

Lessons from Harvard's Cesspool

by Earl P. Holt III

Former Harvard University President Claudine Gay is a poster-child for the evils of affirmative-action, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI,) and every other plague that Cultural Marxism has used to infect so-called "higher education." It's a miracle that a cesspool like Harvard finally found the courage to force her resignation, since its Board of Directors are equally useless and insipid fools.

During Congressional testimony, this arrogant niggress refused to concede that calls for the genocide of Jews by its students were a violation of Harvard's speech code, and she then proceeded to equivocate all over the place. She was later exposed for making an entire career out of plagiarizing the work of others, a transgression for which Harvard students are routinely expelled. Her plagiarism consisted of lengthy sections from other works, and didn't even use quotation marks to indicate these "cut & paste" jobs were not her own work. There are several lessons to be learned from this train-wreck at Harvard.

FIRST, few black academics have any REAL scholarship. Most are frauds and poseurs, who have been credentialed through some sort of affirmative-action policy, and their work -- which rarely receives serious scrutiny -- is often eventually exposed as phony or substandard. With few exceptions, they are a one-note symphony of race-hustlers, each of whom exploits the same black grievance industry that got them credentialed in the first place. This ensures a self-perpetuating market for their tribe.

A typical example is Dr. George G. M. James, whose 1954 book Stolen Legacy argued that the ancient Greeks were not the true authors of Greek philosophy. He claimed in his book that Greek philosophers actually stole their ideas from the ancient Egyptians after Alexander the Great invaded Egypt and plundered the Egyptian Library at what is now Alexandria. Needless to say, George G. M. James' pseudo-history and "scholarship" are nearly on an equal par with Louis Farrakhan's claim that a black scientist invented white people in a test-tube.

More recent examples -- typical of the caliber of work created by credentialed black academics -- are the ludicrous claims that many common substances and practices are somehow "racist." This label is said to apply to any term containing the word "black," including the word blackmail. Also considered racist by blacks are such seemingly benign things as dog ownership, math, gravity and speed limits, peanut butter & jelly sandwiches, the COVID scamdemic, and the word "obese." Naturally, incarceration is also considered racist, just as all police are.

SECOND, whenever some nig is caught engaging in an illegal or inappropriate activity, they immediately cloak themselves in victimhood and accuse those who exposed them of being "racist." In the wake of her humiliating resignation as Harvard President, Claudine Gay immediately adopted the Official Race-Hustler tactic of hiding behind claims of victimhood. In a guest Editorial in the NEW YORK TIMES she alleged that "My inbox has been flooded with invective, including death threats." She also claimed that she was called the N-word "more times than I care to count." In addition, she accused "demagogues (of) weaponizing my presidency...and trafficking in lies and ad hominem attacks."

It's clear that this arrogant fraud has learned absolutely nothing from her experience when she alleges that "I fell into a well-laid trap." She characterized her serial plagiarism as "instances...where some material duplicated other scholars' language," as if it were a coincidence or accident. Most blacks seem incapable of admitting guilt, which may be a complex behavior associated with the more highly-evolved Frontal Lobes of whites and Asians. Since she has already demonstrated that she is morally blind, her allegations of death threats and epithets are probably as fanciful as her insinuation that her serial plagiarism was some sort of careless oversight.

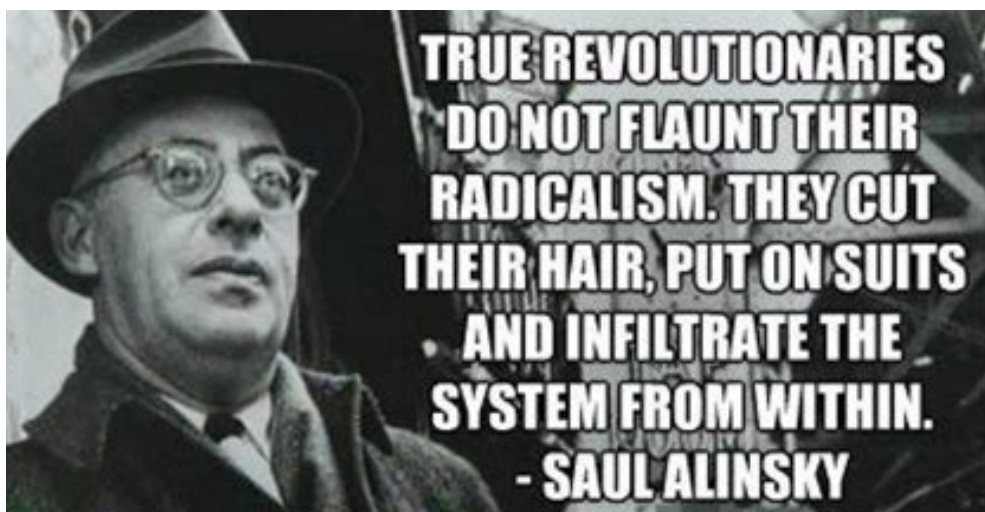

THIRD, like many other enclaves of Cultural Marxism, Harvard will always circle the wagons to defend one of its own if the accused is a fellow Marxist, no matter how much evidence exists of their wrongdoing. Their comrades in the Jews' Media and other communists then obediently come to their rescue by training their guns on the accusers, rather than the black wrongdoers, themselves. It's even more likely to occur if the guilty party can benefit from black skin privilege. Like the O.J. Simpson trial, the evidence is irrelevant because it's a tribal thing.

Professional liars in the Jews' Media were falling all over each other to excuse Claudine Gay's obvious plagiarism with some very creative euphemisms. Communist News Network (CNN) reporter Matt Egan characterized Gay's plagiarism as "sloppy attribution," rather than 40 or more instances of serial theft from real scholars. Another news media cesspool, The Atlantic, contended that Claudine Gay's plagiarism was not the REAL story. It quotes Charles Fried of Harvard Law School, who contends the real story is "...the extreme right-wing attack on America's elite institutions." Fried denies Gay's plagiarism charges are even credible, because they were exposed by the brilliant conservative scholar, Christopher Rufo of the Manhattan Institute.

FOURTH, once there's a racial controversy, you can count on morally and mentally deficient race-hustlers like Al Sharpton to immediately show-up and try to exploit the situation for their personal gain. Jesse Jackson would be there too, if he weren't dying from Parkinson's.

FIFTH, The greatest irony of all is that Marxist Jews are primarily responsible for having subverted Harvard and other so-called institutions of "higher-learning" in the first place. Many once-prestigious universities have become anti-Semitic cesspools of leftist extremism and intolerance because Jewish Marxists like Saul Alinsky, Noel Ignatiev and their comrades from the Frankfort School were responsible for spreading this malignancy. However, like the Reign of Terror during the French Revolution, the monster they created has now turned on its own, just as the mob turned on Robespierre. Now, their "two minutes of hate" (from Orwell's 1984) are being redirected at Jews, themselves.

Symptomatic of the problem was the late Noel Ignatiev, a Jew with more chutzpah than scholarship. Despite not having even a bachelor's degree, he was welcomed as a “tenured professor” at Harvard because he was a Bolshevik who devoted his waking hours to “abolishing the white race.” He founded, published and edited a journal, known as Race Traitor, whose motto was “Treason to whiteness is loyalty to humanity.”

Noel Ignatiev: Jewish Psychopath & Tenured Harvard Professor

Who but a communist Jew would be welcomed at Harvard as a tenured professor, despite not having a degree? Likewise, who but a communist Jew could engage in endless “hate speech” against a specific race – and advocate genocide against it — but never pay a professional price for doing so?

Despite his claims, Ignatiev did not promote genocide against the white race for the “sake of humanity” as he claimed, he did so because the legal and cultural traditions of the white race are the only realistic obstacles to his goal of establishing a New World Order based on Marxist totalitarianism, and run by commissars like himself. But first, they must destroy America, which stands as the greatest obstacle to their Marxist agenda.
