

Off Broadway

They say the city's poorly run in New York
They say its run by Jews and nigs and queers;
But when a city's fully woke it's on its way to going broke
People and businesses have fled for years.

They say the girls are elegant in New York
Some of the loveliest you'll ever see;
But most are dizzy feminists
Believing that all men are pests
Except the ones who have lots of money.

They say New York cannot last too long if woke Squandering taxes will soon leave it broke
The dumbest mayor you could find
Like all the others of his kind
Has made his city one more running joke.

They say that residents are leaving New York
They say a lot of businesses left too
The smart money will always fly
Where tax rates are not quite so high
And predators are only in the zoo.
