

Proxy Voting & "Walking-Around Money"

by Earl P. Holt III

Newt Gingrich and others have consistently pointed to the practice of early voting as creating an advantage that favors "Democrats" and disadvantages Republicans. They characterize this advantage in terms of Republican candidates being forced to "play catch-up" on election day in order to overcome "Democrat" vote totals from early voting.

Yet, there's a lot more going on in our elections than the mere advantage enjoyed by "Democrats" from early voting. It boils down to simple arithmetic: barring systemic fraud, Republican candidates win when they receive a majority of votes cast, and even early "Democrat" vote totals shouldn't overcome a plurality of votes cast by Republicans on election day.

Some also point to contrasting approaches to elections taken by the two major parties, with "Democrats" focusing on the mechanics of elections, while Republicans focus more on messaging by GOP candidates. They wisely point to the fact that President Joe Biden, Pennsylvania Senator John Fetterman, and Arizona Governor Katie Hobbs engaged in little campaigning, but each supposedly defeated vastly superior and energetic Republican opponents in their general elections.

Thus, early voting is not, in itself, the cause of Republican defeats, it merely provides an opportunity for vote fraud. The real advantage to "Democrats" from month-long voting is that it gives them a wider window of opportunity to get blacks and other trash to sell their votes or ballots to "Democrat" canvassers in return for that "walking around money."

Month-long voting allows "Democrats" additional weeks to seek registered voters who are too lazy, too drunk, or those merely ambivalent about elections. That's why voter registration is so important to "Democrats," and why it receives a 365 day-per-year priority. "Democrat" operatives "harvest" those ballots, and then VOTE THEM, just as the film "2000 Mules" exposed. In return, these marginal citizens receive a reward in the form of a $100 bill or its equivalent.

I first witnessed this phenomenon in our April, 1991 St. Louis City School Board election. Quislings in the 27 largest corporations in St. Louis contributed $400,000 to our corrupt black and Marxist opponents, allowing them to steal that critical election. After repeated attempts by the Missouri Secretary of State to obtain an accurate accounting of all that money -- many months after the election -- $170,000 of it was eventually designated "walking around money."

Essentially, the campaign run by our opponents paid every drunken n*gger and homeless shit-bum $50 apiece to vote. I'm convinced that's why poll workers eventually started handing out those "I VOTED" stickers, so "Democrat" operatives would know to whom they should give all that walking around money. (By the way, most of those corporations have since fled St. Louis, and the city schools are now well beyond hopeless.)

There's another variety of voter fraud that was used in our 1991 St. Louis School Board election, and it's probably still being used by "Democrats" in other BLUE cities to this day. That's the practice of "Democrat" election officials in all-black areas casting ballots for voters who fail to appear at the polls on election day. Since Legitimate Republican election officials in all-black areas may be rarer than unicorns -- most are really "Democrats" in disguise -- there are no checks on the conduct of any election officials in those areas.

After our April of 1991 election, six black election officials in north St. Louis confessed under oath to the FBI that they had engaged in this practice of "voting" everyone in their ward who failed to appear. Since Senator Roy Blunt (Quisling-MO) was Secretary of State at the time -- and George Bush Junior was president -- these crooked, black election officials experienced no punishment for their conduct.

If Harmeet Dhillon or someone else with ability eventually becomes Chair of the RNC, one essential task meriting a lot of attention and resources would be for Republican state parties to recruit REAL Republicans to serve as election officials in all-black wards and precincts.

If this sounds far-fetched, bear the following in mind: "Democrats" have weaponized federal law enforcement and used it to terrorize innocent political opponents; They've intentionally created an energy shortage; Since January of 2021, they have welcomed the entry of 5.5 million illegals into the U.S. with impunity; And, they've relentlessly engaged in other forms of voter fraud. Currently, they are intent on "transitioning" us into the international socialist orbit and a New World Order. They are capable of anything.

For such a corrupt and traitorous organized criminal enterprise as the "Democrat" Party, bribing voters with walking around money and illegally casting votes for no-shows are small potatoes.
