

Just a Theory

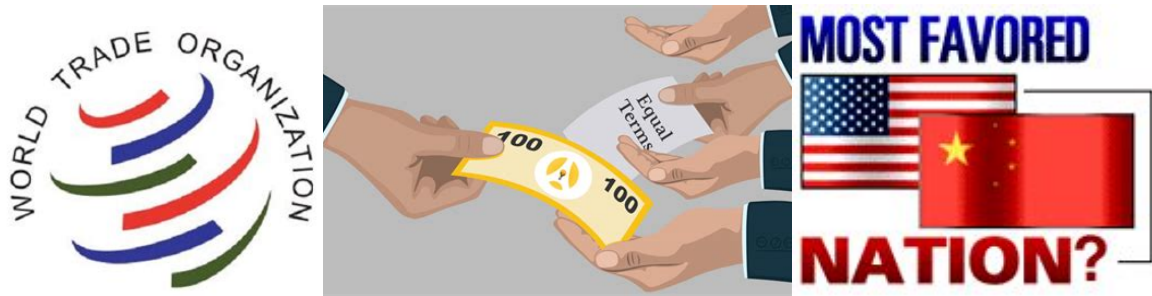

by Earl P. Holt III

I've got a theory, but unlike Marxist Theory, it's based on evidence rather than ideology, and therefore amenable to change in light of contradictory evidence. My theory explains all the currently available evidence better than any other of which I'm aware, and it seems eminently plausible. In fact, it is exactly the sort of scheme in which "Democrats" and other communists would engage.

Trump was the first prominent American to publicly denounce China for its dishonest and corrupt trade practices, a 20-year crusade that definitely contributed to his being elected president. China had been eating our lunch for decades, but no one besides Trump had the guts to call out China because so many in our political class and donor class are heavily invested in Chinese firms and in U.S. firms doing business there.

Trump correctly pointed out what serious people already knew but didn't dare to say: China has manipulated its currency to discourage imports from America, thereby generating $500 Billion in annual trade surpluses for itself. It has also stolen $500 Billion per year in proprietary technology (trade secrets) from U.S. firms as a precondition for doing business there. Using these stolen technologies, China has often reverse-engineered American products and competed with these same American firms in international markets.

Trump was the first president who attempted to hold China accountable for its illegal trade practices, all of which violated the many promises China agreed to when seeking Most Favored Nation trade status with the U.S. and admission to the World Trade Organization. These windfalls funded China's massive military buildup. In retaliation for those trade practices, Trump imposed tariffs on Chinese imports that totaled tens of billions of dollars in revenue for several years during his presidency.

Unmerited Privileges for Communist China

The Trump economy was soon roaring along at just under four percent GDP growth by late 2019, fueled by Trump's significant deregulation of the U.S. economy and sweeping federal income tax reductions that primarily benefitted the middle-class. Many "rust-belt" industries -- like certain small steel foundries -- even began making a recovery after being given Last Rights by the the Obama Administration.

Facing four more years of Trump's tariffs on their exports and Trump's loud denunciations of China as an international pariah, China's leaders came up with a plan to damage Trump's re-election prospects by sabotaging the Trump economy. They intentionally unleashed the COVID pandemic on the world, knowing it would quickly infect the U.S. because of the immense volume of human and commercial traffic between our two nations. They also recognized that certain quisling Americans would help obscure COVID's origins because they had illegally participated in its funding.

China's leaders knew they could rely on the World Health Organization's (WHO) Director-General to lie and alibi for them, because it was China's power and influence that initially got him his position at the WHO. Indeed, it was Director-General (and Ethiopian communist) Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus who has publicly parroted China's disinformation efforts to this day, claiming that COVID originated in Wuhan's "wet markets" rather than China's Level 4 Wuhan Institute of Virology. (Like the commie he is, he has privately conceded that COVID was engineered at the WIV.)

U.S. public health officials like Anthony Fauci at the National Institute for Allergies and Infectious Diseases (NIAID) treasonously repeated such disinformation from the WHO and China, causing the U.S. to lose valuable time responding to the pandemic. Fauci and the NIAID were in a very difficult position from the start, since Fauci had helped fund the Wuhan Institute of Virology's "gain of function" research that China's military used to convert an innocuous and naturally-occurring bat virus into a pandemic that killed more than one million Americans and seven million additional citizens, worldwide.

Once the pandemic arrived in America, the New Communist Party of the USA -- misleadingly called "Democrats" -- did what they always do by rushing to exploit any tragedy for their own political gain. They immediately exaggerated COVID's true transmissibility and virulence in order to generate panic among their weak-minded supporters, and then began to seize control of American institutions by using public health measures as a rationale. They soon mandated masks, lockdowns of businesses in BLUE areas, and mandatory vaccinations for public employees, air passengers, the military, and employees of firms doing business with the federal government.

Perhaps the most egregious power seized by the NCPUSA was the dubious authority to mass-mail ballots for the 2020 Presidential Election in "swing states," facilitating untold millions of fraudulent votes in Arizona, Georgia, Michigan, Minnesota, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. According to the documentary 2000 Mules, it reversed the legitimate outcome of the election in each of those six states, and stole the 2020 election from Donald Trump, exactly as he complained.

By stealing the election from Trump, China and the NCPUSA rid themselves of their greatest opposition and the primary impediment to their further accumulation of power. RINOs doing the bidding of their masters in the "donor class" were already lining up with the NCPUSA to try and end Trump's tariffs on Chinese imports. Stealing the election from Trump also allowed the NCPUSA to dodge a bullet, because eight years of Trump would probably have relegated "Democrats" to the kind of obscurity enjoyed by the Flat Earth Society. By stealing the election, all of Trump's enemies won and only the American People lost.

Anthony Fauci's treasonous complicity in illegally funding the Chinese military's Virologic Warfare Program at the Wuhan Lab -- with several millions of dollars in grants over many years -- was no longer of interest to the NCPUSA after it gained a majority in both Houses of Congress through its 2020 voter fraud. Fauci's frequent instances of perjury before Congress were soon forgiven as well, and he would NEVER be held accountable for helping to illegally fund COVID's gain of function research. Nor would he be held to account for the terrible advice he routinely gave President Trump, probably in an attempt to sabotage Trump's presidency.

The WHO was once again free to continue its pursuit of one-world government, just as it's now doing with the International Treaty on Pandemic Prevention and Preparedness. This treaty authorizes the Director-General of the WHO -- that Ethiopian communist who repeatedly lied to the world about the ChinaVirus -- to define what an "international public health emergency" is, and override U.S. laws and the Constitution in order to deal with such an event. By the way, the WHO considers "climate change" and Third World poverty to be "international public health emergencies."

Several times on my favorite cable TV show, The First 48, veteran homicide detectives have made the point that when you look closely at the true culprit of a homicide, all the available evidence suddenly begins to fit together neatly, like a puzzle. The same is rarely true of any other suspect or "person-of-interest." My theory -- that China unleashed the COVID pandemic to damage Trump's re-election prospects and end U.S. tariffs on Chinese exports to America -- neatly fits this puzzle analogy.

The only unresolved question in my mind is whether the NCPUSA collaborated with China to help orchestrate the COVID pandemic. Based on experience, my guess is that it did.
