

Fag Football ?

Perverts are busily establishing a National Gay ~~Fag~~ Flag Football League (NGFFL.) I'm not kidding, and this is not a story from the Babylon Bee. It was reported on June 19th on FoxNews, so it's reliable. Here are some thoughts that come immediately to mind:

The NGFFL governing body must decide if a personal foul occurs when participants happen to grab more than just an opponent's flag.

Participants may need to have it explained to them that a "touchdown" does not refer to groping an opponent or teammate below the belt.

Clearly, it won't be necessary for the league's governing body to define or explain in the Rulebook what an "End Zone" is.

Jockstraps are not required in order to participate, but pink panties are mandatory.

Optional

Mandatory

Teams on offense will field "Tight Ends" in the league's first few years, after which they will be re-designated "Wide Receivers."

A "Prevent Defense" indicates that defenders will each be wearing condoms.

The expression "blowout" -- often used to describe a lopsided victory over an opponent -- may not be used in its traditional context.

Rather than shower following each contest, both teams will meet at the nearest bathhouse.

The league is now recruiting transvestites and pre-pubescent boys as "Queerleaders."
