

Championing Perversion

by Earl P. Holt III

It's been patently obvious for decades that leftist Jews are excessively sympathetic to every imaginable variety of queer, transgender, pervert or pedophile. In fact, it's more accurate to say that leftist Jews are empathetic to queers, perverts and transgenders, and rarely miss an opportunity to promote their causes. Just as they've done with every other element of Marxism, leftist Jews have been at the forefront of championing the LGBTQ+ movement and its accompanying ideology.

Even 50 years ago as an undergraduate at Washington University in St. Louis, I couldn't help but notice that the disproportionately large percentage of Jews among its student body seemed to go hand-in-hand with an excessively large percentage of homosexuals. The same pattern was readily apparent in its Graduate Clinical Psychology Program. Fortunately, in those days most homos stayed in the closet and didn't feel the need to trumpet their sexual preferences on their T-shirts. Most were generally tolerated by other students for exactly this reason, unless they became obnoxious or sexually aggressive with "straight" students.

Nowadays, thanks to Jewish control of the news and entertainment industries, queers and other perverts have been promoted to such an extent that it's gone to their brains like the spirochete from tertiary syphilis. Not only do they insist that we ACCEPT THEM on their terms, they also demand that we INDULGE THEIR WHIMS, such as baking a wedding cake for a same-sex marriage. We are even expected to TOLERATE bizarre antics such as their public displays of affection for very young kids with their "drag queen shows," better described as "freak shows." These are nothing more than grooming events for pedophiles, as most parents with a brain understand. (Only God knows what motivates the low-grade morons who knowingly bring their kids to such events...)

Of course, there's nothing novel about self-anointed "victims" demanding that the rest of society accept them exclusively on THEIR terms. Blacks insist that society pretend they are the intellectual and moral equals of whites, and feminists demand that society pretend women are equally as strong as men and of equal physical courage. Thus, blacks conveniently dismiss IQ testing as "culturally biased" -- despite the 650 empirical studies proving otherwise -- and feminists claim that gender is a "false" construct. Both are indulged and encouraged in their delusions by leftist prevaricators in the Jews' Media and academia, despite truly staggering empirical evidence to the contrary. Normal people increasingly call this "gas-lighting."

Besides queers, no other group of humans define themselves on the basis of their preferred sexual activities. This affords a glimpse into their narcissism, their obsessive personalities and their underlying mental instability. Their sexual orientation seems to preoccupy them to the extent that it defines almost every aspect of their lives, which is decidedly not normal. In the past, homosexuality was rightly considered a mental disorder, but there are so many homos in the psychology and psychiatric professions -- many of whom are Jews -- that the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual 5 (DSM 5) was revised in 2013 to remove homosexuality as a mental disorder. The psychological profile of "the love that dare not speak its name" didn't change, but the political influence of queers grew significantly, so that decision was based on politics, not science.

How the hell did we get to this point where queers can legally marry and adopt children, pedophiles can publicly groom children with drag queen events, and politics is allowed to define what is considered a mental disorder? Likewise, how did we get to the point that a bakery can be sued all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court for refusing to bake a wedding cake for two perverts, and biological males can arbitrarily declare themselves "transgenders," and then be permitted to invade the safe spaces of biological females? Like most of the malignancies of Cultural Marxism that have metastasized throughout our culture, the promotion of special privileges and immunities for homosexuals was spearheaded by leftist Jews, the vast majority of whom were perverts, themselves.

PIONEERING PERVERTS

Brenda Howard was a Jewish polygamist, bi-sexual rights activist and militant leftist, who is often referred to as the "Mother of Pride" because she helped found the so-called "gay pride movement." Like most leftist Jews, she threw herself into all kinds of leftist causes, including opposition to the war in Viet Nam and militant feminism. From her biography, it appears she joined just about every organization whose name included the words "queer," "gay," "lesbian," or the acronym "LGBTQ."

Edith Windsor (born Edith Schlain) was a Jewish LGBT rights activist and the lead Plaintiff in the landmark Supreme Court case of U.S. v. Windsor. This decision wrongly and capriciously overturned Section 3 of the Defense of Marriage Act in 2013. Windsor was an enormous legal victory for same-sex marriage and initiated the wholesale granting of unconstitutional privileges and immunities to queers. The decision permitted the perverts in the Obama regime to engage in all kinds of unconstitutional mischief by elevating their rights and privileges over the rest of society.

George Weinberg was a Jewish psychologist who is renowned for coining the term "homophobia." (Editor's Note: Normal people don't FEAR queers, they are repulsed by them.) In his 1972 book, Society and the Healthy Homosexual, he argued that homosexuality was perfectly normal, and that it was actually society that possessed a psychological malady because of the prejudice it harbors against homosexuals. As leftist Jews are inclined to do, he deviously turned the debate upside-down by indicting society for experiencing a repugnance over queers and their sexual practices, while exonerating those who engage in sodomy. He was also instrumental in seeing homosexuality removed from the list of Mental Disorders in the DSM 5.

Frank Kameny was born a Jew and remained a pioneering figure in the gay rights movement for most of his life. He is best remembered for being fired by the Army Map Service, and his entire career in the gay rights movement was launched by that dismissal. It's difficult to understand nowadays -- when many queers publicly trumpet their homosexuality -- but when Kameny was fired in 1958, Soviet Intelligence often targeted and blackmailed American homosexuals who worked for the U.S. federal government. They forced homosexuals to spy for their intelligence agencies -- and against the U.S. -- to avoid being exposed.

Barney Frank was a Jewish leftist, who may have been the first openly homosexual U.S. Congressman, serving the 4th District of Massachusetts for 22 years. He is widely believed to have retired from office when it was reported that his live-in boyfriend was running a homosexual escort service out of their home and Frank's Congressional Office. More recently, he served on the Board of the now-defunct Signature Bank, whose officers and Board were too busy promoting "climate change" and Diversity to ensure sound banking practices on the part of Signature Bank.

Jazz Jennings is a young Jewish transgender and gay rights activist -- born in 2000 -- who has her own TV show and is a YouTube personality. She is a spokesperson for transgender teens and personally founded Purple Rainbow Teens. She is also involved in all kinds of organizations for transgenders, and may be best known for her 2.5 year battle with the U.S. Soccer Federation, in wherein she tried to force them to permit her to compete on girls' teams.

Abby Stein is a Jewish transgender activist, author and Rabbi. (Oy Vey!) She may well be the first Hasidic transgender, and founded Sacred Space, the first support group for transgenders from Orthodox Jewish backgrounds.

Leslie Feinberg was a Jewish transgender activist, devoted communist and author of the book, Transgender Warriors. She described herself as a "female bodied...butch lesbian (and) transgender." She may have originated the practice of prescribing which pronouns were applied to her by others, and laid the groundwork for much of the ridiculous and delusional ideas currently found in "Gender Studies" classes, frequently offered in so-called "institutions of higher learning."

Magnus Hirschfeld was an early "sexologist" and German and Jewish physician, who became a pioneer for queer and transgender rights in pre-NAZI Germany. He inspired a number of American Jews to establish some of the first gay rights organizations in America, such as Harry Hay's Mattachine Society in Los Angeles, and Henry Gerber's Society for Human Rights in Chicago.

Betty Berzon was a Jewish gay rights activist and psychotherapist, who may have been the first of her profession to publicly declare her lesbianism in 1968. She established the Gay and Lesbian Community Services Center in 1971, and the Gay Psychological Association that soon led to the removal of homosexuality from the DSM 5's list of Mental Disorders.

These 10 individuals are a small fraction of the endless examples from which I could draw, but readers should have gotten the point by now. Like every other leftist and Marxist enthusiasm, leftist Jews have worked feverishly to destroy vital Western institutions that have evolved over the last 6,000 years of recorded history. Each of these leftist Jews has forsaken the God of Isaac and Abraham to worship at the alters of their new gods, Marx, Lenin and Saul Alinsky.

I should add that I have no animosity, whatsoever, for those who are born homosexual. The condition is clearly genetically-determined, and I have sympathy for those to whom life has dealt a complicated and difficult hand. There is probably nothing they can do about how they were born, but we are primarily judged by others on the basis of HOW WE LIVE. In a sane world, it would be bright, dignified, and extremely competent men like Rick Grenell or Chadwick Moore who are held up as role models for gay men, not Jazz Jennings or Barney Frank.

Normal American with Common-Sense

However, the militant nature and agenda of the Jewish-inspired LGBTQ+ movement is more than annoying and abrasive, it is destructive of the very fabric of Western Civilization, and its demand for gay marriage has dramatically undermined the institution of marriage in the West. Like all Marxist-inspired movements, the LGBTQ+ movement is very effective at destroying societal institutions, but not so good at creating workable alternatives. For THAT, I DO feel a powerful resentment.
