

Enough Already !

I never cared if someone were "gay" or used some other acronym to describe non-traditional sexual pairings. That is, UNTIL they demanded that I accept their perversions on their terms. I REFUSE!

I never paid much attention to skin color until "persons of color" insisted that I overlook their endless lies, often surly attitudes, criminality and other character flaws. I'LL BE DAMNED IF I WILL !

I never cared about the politics of others until I recognized they believe their political affiliations entitle them to riot with impunity when they don't get their way. NOW I CARE GREATLY!

I was never concerned that my neighbor's language differed from mine until I saw tens of millions of illegals pouring across our southern border and demanding that we taxpayers subsidize these trespassers. NOW I'M CONCERNED!

I was proud to be a Democrat until I saw the party's elected officials attempt to destroy their political opposition with contrived and even fraudulent charges, just as Josef Stalin did in his 1930s "Moscow Show Trials." NOW, I'M NOT SO PROUD !

I was amused when I first began to see men dressed as women, but didn't really care until they began to groom young children openly by flaunting themselves in lingerie at those freak shows they wrongly call "drag queen events." NOW I'M VERY ANGRY!

We have no control over where we are born, or the color of our skin, or our sexual orientation, but we DO have control over our POLITICAL AGENDA and what we choose to believe is accurate and truthful. That's where these groups lost me, forever.
