

We Elected A Joke

(To "I Started a Joke" by the BeeGees)

We elected a joke
Which started the whole world fighting
But we just couldn't see
The joke was on you and me

Soon came buyer's remorse
When the whole nation got locked-down
If we had only seen
What his election would mean

A stranger to the truth
He's been a liar forever
Our enemies just laugh
While we wince at every gaffe

He is clearly a crook
A grifter owned by Red China
We were victims of lies
From the very swamp we despise

His soul is clearly shot
Which imperils the world, greatly
But he has no clue
Because his mind is gone too

When he's finally gone
Either one way or another
Only then we'll be free of his corrupt legacy
