

Phil Donahue, Roast in HELL !

Phil Donahue's daytime TV show was an early version of Jerry Springer, albeit with fewer n*ggers, more communists, and having adopted at least a pseudo-intellectual veneer. In fact, we owe a debt a gratitude to Donahue for introducing us to just how slick, clever and skilled Soviet KGB agents can be.

One regular guest on Donahue's show was a KGB Agent named Vladimir Pozner, the real deal. He was raised in America and had no accent, so he could blend into American TV seamlessly. Naturally, Donahue agreed with Pozner on every point, exposing himself as just one more "useful idiot," a term Lenin used to describe fools in the West who enabled the metastasizing of communism. (Lenin vowed to "hang them first.")

Useful Idiot & KGB Agent Subverting America

Donahue was too arrogant, intellectually dishonest, and insipid to recognize the irony of allowing a Soviet KGB Agent to misuse our First Amendment and America's news media by disseminating Soviet disinformation during the "cold war." That transpired even as his Soviet leadership ruthlessly imprisoned their own dissidents in the Gulag.

Nothing in Phil Donahue's life became him like the leaving...

Earl Holt III
Flyover Country