

"Walking-Around Money"

by Earl P. Holt III

Newt Gingrich and others have often pointed to the practice of early voting as a source of great advantage that favors "Democrats" and disadvantages Republicans. They characterize that advantage in terms of Republican candidates being forced to "play catch-up" on election day in order to overcome "Democrat" vote totals from early voting.

Some also point to contrasting approaches to elections taken by the two major parties, with "Democrats" focusing on the mechanics of elections, while Republicans tend to focus more on messaging by GOP candidates. They correctly point to the fact that President Joe Biden, Pennsylvania Senator John Fetterman, and Arizona Governor Katie Hobbs engaged in little campaigning, but each supposedly defeated vastly superior and more energetic Republican opponents in their general elections.

Three Losers Who Supposedly "Won"

Yet, there's a lot more going on in our elections than the mere advantage enjoyed by "Democrats" from early voting. It boils down to simple arithmetic: Republican candidates will win when they receive a majority of votes cast, and even early "Democrat" vote totals can't overcome a plurality of votes cast by Republicans on election day.

Early voting is not, in itself, the cause of Republican defeats in prior elections, it merely PROVIDES AN OPPORTUNITY FOR VOTER FRAUD. The real advantage to "Democrats" from month-long voting is that it gives them a much greater window of opportunity to get blacks and other trash to exchange or sell their votes or ballots to "Democrat" canvassers in return for "WALKING AROUND MONEY."

Month-long voting allows "Democrats" additional weeks to seek out Registered Voters who are too lazy, too drunk, or too disinterested in elections to bother voting. That's why voter registration is so important to "Democrats," and why it receives a 365 days-per-year priority. "Democrat" operatives "harvest" those ballots, and then VOTE THEM, just as the film "2000 Mules" exposed. In return, these marginal citizens receive a reward in the form of a $100 bill or its equivalent. But first, they have to be registered.

I first witnessed this phenomenon in our April, 1991 St. Louis City School Board election. Quislings in the 27 largest corporations in St. Louis contributed $400,000 to our corrupt, black and Marxist opponents, allowing them to steal that critical election. After repeated attempts by the Missouri Secretary of State to obtain an accurate accounting of all that corporate money, seven months after the election, $170,000 of it was ultimately designated "walking around money."

Essentially, the campaign run by our black and criminal opponents paid every drunken n*gger and homeless shit-bum around $50 apiece to vote. I'm convinced that's why poll workers eventually started handing out all those "I VOTED" stickers, so they would know to whom they should give walking around money. (By the way, most of those corporations that funded the destruction of the St. Louis Public Schools have since fled St. Louis, and the schools are now a truly hopeless catastrophe.)

There's another variety of voter fraud that was used in our 1991 St. Louis School Board election, and it's probably still being used by "Democrats" in other BLUE cities to this day. That's the practice of "Democrat" election officials in all-black areas casting ballots by proxy for those voters who failed to appear at the polls on election day. Since legitimate

GOP election officials in black areas may be rarer than unicorns -- most are really "Democrats" in disguise -- there are few if any checks on the conduct of election officials in those areas.

After our April of 1991 election, five black election officials in mostly-black north St. Louis confessed under oath to the FBI that they had engaged in this practice of "proxy-voting" everyone in their ward who failed to appear on election day. Since former Senator Roy Blunt (Quisling-MO) was Secretary of State at the time -- and Bush Senior's U.S. Attorney for Eastern Missouri was a gutless douchebag -- those crooked, black election officials were never prosecuted under the 1965 Voting Rights Act, as they should have been. The only penalty they received was being barred from ever serving again as an election official.

If all this sounds far-fetched, bear the following in mind: "Democrats" have weaponized federal law enforcement to terrorize innocent political opponents; They've intentionally created an energy shortage;

They've welcomed 21 million illegals into the U.S. without vetting; And, they've relentlessly engaged in other forms of voter fraud such as mass-mailed ballots. They also conspired with social media to censor their opposition on social media platforms. Currently, they are intent on "transitioning" us into the international socialist orbit and a New World Order. THEY ARE CAPABLE OF ANYTHING !

For such a corrupt and traitorous organized criminal enterprise as the "Democrat" Party, bribing voters with walking around money and illegally casting votes for no-shows are small potatoes, indeed...
