

Crazy World

(Apologies to Sam Cooke.)

I never got that damned COVID vax,
Wouldn't own a "smart" phone or Fax;
Haven't yet bought a DVD,
All would endlessly frustrate me.

I'm not fond of modernity,
Yet, not in need of therapy.
What a crazy world it's become.

Social media leaves me cold,
It's full of soulless trolls I'm told.
Phone solicitors are getting bold,
I don't respond when I am polled.

I simply relish privacy,
And don't believe it's heresy,
What a crazy world it's become.

Don't trust the crooks in Washington,
They'd best not try to take my gun.
Defining "woman" ain't that tough,
Unless your head is filled with fluff.

Most of our leaders are idiots,
But few of them are patriots.
What an evil world it's become.

Drag shows and gender-counseling,
Are simply pedophile "grooming."
What they seek is no mystery,
Sodom's lessons are history.

There's sure a lot of pervs and queers,
Most vindicating all our fears,
What a perverse world it's become.

Most blacks are simply too damned dumb,
To recognize how far they've come.
Known for being surly and rude,
And quite devoid of gratitude.

But I guess that it takes all kinds,
Even those with deficient minds,
What a crazy world it's become.
