

Invincible Stupidity !

I've argued for years that the under-evolved Frontal Lobes of most blacks render them incapable of objectively engaging in rational debate. As a result, they rarely perceive anything in the same way that most intelligent white people see it. Facts, evidence, logic and reason play little or no role in their lives or world-view.

This was illustrated in spades on June 26th, when disgraced former Congressman Jamaal Bowman appeared on CNN's "News Night." Bowman (D-N*ggeria) was the House Member who was censured for activating a fire alarm after some House vote displeased him. On CNN, Bowman blamed white people for certain failings that originate with blacks, themselves, proving how hopeless it is to debate with them:

"The reason why heart disease and cancer and obesity and diabetes are bigger (sic) in the black community is because of the stress we carry from having to deal with being called the N-word directly or indirectly every day."

Bowman Activating Fire Alarm

With the exception of myself, I rarely hear anyone else use the "N-word" on a regular basis these days. However, a lying n*gger like Bowman is eminently deserving of such an epithet. A far better explanation for all those health issues among blacks is the lack of moral character and self-discipline that are rampant among their particular species.

Most adult, black women are morbidly "obeast," and at least half of the men are, as well. Many chronic diseases to which Bowman refers -- heart disease, cancer, obesity and diabetes -- are attributable to a profound lack of self-discipline, which translates into over-eating and sloth, and also manifests in smoking and enormous alcohol and illegal drug consumption. I lived among blacks for 30 years and did business with them for as long, and I NEVER met even one who didn't smoke weed.

Blaming Whitey for their own failings is hardly something new. Blacks who ruined their lives with felony convictions -- or who remain functionally illiterate after sleeping through 12 years of schooling -- are very quick to blame Whitey for their predicaments. The same is true of those who have chronically cheated their "rent-man," or who habitually stole from an employer. Yet, they often blame Whitey.

Bowman also made reference to "America's original sin and its disease of hate and racism towards black and brown people..." He was clearly referencing slavery in the customary manner race-hustlers do when they want more white man money. This doesn't work with me any longer -- and probably never did -- because I believe slavery was the last honest work most black bast@rds like Bowman ever had.

On a daily basis, blacks demonstrate that they are incapable of observing our criminal laws, society's moral laws, or even simple traffic laws. Now they have more freedom than 99.9999999999 percent of the people who have lived on the face of this Earth, and how do they exercise those freedoms? Most become pimps or whores, dope dealers, car-thieves, armed robbers, purse-snatchers, welfare cheats, burglars, or participate in "flash-mobs" to shoplift goods they find easier to steal than work to acquire.

I refuse to be lectured to by a lying black bast@rd like Bowman. One safe way of avoiding the soul-deadening lies of black gorillas is to avoid CNN, the Communist News Network. CNN has been home to more black losers than our state prison systems.
