politically and economically.

RINO Disloyalty & Cowardice

By Earl P. Holt III

I've agonized for more than a year over how President Trump's broad electoral support could deliver a historic, landslide victory in 2016, but fail to materialize two years later during the 2018 "midterms." A strong turnout by Trump supporters was needed to provide the support in Congress that President Trump desperately lacked to stave off the Mueller Inquisition and Impeachment.

The answer must be that the same people who enthusiastically and faithfully supported President Trump in 2016 were ambivalent about supporting RINO Congressional candidates who have betrayed them on a daily basis for as long as they've served in Washington. Many Trump supporters – particularly "Independents" -- simply chose to sit out the midterms.

RINO betrayal is evident in their sell-out to K -Street's pro-immigration lobbyists rather than support funding and construction of Trump's border wall, and their cowardly failure to defend President Trump during two years of the Special Counsel's phony and traitorous "Russia collusion" witch-hunt.

The same RINOs were AWOL while the "Democrats" pursued equally fraudulent and partisan "Impeachment inquiries" of President Trump, based on fabricated and illusory evidence and an innocent phone call by President Trump to Ukrainian President Zelensky.

The only exceptions to this sad state of affairs have been those stalwart members of the House Freedom Caucus. Few Republicans in the Senate or House had the guts or brains to defend President Trump against fraudulent charges by an unscrupulous opposition party, whose members make Josef Stalin -- on a vodka binge -- seem fair and reasonable.

It is essential that patriots, nationalists and conservatives support conservative PRIMARY challengers to the many Republican incumbents who routinely demonstrate disloyalty to President Trump, the GOP, and you, their constituents. I'll leave it up to Members to determine if RINO incumbents deserve their support if they should make it to the GENERAL election.

For example, I will NEVER support Senator Roy Blunt (R-MO.) He was the Missouri Secretary of State that allowed a black criminal element to steal the 1991 St. Louis School Board Election, just as CofCC candidates were poised to gain control of the board. Massive black voter fraud was documented six months later by a handwriting expert, but -- thanks to Blunt's endless delays and cowardice -- our corrupt political opponents were already sworn-in and seated by the time of the investigation.

There are several equally worthless RINO Senators, each of whom are the best office-holders that K Street lobbyist money can buy. Susan Collins (R-ME,) Lisa Murkowski (R-AK,) Mitt Romney (R-UT,) Lamar Alexander (R-TN,) and many others fit this description. They betray us so routinely that no one who considers himself a patriot, nationalist or conservative should ever support any of them, either financially or electorally.

I have NOT contributed to the RNC for more than a decade because I refuse to allow my contributions to be distributed to the likes of these RINOs. Instead, I support the new Political Action Committee created by the House Freedom Caucus. Guys like Matt Gaetz (R-FL,) Mark Meadows (R-NC,) Jim Jourdan (R-OH,) Andy Biggs (R-AZ,) Louie Gohmert (D-TX,) Tom Scalise (R-LA) and other stalwart members have been fighting in the trenches for three years to defend President Trump against the attempted coup by traitorous Obama holdovers.

Members of the House Freedom Caucus are a very different breed of cat from the usual cowardly and duplicitous RINOs that compromised the House GOP "Leadership" for the two decades since Newt Gingrich. They fight back like President Trump, and often opposed the duplicity and endless betrayals of former Speaker Paul Ryan, who was the worst Speaker that K Street pro-immigration money could buy.

For the past year they also refused to blindly follow House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy, who only recently began to man-up and shed that permanent "deer-in-the-headlights" look that rendered him unfit for leading anything except a drunken Saint Patrick's Day Parade.
