

Just a Theory

by Earl P. Holt III

I've got a theory, but unlike Marxist Theory, it's based on evidence rather than ideology and amenable to change in light of evidence to the contrary. My theory explains all of the currently available evidence better than any other of which I'm aware, and it seems eminently plausible. In fact, it is exactly the sort of scheme in which "Democrats" and other communists would engage.

Trump was the first prominent American to publicly denounce China for its dishonest and corrupt trade practices, a 20-year crusade that definitely contributed to his being elected president. China had been eating our lunch for decades, but no one besides Trump had the guts to call out China because so many in our political class were heavily invested in Chinese firms and in U.S. firms doing business in China.

Trump correctly pointed out what everyone already knew but dared not say: China has manipulated its currency to discourage imports from America, thereby generating $500 Billion in annual trade surpluses. It has also stolen $500 Billion per year in proprietary technology from U.S. firms as a precondition for doing business there. Using these stolen technologies, China has then competed with these same firms in international markets.

Trump was the first president who attempted to hold China accountable for its illegal trade practices, all of which violated the promises China made when seeking Most Favored Nation trade status with the U.S. and admission to the World Trade Organization. In retaliation for those trade practices, Trump imposed tariffs on Chinese imports that totaled tens of billions of dollars in revenue for several years during his presidency.

The Trump economy was soon roaring along by late 2019, fueled by Trump's significant deregulation of the U.S. economy and sweeping federal income tax reductions that primarily benefitted the middle-class. Many "rust-belt" industries -- like small steel foundries -- even began making a recovery after being given Last Rights by the the Obama Administration.

Facing four more years of Trump's tariffs on their exports and Trump's loud denunciations of China as an international pariah, China's leaders came up with a plan to damage Trump's re-election prospects by sabotaging the Trump economy. They intentionally unleashed the COVID pandemic on the world, knowing it would quickly infect the U.S. because of the immense volume of human traffic between our two nations.

China also realized they could rely on the World Health Organization's (WHO) Director-General to lie and alibi for them, because it was China's power and influence that originally got him his position at the WHO. Indeed, it was Director-General (and Ethiopian communist) Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus who loyally parroted China's disinformation efforts that COVID originated in Wuhan's "wet markets" rather than China's Level 4 Wuhan Institute of Virology, and also that the virus was neither virulent nor transmissible between humans.

Our public health officials like Anthony Fauci at the National Institute for Allergies and Infectious Diseases (NIAID) foolishly relied on such disinformation from the WHO and China, causing the U.S. to lose valuable time responding to the pandemic. Fauci and the NIAID were in a very difficult position from the start, since Fauci had helped fund the Wuhan Institute of Virology's "gain of function" research that converted an innocuous and naturally-occurring bat virus into a pandemic that killed more than one million Americans and seven million citizens, worldwide.

Once the pandemic arrived in America, the New Communist Party of the USA -- misleadingly called "Democrats" -- did what they always do by rushing to exploit any tragedy for their own political gain. They immediately exaggerated COVID's true transmissibility and virulence in order to generate panic among the weak-minded, and then began to seize control using public health measures as a rationale. They soon mandated masks, lockdowns of businesses in BLUE areas, and mandatory vaccinations for public employees, air passengers, the military, and employees of firms doing business with the federal government.

Perhaps the most egregious power seized by the NCPUSA was the dubious authority to mass-mail ballots for the 2020 Presidential Election in "swing states," generating untold millions of fraudulent votes in Arizona, Georgia, Michigan, Minnesota, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. According to the documentary 2000 Mules, it reversed the legitimate outcome of the election in each of those six states and stole the 2020 election from Donald Trump, exactly as he complained.

By stealing the election from Trump, China and the NCPUSA rid themselves of their greatest opposition and the primary impediment to their further accumulation of power. RINOs doing the bidding of their masters in the "donor class" are already lining up with the NCPUSA to end Trump's tariffs on Chinese imports. Stealing the election from Trump also allowed the NCPUSA to dodge a bullet, because eight years of Trump would probably have relegated "Democrats" to the kind of obscurity enjoyed by the Flat Earth Society. By stealing the election, all of Trump's enemies won and only the American People lost.

Anthony Fauci's foolish complicity in funding the Chinese military's Virologic Warfare Program at the Wuhan Lab -- with his $1,000,000 grant in 2014 -- was no longer a liability after the NCPUSA gained a majority in both Houses of Congress through the 2020 voter fraud. Fauci's frequent instances of perjury before Congress were soon forgotten as well, and he would NEVER be held accountable for helping to fund COVID's gain of function research. Nor would he be held to account for the terrible advice he routinely gave President Trump, probably in an attempt to sabotage his presidency.

The WHO was once again free to continue its pursuit of one-world government, just as it's now doing with the International Treaty on Pandemic Prevention and Preparedness. This treaty would authorize the Director-General of the WHO -- that Ethiopian communist who repeatedly lied for China about COVID -- to define what an "international public health emergency" is, and override U.S. laws and the Constitution in order to deal with such an event. By the way, the WHO considers "climate change" and Third World poverty to be "international public health emergencies."

Several times on my favorite cable TV show, The First 48, veteran homicide detectives have made the point that when you look closely at the true culprit of a homicide, all the pieces of evidence suddenly begin to fit together neatly like a puzzle. The same is rarely true of any other suspect or "person-of-interest." My theory -- that China unleashed the COVID pandemic to damage Trump's re-election prospects and end tariffs on Chinese exports to the U.S. -- neatly fits this puzzle analogy.

The only unresolved question in my mind is whether the NCPUSA collaborated with China to help orchestrate the COVID pandemic. Based on experience, my guess is that it did.
