

The Great Divide

by Earl P. Holt III

*"I'm looking for a hard-headed woman
One who'll make me do my best
And if I find a hard-headed woman,
I know the rest of my life will be blessed..."*

I'm not certain what Cat Stevens had in mind with those lyrics, but I suspect he was acknowledging a phenomenon most men have observed: that about half the female population in the West think like children, and continue to do so for most of their lives. This leads to a worldview consisting of fantasy and delusion, where the following dogmas are considered not only credible, but undeniable as well:

Men can become pregnant;
Socialism brings fairness, equality, and prosperity;
Gender is a false construct;
Trump is Hitler, and MAGA is fascist;
Men are poisoned by testosterone;
Capital punishment is murder, but abortion is healthcare;
ICE Agents enforcing immigration laws are the Gestapo;
Diversity is our strength.

Most men respect women who think like men, and will listen to their ideas. You may call it misogyny if you insist, but it's an indication that those particular women think like ADULTS. Childish women often end up brittle, angry, divorced, lonely, and without a man in their lives, and frequently without children, as well. They have no one to "mansplain" events to them, and often end up as those "childless cat-ladies" of whom

Vice President J.D. Vance spoke. They tend toward self-absorption because there's no focus in their lives other than themselves.

"Childless Cat-Ladies" with Little Purpose in Their Lives

Unhinged women who riot and attack ICE Agents in Minneapolis and other BLUE cities fit this description. They are too blinded by hate and ideology to see that by obstructing ICE they are actually defending murderers and child-rapists. President Trump and ICE -- as the ultimate symbols of "patriarchy" -- offer a convenient target at which to vent their smoldering anger and frustration. Yet, it's generally the poor choices they, themselves, have made that account for their unhappiness. To very loosely paraphrase Julius Caesar, "The fault lies not with men but with yourselves, that you fell victim to the lies of 'The Ladies' Auxiliary of Marxism'."

On January 14th, Washington, DC offered a clear contrast between women who think like children, and those who think like adults. In a hearing on "The Dangers of Chemical Abortion Drugs," Senator Josh Hawley (R-MO) tried valiantly for 10 minutes to get a straight answer to his question, "Can men become pregnant?" His witness was an Obstetrician and Gynecologist named Dr. Nisha Vermin, who minutes before had sanctimoniously declared that public policy should be "based on science and evidence," not politics. Dr. Vermin did the "rope-a-dope" while evading the obvious answer. Feminism and Marxist ideology precluded her from giving an answer that any eight year-old could give.

Meanwhile, one of my personal heroes, Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt, ripped into a pseudo-journalist at the White House press briefing on January 15th, 2026. Under the pretense of being a real journalist for THE HILL, some Limey poofter asked a pointed question based on false premises about ICE Agents killing innocent Americans. Karoline Leavitt laid into him like a chainsaw into butter, calling him a "hack" and a "left-wing activist," and leaving him a pile of smoldering humiliation.

Dr. Vermin & Senator Hawley

Leavitt Schooling Fake News

Thus, here were two accomplished women who recently found themselves in the glare of conflict: one, a physician who clings tenaciously to the absurd notion that men can become pregnant; and the other, President Trump's Press Secretary, who is willing to go toe-to-toe with fake news media poseurs disseminating false narratives.

This is a harsh thing to say, but it's primarily childish women who have traditionally held back all other women. They are why the Framers of the Constitution refused to include women's suffrage in the original document. Yet, while the Framers recognized that childish women will always be with us, even they never dreamed that unhinged women would one day take to the streets to riot and attack federal law enforcement in order to protect illegal alien murderers and child rapists.

Recently, a female friend -- who graduated Phi Beta Kappa from a prestigious university -- Forwarded to me an e-mail advocating repeal of the 19th Amendment. It was her reaction to the hysterical, female rioters in Minneapolis.

"Baby, you've regressed a long way..."
