

This is "Leadership"?

by Earl P. Holt III

Mitch McConnell has disparaged the current crop of Republican Senate candidates by implying they are of poor quality. What he really means is that among them are many TRUMP SUPPORTERS and TRUMP-ENDORSED candidates. It's pretty obvious McConnell would prefer to see the GOP fail to retake the Senate in the 2022 mid-terms, rather than suffer the indignity of being denied the position of Senate Majority Leader by a more conservative GOP freshmen class in 2023.

Several Republican Senate candidates have already implied they will not vote for McConnell (R-KY) for the position of Majority Leader. They won't become McConnell sycophants like Joni Ernst (R-IA,) John Thune (R-SD,) Roy Blunt (R-MO,) and John Barasso (R-WY,) who obediently stand behind McConnell whenever he holds a "presser." These are the obedient "Republicans" preferred by McConnell, some of whom voted with him to help "Democrats" enact gun restrictions back in June, and also helped "Democrats" enact the grossly mislabeled "Infrastructure, Investment and Jobs Act of 2021".

McConnell is a poster-child for Term Limits: he has been in the Senate since 1985 and was Majority Leader from 2015 until 2021. During his 37 years in the Senate, he passively watched America's mortal enemies institutionalize race quotas, routinely engage in voter fraud, and welcome tens-of-millions of illegal aliens with lavish incentives like "The Welcome Wagon." He also helped fund endless wars, and helped pass numerous "Omnibus" spending bills that contributed to our $31 Trillion National Debt. Most unforgivable, he advised Trump's Attorney General Bill Barr NOT to investigate massive "Democrat" voter fraud that stole the 2020 Presidential Election from Trump.

Pat Buchanan once quipped (paraphrase) that "if the Democrats offered a bill to burn down the Capitol Building, the Republicans would offer an alternative amendment to phase it in over three years." It's guys like McConnell and his sycophants who inspired this witty gem from Pat, and who helped give rise to the term "Uni-Party." The latter describes a glaring absence of real GOP opposition to catastrophic legislation regularly authored and introduced by "Democrats."

In contrast to frequently assisting "Democrats" with bi-partisan support, McConnell hid out in the tall grass while corrupt Obama holdovers in the FBI and DOJ engaged in a coup against President Trump and falsely charged him with "Russia Collusion." Moreover, McConnell is owned by the "Donor Class" as surely as Joe Biden is owned by China. He and his wife have enriched themselves with investments in Chinese firms or U.S. firms doing business in China, so he will likely vote to remove Trump's tariffs on Chinese imports to the U.S.

As I've written before, the Machiavellian GOP Donor Class has spent megabucks to prevent conservatives and conservative ideas from gaining a foothold in Washington. It's no coincidence the Donor Class preferred Gerald Ford and George Bush to Ronald Reagan, the man who won 94 states in two elections and the Cold War as well! The same dilettantes now prefer Liz Cheney to Donald Trump.

Mitch McConnell has received marching orders from his Donor Class masters not to assist Trump-endorsed candidates in their Senate campaigns. The Donor Class wants "its party" back for its own amusement. That's why many call Washington's permanent political class the Uni-Party, in which McConnell remains a Member-in-Good-Standing.
