

The Imperative of Moral Courage

By Earl Holt III

in testimony before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HUAC) in 1948, a one-time Soviet spy-turned-government-witness named Whittaker Chambers exposed his former Soviet spy ring that operated in the upper-echelons of Harry Truman's Treasury Department and State Department. After his testimony, someone wrote to him, "You've been to hell, but didn't return with empty hands." I feel the same way about my experiences on the St. Louis School Board.

In 1989, I ran for the St. Louis School Board to fight court-ordered desegregation in St. Louis City. At the time, I was warned by my allies on the Council of Conservative Citizens (CofCC) -- who had already been elected to the board -- about the inevitable "feeding frenzy" and full-court press the Jews' Media in St. Louis would use to try and intimidate me into rethinking my candidacy.

The Jews' Media in St. Louis were outraged that three courageous and pioneering CofCC members had been elected to the board two years before as a slate of candidates opposed to school desegregation. The Jews' Media hoped that their feeding frenzy would prompt me to betray the white voters of St. Louis and intimidate me into voting with the race-hustlers and white race-traitors who soon thereafter destroyed the St. Louis Public Schools. Within a decade, they had driven nearly every white kid from the school system, and families with school-age kids from the city. After we were gone, the state of Missouri took over the SLPs for a couple of years.

In those days, the ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH routinely set the tone for just about every other Jews' Media organ in St. Louis. This is identical to the way Pharisees on the Editorial Pages of the NEW YORK TIMES dictate the dominant media narratives for ABC, NBC, CBS, NPR, MS-NBC, CNN, the L.A. TIMES, the WASHINGTON POST, and everyone else except Fox News, NewsMax, talk radio, and every unabashedly conservative periodical or website.

To give you a glimpse into exactly who our enemies were, the POST-DISPATCH flew the Soviet Flag over its main entrance on Tucker Boulevard during World War II and for several years afterwards. (I'm not joking: I'm talking about the sickle & hammer on a red background.) The POST was also named as a communist front by the HUAC in the late 1940s because of the communist affiliations of some of its reporters and editors. It is with good reason that sensible people in St. Louis refer to it as the "POST-DISGRACE."

Prior to CofCC candidates winning elections to the St. Louis School Board, many other white candidates had spoken out against federal court-ordered desegregation programs while campaigning for their seat. However, once elected, they immediately began to vote with the racist, nigra criminal element and white race-traitors on the board. They became poachers instead of the game-keepers they had promised voters they would remain.

Like many of the chameleons we send to Congress, these school board members soon recognized there are numerous incentives available to those willing to betray their constituents, and only denunciation and libel awaiting those who actually keep their campaign promises. These game-keepers-turned-poachers often became darlings of the St. Louis Jews' Media, and received adoring "puff pieces" in the POST-DISPATCH. This was in stark contrast to the vilification our side routinely endured from the Jews' Media, along with the city's black criminal element and white race-traitors in the so-called "Democrat" Party.

Once elected, I always made it a point to convey an urgent warning to the prospective candidates our coalition groomed to run for the school board. I tried to prepare them for just how relentless and vicious the Jews' Media would be in attacking their candidacy. I tried to emphasize how powerfully it would affect them to be portrayed as social pariahs and see their reputations trashed in the local news media for relatives, friends and neighbors to see. Although I tried to prepare them adequately for the experience that awaited them, none ever fully heeded my warnings until it was too late.

One of our coalition members — who taught in the St. Louis Catholic School system — ended up resigning from the St. Louis School Board after being threatened by the St. Louis Archdiocese with losing her teaching job. The St. Louis Archdiocese was so intent upon forcing this single mother to resign from the city school board, its hierarchy actually took time off from grooming young boys to force her resignation. (Btw, that's NOT an attack on the Catholic Church, but it IS a fairly accurate characterization of the homos and communists in the upper echelons of the St. Louis Archdiocese at the time.)

Another female candidate we sponsored was so cowed by vicious and accusatory news media coverage, she was intimidated into calling around to ask the advice of friends whether she should withdraw in the middle of her campaign. I could hardly blame her: until you've seen your reputation and name trashed in print by the Jews' Media, it's almost impossible to imagine how powerful the effect can be.

Being vilified and attacked so viciously when I first ran was an epiphany for me, and became an experience that "tempered" me like steel. After 1989, I was never again concerned with anything the Jews' Media said, did or thought. Frankly Scarlett, I don't give a rat's ass what they say because I know firsthand just how dishonest, treasonous, biased and corrupt they truly are.

Speaking of memorable phrases from Gone with the Wind, there's an overlooked line in that film that might be a source of comfort to many of us who are regularly trashed by the Jews' Media and their accomplices for speaking what are obvious truths among normal people, but considered heretical to our communist enemy. The scene I reference was that ball where the women are “auctioned-off” to prospective dance partners in order to raise money for the Confederacy. Rhett Butler promptly bid $150 in gold for Mrs. Charles Hamilton, who is none other than Scarlett O’Hara in a state of semi-mourning for the young husband she recently lost in the War of Yankee Invasion.

In the process of conducting this “pantomime auction,” Dr. Meade rejects Rhett Butler’s offer and explains that Mrs. Hamilton is in mourning and cannot accept. Rhett Butler persists, and Dr. Meade then responds huffily that “She will not consider it, sir!” Scarlett quickly pipes up, “Oh yes I will,” which causes Aunt “Pittypat” Hamilton to actually faint for a change, instead of merely threatening to do so.

When the auction was over and Rhett and Scarlett take to the dance floor, she confides to him: “After this dance, my reputation will be lost forever.” Rhett Butler’s astonishingly wise and poignant response is something we should always remember and take to heart. He replies: “With enough courage, you can do WITHOUT a reputation.”

I'm occasionally astonished when someone in our movement suggests a tactic to garner good publicity from the Jews' Media. We must never forget that they are our mortal enemies, and we must never stop fighting them with the truth, which is their greatest enemy and our most powerful weapon. That's why our enemies work so hard to censor us. If the white nationalist movement were ever to garner favorable or even balanced news media coverage, it would merely indicate that the Jews' Media no longer consider us to be an adversary worth the powder.

The idea that we might cultivate a favorable image or improve our reputation with the Jews' Media is absolutely delusional. There's nothing anyone in our movement could possibly do to garner favorable or even fair coverage from them. That's because they are the leading proponents in the West of Marxism, multi-culturalism, transgenderism, climate alarmism, and feminism -- The Ladies' Auxiliary of Marxism -- and we are anathema to their strategies and agenda.

We will always be vilified by the Jews' Media, because we are the last obstacle standing in the way of their intended "New World Order," a euphemism for international socialism, to be run by commissars such as themselves. The rest of us will be expected to pay homage to Marxism, multi-culturalism, feminism, transgenderism, and no doubt a great many other "isms."

In the future, resisting their socialist New World Order will require a great deal of courage, because we will NEVER receive any thanks, nor will we ever be the subjects of any “puff-pieces,” nor can we ever hope to receive even balanced coverage. In fact, all we will ever receive for our efforts will be vilification, slander, libel and second-guessing from those who will never understand the reason for the White Nationalist Movement, or why anyone would be a part of it.

We will be routinely denounced by those who do not understand the existential threat against us, and by those who willfully ignore such threats. In addition to the Jews' Media, the “Democrat” Party, and wealthy dilettantes among the “donor class,” these will include clergy driven by ideology rather than Scripture, as well as relatives and former friends who will shun us. On occasion, it may even include timid members of our own movement.

In fact, there may be times when it seems that no one but God and we, ourselves, can understand why we persist in fighting the battles we do. At such times, it’s vital to understand that our mission is nothing less than the preservation of the white race, Western Civilization and even Christianity from the fools, trash, traitors, dilettantes and savages inside and outside our gates.

If Gone with the Wind doesn’t adequately inspire you for the task at hand, let me suggest one of the Beatitudes from the Sermon on the Mount, from Matthew: Chapter 5, Verses 10 through 12. (KJV):

“Blessed are they who are persecuted for righteousness sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you and persecute you . . . for my sake . . . for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.”

The task before us is a difficult one, but our path is not untraveled. The evil we confront can be traced all the way back to the Garden of Eden, and for that reason, it is the same battle that many patriots and martyrs before us have also fought.

For example, most early Christians had it far worse than ourselves. So did religious believers in the Soviet Union, the Eastern Bloc, Cuba, and in every other communist or socialist system ever to come to power. It is somehow comforting to know that others have trod the same path we travel, and have fought many of the same battles that now confront us.

I do not believe that God will abandon us in this, our hour of need: He has never forsaken us before...
