

Christmas 2021

by Earl P. Holt III

It was just before Christmas and throughout most stores
the shelves were half empty 'cause of unions and whores;
California betrayed its non-union truckers
Exposing Democrats as devious f*ckers.

Thanks to A B 5 of which the Teamsters approve Independents were soon forced to close-up or move;
But an 80 thousand driver shortage ensued
So the ports in both L.A. and Long Beach were screwed.

In Sacramento, they knew the shit hit the fan
When polls found legislators less liked than the Klan;
Then it became clearer the disaster they'd wrought
Revealing the fact that Democrats can be bought.

Without enough drivers to haul away cargo
Newsom's guests went without champagne and escargot;
California officials had no caviar
So an inquest was started by some commissar.

For a want of champagne, they drank whiskey, instead but next morning awakened, hung-over in bed;
With hookers, reporters, cameras and their wives
Thus, finally compelled to repent misspent lives.
