

Ending Decades of GOP Betrayal

by Earl P. Holt III

Two weeks before the 1992 Presidential Election, George Bush Senior was trailing Bill Clinton in the polls, so he desperately tried to raise the issue of the "Democrat" Party's radical environmentalism, a campaign tactic the Jews' Media mockingly labeled "George Bush Gets Tough." With rolled-up sleeves and loosened tie, Bush warned audiences that "...if this guy is elected (meaning Clinton,) we'll be up to our elbows in Spotted Owls."

Yet, it was Bush's OWN Interior Secretary, Manuel Lujan, who declared the Spotted Owl an endangered species, thus killing the logging industry's harvesting of old-growth forests in the American Northwest, and forcing the home-building industry to import Canadian ("CanFor") lumber Bush probably never even knew it.

3 Bird-Brains: Bush Sr., Manuel Lujan & Spotted Owl

Similarly, in the second 1996 televised presidential debate between Bill Clinton and Senator Bob Dole (R-KS,) the noticeably uncomfortable and inarticulate Dole attempted to raise the issue of Clinton's repeated nominations of radical and traitorous federal judges. Many still confound us 30 years later with corrupt, treasonous and politicized decisions, and most are more deserving of a stretch in federal prison than life tenure on the federal bench. Without any effort to place the issue into context, at one point the bumbling and clearly outmatched Dole managed to sputter the question, "What about all these Clinton judges?" Unfortunately, Dole had earlier voted to confirm 31 of 34 of those "Clinton judges" to whom he only later seemed to object.

Immediately after being elected in 2000 -- another election "Democrats" desperately tried to steal -- George Bush Junior showed his lack of guts and judgement by allowing Senator Ted Kennedy (D-Chappaquiddick) to write his administration's first education bill, which became the $200 Billion No Child Left Behind Act of 2001. It lowered academic standards across the board so even retarded and lazy blacks could successfully matriculate and then attend college, displacing far more deserving white and Asian applicants. It also spawned and enabled the brain-washing and indoctrination of public school students that has now run amuck in the form of Critical Race Theory.

Reptilian Ted Kennedy and the Young Woman He Left Behind

Likewise, when Senator Richard Burt (RINO-NC) assumed the Chairmanship of the Senate Intelligence Committee in 2017, he immediately made DEMOCRAT Senator Mark Warner of Virginia his "co-chairman." The sneaky and highly-partisan Warner became the de facto chairman of that committee, and the cowardly and hapless Burt became a laughingstock when the serious work of the committee's investigations ground to a halt. The Senate Intelligence Committee was effectively castrated while a conspiracy by Obama holdovers at the FBI, Justice Department and intelligence community were actively engaged in a treasonous and criminal coup against President Trump, using perjured testimony before four FISA Courts to spy on Trump and attempt to destroy him with false charges of "Colluding with Russia."

John McCain was an arrogant narcissist who felt he deserved accolades and homage much like Kommie Harris demands today. It is no coincidence that he dramatically rose from his sick-bed to betray the GOP and cast the deciding vote to save ObamaCare, arguably the worst piece of legislation ever to become U.S. law. That's the kind of drama on which he thrived. There's an anecdote from his bumbling 2008 presidential campaign that defines McCain's true character: he was campaigning in North Carolina a few weeks before the election and told his audience (paraphrase) to "VOTE FOR ME BECAUSE I'LL APPOINT CONSERVATIVE JUDGES." It should come as no surprise that McCain was one of the "Gang of 14" that had previously rejected most of President George Bush Junior's more conservative judicial nominees.

For decades, an ostensibly "Republican" donor class has worked feverishly to ensure that men and women of ability are NEVER PERMITTED TO ASSUME POSITIONS OF REAL POWER AND AUTHORITY in either the GOP, or in any branch of the federal government. What these anecdotes illustrate is their prolonged war to substitute weak, timid and ineffectual pawns for principled, conservative reformers, who would have been effective and made a difference.

The donor class works aggressively behind the scenes to ensure that men or women of courage and principle MUST NEVER LEAD THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. That's why it opposed Ronald Reagan in 1976 and 1980, preferring instead such mediocrities as Gerald Ford and George Bush Senior. It also opposed Donald Trump in 2016 and 2020, probably because its ranks are naturally suspicious of men of honor and integrity. The GOP donor class would rather lose with fools and idiots than support conservatives like Trump or Reagan. That's one reason Sam Francis often called the GOP "gracious losers" and "the stupid party."

That's also why -- in truly Machiavellian fashion -- the donor class has often used its power and influence to ensure that the GOP is led by mediocrities or traitors who stifle the adoption of conservative reform initiatives that should have become law decades ago. Recent examples would be the timid presidential campaigns of Mitt Romney and John McCain, and the elevation of such devious traitors as Mitch McConnell to Senate Majority Leader, and John Boehner and Paul Ryan to Speaker of the House. House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy was hardly better.

RINO Whores for the Donor Class

For decades, the Republican National Committee (RNC) was Chaired by donor-class-approved mediocrities like Ronna McDaniel and Michael Steele. Michael Steele is a nig whose loyalty is easily bought, a fact glaringly evident in his role at the Mediocre Spooks of the Nigro Broadcasting Corporation (MS-NBC,) where he obediently attacks anything Republican or conservative. He was never a Republican in any sense of the word, but saw the position as a lucrative gig with indoor work and no heavy-lifting, while the donor class saw his appointment as virtue-signaling.

Ronna McDaniel was equally incompetent, but wrongly received credit for Trump's election in 2016, and then presided over four straight electoral disasters that should have been GOP triumphs. While McDaniel and Steele were Chairpersons, the party regularly failed and betrayed its membership. Meanwhile, the "Democrats" were perfecting their voter fraud schemes that produced the stolen 2020 election. After being replaced as Chairwoman of the RNC, McDaniel immediately accepted a new gig at the Nigra Broadcasting Corporation (NBC.)

2 Incompetents Chosen by Donor Class to Chair the RNC

Now that the GOP is unquestionably Trump's party, that's no longer the case and the RNC is in FAR better hands. The election of Donald Trump was a repudiation of decades of treasonous “leadership” by the dilettantes among our self-anointed donor class. That's why the donor class worked feverishly to defeat him in 2016, and then attempted to destroy him after his election. In 2022, it desperately sought to defeat any Trump-endorsed Mid-Term Congressional or gubernatorial candidate in order to take back control of the Republican Party that it considers its hobby, but lost by default to Trump in 2016.

The GOP will NEVER become the majority party if the donor class is ever again permitted to control leadership positions in the Republican Party. The agenda of those they select to lead in the House, Senate and RNC routinely betray their party, their constituents and the American People. The real agenda of those they annoint is to further donor class interests and enrich themselves.

Having been betrayed by both the GOP's donor class and political class for decades, it is patently obvious that rank-and-file Republicans are willing to support almost ANY outsider over the known quantity, whose betrayals have been evident on a daily basis for 50 years.