

N*ggress Shows Her Ass

A very ugly and masculine looking nigrass named Gwen Berry is scheduled to represent the U.S. at the Beijing Olympics this summer in the Hammer Throw. She placed third in the event at the U.S. Olympic Trials, but her real source of notoriety is that she turned her back on the American Flag when the National Anthem was played at her awards ceremony.

Displaying the gratitude we've all come to expect from n*gras, she also declared that the National Anthem is racist and does not represent blacks. She makes reference to ancient history to support her claims, but it's a skewed and dishonest -- as well as Marxist -- history that she references.

She plans to "show her ass" while she is in China, a nation that loves to flatter n*ggers from afar, but wouldn't put up with their antics for a nanosecond if any were Chinese citizens. She is too stupid to realize that she'd be rotting in prison if she made similar claims as a citizen of any black nation, but niggers are hardly known for their intelligence or judgement.

Some authors have attempted to reason with Berry by citing historical facts to refute her. My lengthy experience has convinced me that only 5 to 10 percent of American blacks are capable of being appealed to with reason: the rest are just too stupid, too ignorant or too dishonest to appreciate their freedoms. Appealing to reason is a waste of time if they aren't bright enough to recognize how good they've got it.

If she would prefer to live among her fellow blacks, there's plenty of opportunities in Africa or Haiti, where she could represent any of a number of black nations and compete against the America she clearly hates.

I would gladly kick in some money to see her ingrate black ass leave the U.S. It's an expensive way to rid ourselves of trouble-making n*ggers, but I'd make an exception in her case.
