

Occam's Razor and 9-11

by Earl P. Holt III

When the Soviet Union began to disintegrate in 1991, America's domestic enemies lost their greatest ally. Marxists of every stripe had always expected the Soviet Bloc to provide the will and "muscle" to conquer America and impose a Soviet-style dictatorship upon their ideological enemies in the U.S. After 1991 and much to the dismay of America's domestic enemies, the Soviets no longer had the "muscle" to effectuate that 100 year-old dream.

Looking around following the Soviet Union's collapse, it was easy to recognize that radical Islam offered a potential substitute for the former Soviet Bloc. Most adherents of radical Islam are probably best described as "Islamic Marxists," making this new alliance an easier fit than one might have presupposed. And, like the Soviets before them, radical Islam wasn't squeamish about violence: with the exception of crude oil, violence and terrorism are about the only things radical Islam is capable of exporting.

With the election of Bill Clinton in 1992, immigration became a very high priority for the New Communist Party of the USA (NCPUSA) -- often mistakenly called the "Democrat" Party. It was particularly partial to Muslim immigration from the Middle East and Africa, and all kinds of radical Islamic terrorists and other Third World garbage found their visa applications approved, and many became U.S. citizens. For example, hundreds of thousands of Somalis were admitted, who are now the primary source of violent crime in certain Minneapolis neighborhoods.

In addition to Islamic terrorists, the Clinton Administration also harbored a sympathy for Marxist Puerto Rican terrorists. In 1999, Bill Clinton commuted the sentences of 16 FALN terrorists who detonated over 100 bombs in large cities such as New York and Chicago in the 1970s and 1980s. Slick Willie also pardoned two members of the Weather Underground, one of whom was in possession of 740 pounds of dynamite and another who participated in the bombing of the U.S. Capitol Building in 1971.

During the Clinton Administration, Usama Bin Laden orchestrated the first attack on the World Trade Center in 1993, a truck bomb at the Saudi National Guard Communications Center in Riyadh that killed two American soldiers in 1995, another truck bomb in 1996 at the Khobar Towers that killed 19 Americans, suicide bombings at the U.S. embassies in Tanzania and Kenya that killed 12 Americans, and the attack upon the U.S. Cole in 2000 that killed 17 sailors. THREE TIMES CLINTON WAS OFFERED USAMA BIN LADEN BY THE GOVERNMENTS OF FOREIGN NATIONS, BUT ALL THREE TIMES HE DECLINED TO ACCEPT THEIR OFFER.

With its demonstrable sympathy for foreign and domestic terrorists, the Clinton Administration needed to "cover" itself and the NCPUSA, just in case there were political ramifications. It was predictable that some of the African and Middle Eastern garbage granted U.S. citizenship and visas would eventually engage in acts of terrorism here, in their newly adopted home. This possibility had to be obscured: in 1994, Clinton had already seen the NCPUSA lose the House for the first time since 1952, and recognized his own political vulnerabilities along with those of his party.

Clinton's solution was to appoint a Jewess named Jamie Gorelick as Deputy Attorney General under Janet Reno. Here was a seasoned "deep state" operative, who immediately set about to protect her president and her party. She issued the now-infamous "Gorelick Memo" that prevented the CIA and the FBI's Intelligence Division from sharing information with the FBI's Criminal Division. This was clearly done to shield the Clinton Administration from any repercussions from admitting potential terrorists as immigrants, who might eventually embarrass the administration and NCPUSA with terrorist acts.

Architect of 9-11

Here is her memo in her own words: “We believe that it is prudent to establish a set of instructions that will more clearly separate the counterintelligence investigation from the more limited, but continued, criminal investigations. These procedures, which go beyond what is legally required, will prevent any risk of creating an unwarranted appearance that FISA is being used to avoid procedural safeguards which would apply in a criminal investigation.” (Editor's emphasis.)

The Gorelick Memo created a legal "WALL" between the intelligence community and law enforcement agencies. Theoretically, even the Intelligence Division of the FBI could not share intel with its Criminal Division. (Or, at least the Criminal Division could not act upon the intel it was given.) One consequence was that after the Clinton regime granted visas to all 20 of the 9-11 hijackers, only the CIA was aware of their membership in Al Qaeda and their plans to carry out an attack on U.S. soil.

Hence, because of the Gorelick Memo, the CIA could not alert the FBI's Criminal Division of the need to investigate reports of those 20 sweaty Moslems -- in Florida and elsewhere -- who were learning how to fly Boeing 747s, but had no interest in learning how to land them. In his testimony to the 9-11 Commission, George W. Bush's Attorney General, John Ashcroft, made the following statement:

"In the days before September 11, the wall specifically impeded the investigation into Zacarias Moussaoui, Khalid al-Midhar and Nawaf al-Hazmi. After the FBI arrested Moussaoui, agents became suspicious of his interest in commercial aircraft and sought approval for a criminal warrant to search his computer. The warrant was rejected because FBI officials feared breaching the wall."

Likewise, the CIA may have been so intimidated by the Gorelick Memo, it twice declined to add Nawaf al-Hazmi and Khalid al-Mihidhar to the government's Terrorist Watch List in 2000. After the CIA finally alerted the FBI in late August of 2001 that al-Midhar and al-Hazmi were members of Al Qaeda, were in the U.S. and probably up to no good, FBI agents in New York began a search for them. However, because of the Gorelick Memo, FBI headquarters in Washington prohibited the FBI's Criminal Division from joining that investigation.

In his testimony, Ashcroft was referring to the following series of events: a concerned instructor at the Pan-Am International Flight Academy in Eagan, Minnesota notified Agent Harry Samit at the FBI's Minneapolis field office of his concerns about the behavior of a certain Middle Easterner who was enrolled in the flight school and using the school's 747-400 Flight Simulator. That suspicious individual was Zacarias Moussaoui, one of the 9-11 hijackers, who was quickly arrested for violations of his immigration status on August 11, 2001.

Moussaoui rejected Agent Samit's request to search his hotel room and laptop computer, so Agent Samit twice petitioned the FBI to obtain a search warrant to do so. After the first request for a conventional search warrant was denied, he then requested a FISA warrant to conduct a search, but BOTH REQUESTS WERE DENIED BY FBI HEADQUARTERS. Samit then attempted to directly notify the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA,) in order to warn them of his suspicions that terrorists planned to hijack airliners, but FBI HEADQUARTERS CENSORED HIS WARNING TO THE FAA, AS WELL.

Agent Samit testified at Moussaoui's criminal trial that he spent the days between August 11 and September 11, 2001 trying to find anyone who would listen to his fears of impending terrorist attacks using hijacked aircraft to accomplish this atrocity. He testified under oath that the FBI's failure to act on his warnings indicated "criminal negligence, obstruction and careerism" at FBI Headquarters. Agent Samit was also warned by superiors that voicing his concerns too aggressively could harm his career.

Those at FBI Headquarters who ignored Agent Samit's warnings were almost certainly intimidated by the Gorelick Memo, which mysteriously managed to survive into the first year of the new Bush Administration. If the FBI had taken Samit's warnings seriously, the catastrophe of September 11, 2001 might well have been averted.

Astute readers may have noticed that the top echelons of the FBI were perfectly willing to commit perjury before the FISA Court for warrants to spy on and frame President Trump with the charge of "Russia Collusion," but 20 years earlier were unwilling to seek FISA warrants to investigate possible terrorist hijackings of airliners that produced the catastrophe of 9-11. This irony perfectly illustrates the extent of the decline at the FBI after eight years of Bill Clinton and eight more years of Barack Hussein Obama.

In a classic example of the manner in which "deep state" traitors protect and run interference for one another -- just as communists in the Roosevelt Administration used to do -- Jamie Gorelick was appointed to serve as a Commissioner on the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States, or "9-11 Commission" that issued the official report of the 9-11 disaster. We have former Attorney General John Ashcroft to thank for calling her out by name in his testimony before the 9-11 Commission, and exposing the Gorelick Memo to those who bothered to listen.

Proving also that the NCPUSA learns nothing from the disasters it generates, the current NCPUSA administration has welcomed a tsunami of immigration into the United States. Many illegal immigrants are likely terrorists who found it easier to steal across our southern border than apply for a visa. No one in Washington seems to understand that if you don't legally admit terrorists in the first place, it's much easier to avoid acts of terrorism.

Many new immigrants include refugees from Afghanistan, few of whom could possibly have been properly vetted. These will become a problem for future administrations, just as the 9-11 terrorists became a problem for the new Bush Administration on September 11th, 2001, and changed America forever.
