

"Nation of Immigrants," MY ASS !

by Earl P. Holt III

The cliché that America is "a nation of immigrants" is a phony narrative concocted by Jewish Marxists. Its purpose is to obscure the true history of American immigration policy, and convince Americans that this nation was founded as some sort of "multicultural experiment."

Leftists are fond of parroting this claim, but it's far more accurate to state that America was founded by COLONISTS. Religious refugees from Europe who settled in America were the first true Americans. America became a sanctuary for white Christians, and the farther we've gotten away from that ideal, the less governable the nation has become.

The Protestant Reformation and religious wars in Europe prompted a variety of religious refugees to immigrate to North America and become its earliest colonists. Pilgrims, Puritans, Anglicans, Catholics German Lutherans, French Huguenots, Quakers and other denominations fled religious persecution in their nations of origin, and sought sanctuary in the original 13 Colonies.

Another lie is that so-called "diversity" was the intended goal of U.S. immigration policy. Since most liberals and "progressives" are actually Marxists-in-camouflage, they dismiss "truth" as a mere bourgeois indulgence. Their Marxism obligates them to subvert every vestige of American society and culture in order to promote their malignant ideology, and thus give it an opportunity to metastasize.

With the declining percentage of white Christians in this country, societal evils have skyrocketed, such as violent crimes, property crimes, riots, illiteracy, illegitimacy, and welfare and drug dependence. Many immigrants today exhibit divided loyalties that often favor the cultural traditions they supposedly fled. It should be clear that "diversity" ENHANCES differences, not assimilation into a common culture.

The first tangible impetus for "deconstructing" the racial composition of majority-white America began with a Jewish Congressman (eventually Senator) from New York named Jacob Javits. In a 1951 editorial in the NEW YORK TIMES entitled "Let's Open The Gates," Javits proposed immigration levels of 500,000 a year for 20 years with total disregard for national origin or ethnicity.

After aggressive lobbying by Jewish groups for more than a decade, the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 was eventually enacted. Its purpose was to open the immigration floodgates to Third World immigrants who had previously been denied entrance under existing immigration law, while severely limiting white immigration from Europe.

Those lobbying groups included The American Jewish Congress, The Jewish Federation, the ACLU, B'nai B'rith, and the American Immigration and Citizenship Conference. (The last was an "umbrella" organization consisting of 17 more Jewish groups.) Their handiwork produced the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965, memorialized as the "Hart-Celler Act" after its Jewish Co-Sponsor, Congressman Emanuel Celler (D-NY).

Prior to the mid-1960s, the National Origins Act of 1924 -- also called the Johnson-Reed Act -- governed immigration policy in the U.S. It established immigration quotas proportionate to America's existing demographics. For example, if 25 percent of the American Public were of German heritage, then no more than 25 percent of new immigrants could be German.

The purpose of the Johnson-Reed Act was to ensure that no racial or cultural transformation of American Society could ever take place. Although the Jews' Media and other leftists are fond of promoting the false narrative that we are "a nation of immigrants," in fact, we were a nation of WHITE immigrants, from 1607 until 1965.

In keeping with the intentions of the Founders of this great nation, immigration to the United States had traditionally been almost exclusively white: yet, after passage of the 1965 Immigration and Nationality Act, immigration became almost exclusively non-white. As a result, the white population of Americans has declined from about 90 percent to its current level around 65 percent.

Moreover, in a more sane and honorable era, immigrants to the U.S. were required to learn the ways and language of their adopted homeland, allowing them to integrate and assimilate. In contrast, multiculturalism now invites primitive, Third World people to bring their cultures with them and retain them, rather than assimilate.

A true "nation of immigrants" would be a random assemblage of assorted races, religions, and former nationalities, with their only feature in common being the coincidence of inhabiting the same geography. With no common national culture and heritage to provide unity, populations tend to fragment along racial and ethnic lines, ensuring inevitable conflict. That would mean the "Balkanization" of America.

"Honey, come meet the new neighbors!"

Multiculturalism is a tactic of the Jewish left to force us to abandon our historical and cultural traditions and "reinvent" America as a diverse group of competing ethnicities, each of whom Marxists can control by throwing spoils to keep them compliant. In short, the ideology of multiculturalism is a weapon for those who would destroy America as it was founded, and replace our history and culture with a New World Order based on international socialism.
