

More Excuses

For 70 years, we've endured endless excuses for black violence from their enablers and apologists, but most are so absurd they are scoffed at by most whites. In every instance, the purpose is to redirect the focus away from its true source -- the violent and predatory nature of Africanus criminalis -- and shift the blame for black violence to some other target.

For example, a recent article in the CITIZENS INFORMER analyzed a laughable study that blamed Philadelphia's raging gun violence on broken windows, uncut weeds, and litter. (E. Holt. "Endless Enabling," March, 2023.) Black violence has also been blamed on "white privilege," the Second Amendment, and not having enough playgrounds. But recently, the nigro mayor of Baltimore may have lowered the bar even further by blaming Popeye's chicken for a recent mass shooting.

Popeye's Chicken Restaurant

The "scholars" at Baltimore's Edmondson Westside High School have a bad habit of ignoring the school district's rules and meandering off-campus at noon. They then congregate near the Popeye's fast-food restaurant across the street in the Edmondson Village Shopping Center. (Dey don't bees buying nuffins, dey jus bees hangin' out.) Of course, whenever two or more black male teens gather together in this day and age there's usually a gunfight, and that's what happened on January 5th, leaving one student dead and four injured.

The black imbecilic officials who have destroyed Baltimore were quick to attempt to pass the blame for the mass shooting. This included Baltimore's black mayor, Brandon Scott, who pointed his finger at the Popeye's restaurant across the street. Apparently, he expects Popeye's employees to assume the task of serving as truant officers for the school district. Below are his exact words:

"This Popeyes has been cited before for selling to minors and students during the daytime...This is something that shouldn't happen because those young people wouldn't be here if they knew they couldn't buy something from this place."

Mayor Scott did not respond to questions from reporters about the ordinance he referenced or the restaurant's past failure to comply. However, an enterprising FOX 45 reporter did find a Baltimore Police Ordinance governing daytime curfews for minors. Subsection b states: "No minor under the age of 16 may remain in or about any public place or any establishment between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. on any day during which the minor is required to be in school."

Once again, we are subjected to the spectacle of black apologists blaming an innocent party for some mass shooting, rather than those actually responsible. That would be truant black scholars, negligent school district officials, and the soulless black teenage psychopaths who dominate the species Africanus criminalis.

Artist's Earlier Rendering of the Crime Scene

One clearheaded woman -- presumably black -- was the most insightful individual among all of those who commented on the shooting. She stated, “Those children come from the school over to the shopping center...They’re not even inside of Popeye’s. They’re sitting on the wall of Popeye’s. Popeye’s can’t control that.”

That woman ought to run for mayor, because she has more sense and better judgement than the entirety of Baltimore's city government.
