

Wise as Serpents

My black Resident Manager, Ozell -- with whom I worked side-by-side on a daily basis for 30 years -- was "old school" and under no illusions about the majority of his fellow blacks. At least a dozen times he said to me, "Earl, you knows how my peoples is." One unique characteristic of Ozell was that he would NEVER leave his back turned when another black attempted to walk behind him: he would always pivot and observe that person until they were past him.

I don't recall ever asking him, but I suspect he had been the victim of "sucker-punches" from blacks on previous occasions, and did not trust his fellow blacks, even its females. He once actually apologized to me for the behavior of all blacks. I was somewhat taken aback, but managed to reply: "Ozell, you don't have to apologize to me for anything: you aren't responsible for the behavior of anyone but yourself."

Ozell died in 2013, but I'm VERY confident in predicting that if he were alive today, he would NOT be a supporter of Black Liars Murder. In fact, he and I would probably be throwing around a number of techniques for effectively eliminating BLM, much as one would consider measures to exterminate rats, cockroaches, or any other form of dangerous pestilence. Ozell could be very creative with such things.

The point here is that every white person and every decent black should be extremely cautious around the vast majority of blacks. Survival may well depend on it in this dishonest age, where many who rule us parrot the delusion that "race is a false construct." Irrespective of the lies and delusions promoted by our would-be rulers, to paraphrase John Le Carre` in one of his spy novels, "survival depends on an infinite capacity for suspicion." The following is a good illustration.

In April of 2022, a 51 year-old black security guard -- hired by an Atlanta fast-food restaurant -- was executed with a bullet to the back of his head by an as-yet unidentified n*gger. Video shows the n*gger walking up to the victim from behind and shooting him to death at close range without provocation. The murderer then stole the victim's service revolver and one other item from his body.

As if that weren't despicable enough, immediately afterward, a group of three blacks rounded the corner of the restaurant and observed the dead or dying victim lying on the sidewalk and bleeding profusely. One of the three then walked up to the security guard and stole another item from his body while his two companions merely observed this atrocity.

Since a lot of n*ggers in our large, urban areas have "gone off the reservation" in recent years, it would be wise for decent people to take a lesson from Ozell and avoid "Indian Country" if at all possible. Certainly, never make the mistake of turning your back on one of them, as that murdered security guard mistakenly did.

If such areas are unavoidable, then decent people should take the precaution of arming themselves and adopt the admonition of Our Lord in Matthew 10:16 (KJV) that when we venture out among wolves, "...be ye therefore wise as serpents..."
