

Trump's Compassion

Donald Trump has proved beyond any doubt that he has more decency and compassion for people than ALL his critics, combined. It was patently obvious when he organized relief efforts in 1986 to save the family farm of Annabel Hill, a Georgia widow about to lose the land her family owned for five generations. (See Earl Holt. "The REAL Donald Trump." CITIZENS INFORMER, July of 2024.) That same decency and compassion were evident in Trump's address to Congress on March 4th.

Who but Donald Trump would have taken the time to recognize a 13 year-old kid from Texas named DJ Daniel, who has undergone extensive brain surgery for cancer, but who aspires to be a law enforcement officer? Trump and his new Director of the Secret Service, Sean Curran, granted that kid his wish, and made him an honorary member of the Secret Service, badge and all. His eyes opened wide when Trump announced that appointment.

Who but Trump would have honored the grieving families of Laken Riley and Jocelyn Nungaray, both of whom lost loved ones to savage and dangerous illegal aliens welcomed into this country by the same people who currently disparage President Trump? Laken Riley is now immortalized in the Laken Riley Act, signed by Trump in January as his first, official act as president. It requires that authorities detain illegal aliens who are deemed a threat to public safety based on prior conduct.

Likewise, Trump announced the naming of a national wildlife refuge in the Houston area in memory of Jocelyn Nungaray and her love of animals. By Executive Order, he required the Secretary of the Interior to rename the Anahuac National Wildlife Refuge the Jocelyn Nungaray National Wildlife Refuge. Trump's Executive Order also requires that "...her life is permanently commemorated therein."

Trump also took the time to recognize Stephanie Diller, the young widow of slain NYPD officer Jonathan Diller. Officer Diller was murdered by a savage ape who was out on bail for murder at the time, and who had an extensive record of violence. While Joe Biden attended a fund-raiser in Manhattan, Trump attended Diller's wake on Long Island. (See below.)

Ronald Reagan had similar compassion and decency, and it was The Gipper who originated the practice of recognizing the "Heroes in the Gallery" during State of the Union addresses to Joint Sessions of Congress. Reagan first recognized Lenny Skutnik, who two weeks before had dived into the frozen Potomac River to save the lives of victims of the Air Florida Flight 90 crash. Of course, "Democrats" and other traitorous garbage hated Reagan, too.

Trump's speech was only briefly marred when Congressman Al Green (D-Nigeria,) repeatedly interrupted him with the usual babbling nonsense we've learned to expect from the morons who black "Democrats" elect to public office. Green was quickly escorted from the chamber by the Sergeant-at-Arms. (See below.)
