

Perfect Outcome

In an event that occurs far too infrequently, a nigger was shot to death on May 25th by a white woman with a legally carried and concealed pistol as the nigger was attempting to engage in mass murder at a graduation party in Charleston, West Virginia.

The black bastard was armed with an AR-15 and allegedly shot at dozens of people attending a graduation party at the Vista View apartment complex in Charleston. Fortunately, much like their aim during drive-by shootings -- where everyone is killed but the intended target -- no one was injured by the black bastard's rifle fire.

In contrast to the cowardly police officers at Uvalde's Robb Elementary School, the woman didn't shamelessly wait around for the cavalry to arrive while everyone was murdered: instead, she personally engaged the would-be assassin and killed him. In doing so she saved many lives and is a great heroine.

Apparently, the nigger was angered by residents of the complex who had earlier told him to drive more slowly through the complex because of children. Being a nigger, his under-evolved Frontal Lobes dictated that he must murder innocent people because of his embarrassment at being reprimanded. OF COURSE, the nigger had an extensive criminal history.

This story has been spiked by just about every organ of the Jews' Media because they have been too busy trying to promote gun control after the tragedy at Uvalde Texas' Robb Elementary School the day before. There, no teacher or administrator was armed, so the outcome was profoundly different...
