

Oh Joy, Oh Joy !

Here's a Christmas Story that should warm the cockles of your heart. The Marxist enclave known as Oberlin College was finally forced to pay a steep price for its witless radicalism and its foolish enabling of Africanus criminalis. The price amounted to $36.6 Million.

A jury concluded several years ago that Oberlin officials had defamed Gibson's Bakery after a racially-charged incident occurred there. Following Oberlin's lengthy appeal, the school was finally forced to pony-up to the bakery for slandering its good name. (Gibson's Bakery v. Oberlin College.)

Gibson's current store-front

The incident prompting the litigation occurred when a n*gger student stole a bottle of wine from the store. The owner's son, Allyn Gibson, chased the perp into the street, where the shoplifter's two accomplices (races uncertain) joined the n*gger in beating Allyn Gibson until police arrived. The three later pled guilty to assault, and the shoplifter also pled guilty to robbery.

In a sane and more honest era, the nig and his two accomplices would be instantly thrown out of school and they'd spend 20 years at hard labor. Instead, two Cultural Marxists in Oberlin's administration got involved by denouncing Gibson's Bakery for its "racism." (How dare a proprietor defend his inventory from Africanus criminalis!)

The particularly ugly Dean of Students at Oberlin -- whose ethics are equally unappealing -- immediately sided with the n*gger thief. She began to distribute flyers to students, helped organize demonstrations, and attempted to get the college to cancel its contract with Gibson's to supply the school's dining halls. She also denounced Gibson's as "racist" in her flyers.

(Gibson's in 1885, when the only nigs at Oberlin were its janitorial staff)

As empty-headed college students are inclined to do, many Future Marxists of America obediently began to boycott and protest against Gibson's. (It beats studying!). As enablers of black crime often do, they falsely denounced Gibson's for a long history of "racial profiling and discrimination" with no evidence, whatsoever.

In her own words to another faculty member, the Dean of Students stated: "I hope we can rain fire and brimstone on that store." Happily, that woman is no longer on the faculty at Oberlin, and this Ohio Den of Marxism is $37 Million poorer.

In light of the crimes leading up to the civil litigation, so-called "racial profiling" seems very much warranted. To quote those immortal words of Stanly Kowalski (played by Marlon Brando) in "A Streetcar Named Desire,"

"HHHHAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA, HHHHAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA !"
