

None So Blind

by Earl P. Holt III

Whoopi Goldberg has more opinions than the Supreme Court, but clearly lacks the erudition of any conservative jurist. She is also one of the ugliest women on Planet Earth, which makes for a repulsive combination when it comes to her appearances on "The View." Like most of her species, she apparently has under-evolved Frontal Lobes that prevent her from perceiving anything other than as a member of her tribe.

Butt-Ugly

She recently pontificated that police reform will not happen in America until white people get beaten by cops. Here are her verbatim comments on the show: "You know, seems things don't seem to make sense to people unless its somebody they can feel, or they can recognize. But how many times do we have to — do we need to see White people also get beaten before anybody will do anything?"

Tyre Nicholls' death in Memphis inspired other race-hustlers besides Goldberg to show their tribalism by attributing his beating death to "white supremacy." Yet, the mayor of Memphis is black, its Police Chief is black, and so were all five police officers involved in the incident. One obscure and doltish nigra Congressman, Maxwell Frost (D-FL-10th) stated, "Doesn't matter what color those police officers are...the murder of Tyre Nichols is anti-Black and the result of white supremacy."

The truth is, lots of white trash get beaten by cops, and most deserve every fat lip, bruise and black eye for behaving like n*ggers and not cooperating with police. A good dose of street justice is frequently called for by irate cops, especially when a simple "stop-and-frisk" becomes a lengthy and exhausting foot chase, or a simple traffic stop becomes a dangerous high-speed vehicle chase that puts dozens of innocent lives at risk. I'll bet recipients of street justice are much less likely to repeat their indiscretions!

Uglier by the Hour

What the insipid harpies on "The View" don't recognize is how much idiots like themselves have directly contributed to the beating death of Tyre Nichols, the incident that prompted Goldberg's comments. The war against law enforcement by commies and nigras has diminished the number and caliber of police recruits in Memphis and every BLUE city. As a result, a lot of those cities now employ black cops who have ABSOLUTELY no business being cops, and would never have been given a badge and a gun in prior years.

Race quotas in law enforcement have also contributed to this phenomenon of violent and aggressive black cops, who are sometimes as thuggish as those they must arrest. By nature, blacks are much more inclined to resort to violence, and twice as likely to use their weapon on a suspect as a white cop. Look at the actions of Capitol Hill Police Lieutenant Michael Byrd, that black baboon who murdered Ashli Babbitt on January 6th, 2021 in the Capitol Building.

The de-funding of municipal police, the relentless attacks against law enforcement as an institution, and the endless second-guessing of police by race-hustlers and the Jews' Media have gravely damaged law enforcement. Morale is at record low levels, and far fewer people are interested in entering law enforcement as a career. Thus, BLUE cities run by black "Democrats" are recruiting and hiring people that would never have been considered when their cities were well-run.

Although whites DO get beaten by cops on occasion -- I see a lot of it on the TV show "Cops" after a high-speed chase -- most whites or Asians rarely have interactions with police. That's because they are infinitely more law-abiding than Africanus criminalis, and far more inclined to cooperate with police in the event they are stopped and questioned, or if they are pulled over by police in a traffic stop.

Of course, when the body cams of the arresting officers in the Tyre Nicholl's beating death revealed all five arresting officers to be black, the intensity of the rhetoric diminished.

Much like incidents of black-on-black murder among civilians, the death of a black male only matters to race-hustlers and the Jews' Media when the perpetrator is white.
